Pastor's Perspective

Brothers and sisters,

Your Voice Matters!

If Pope Francis were to come to your home today to hear you talk about your experience of our Church, what would you say? Though he is unable to come to every household, he has set up a way for all of us to be heard. He has invited everyone throughout the world to speak to each other and be heard through the Synod.

As I have shared with you before, the entire Catholic Church is called to participate in the upcoming Synod of Bishops. The Synod will be held in October 2023 and is entitled: "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission." Synodality is a gathering of people to listen to the Holy Spirit speaking through us.

This Synod is unique for two reasons.
One, the Holy Father is asking that the entire Church participate in this Synod. The faithful, clergy and religious are invited to pray, listen, and talk together with the Bishops before the 2023 gathering of Bishops in Rome. In all the parishes of the Diocese, processes have been established so that all the faithful, including those who have left the practice of the faith, can be heard and accompanied.
Second, this Synod is a unique gift for our local Church. It is a gift of time. An opportunity to take a step back and reconnect with one another. It is time to invite people not only back to Sunday Mass, but also to parish life. This invitation to parish life starts with listening – listening to each other's joys, hopes, sorrows and anxieties. Listening to each other is the basis of dialogue, friendship and community life. This Synod is not about changing doctrine or church structures, but rather encountering each other as brothers and sisters in Christ in the post-pandemic world.

This is why our parish wants to hear from you. We will be providing a card with a QR code that will link you to a quick survey with questions intentionally designed to hear from you. Not only do we want to hear from every parishioner, but we also want to hear from your family and friends who have left the practice of the faith. By listening to the pains and joys of one another it provides a path for healing and new beginnings. We are not only looking to hear from Catholics, but if you know people from other Christian communities or those of other faith traditions, we wish to have them share with us as well.

We will have cards available this weekend in the pews for you to take home. I ask you to first take time to answer openly and honestly the questions asked. Remember your voice matters. I also ask that you tell your family and friends that the Church wants to hear from them too. Pass them a card and share the QR code with them. Invite them to take just a few minutes to allow their voice to be heard. Some of you may think why bother. Will it even matter?

We should be willing participants to accompany with others even when it be difficult or challenging. We can always learn from one another and be better as we journey forward. I do not know at this moment what good fruits will come through the synod process, but I can promise you that our parish staff and entire community will move forward to take the necessary steps to learn how we can become an even more unified, faithful, and loving parish who strives to walk together for the glory of God and in the Holy Name of Jesus!

If you have not already prayed for the Synod process please do so. All members of the Church are called to pray for this Synod journey. The Adsumus (Latin for 'we stand before you') prayer calls upon the Holy Spirit to guide a Church gathering. This prayer is attributed to St. Isidore of Seville. Every session of the Second Vatican Council began with the bishops and Holy Father praying this prayer. For the Synod, the Holy Father is proposing that the entire People of God pray this simplified version of the Adsumus.

Let us pray:

> We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

Let us walk the path of Synodality together in Christ's Holy Name,

Father Erik

Hermanos y hermanas,

¡Su voz es importante!

Si el Papa Francisco viniera hoy a su casa para escucharlos hablar de su experiencia con nuestra Iglesia, ¿qué le dirían? Aunque el papa no puede visitar a todas las familias, ha establecido una manera para que todos seamos escuchados; ha convocado el Sínodo e invitado a todos en el mundo entero a conversar entre sí y ser escuchados.

Como les he compartido antes, toda la Iglesia Católica está llamada a participar en el próximo Sínodo de los Obispos que se celebrará en octubre de 2023 y se titula: "Por una Iglesia sinodal: comunión, participación y mission". La sinodalidad es una reunión de personas para escuchar al Espíritu Santo que habla mediante cada uno de nosotros.

Este Sínodo es único por dos razones.
En primer lugar, el Santo Padre pide que toda la Iglesia participe en este Sínodo. Los fieles, el clero y los religiosos y religiosas están invitados a orar, escuchar y dialogar con los obispos antes que ellos se reúnan en 2023 en Roma. En todas las parroquias de la diócesis se han establecido procesos para la escucha y el acompañamiento de todos los fieles, incluidas las personas que han dejado la práctica de la fe.
En segundo lugar, este Sínodo es un regalo único para nuestra iglesia particular. Es un regalo de tiempo; una oportunidad para dar un paso atrás y retomar nuestra relación con los demás. Es hora de no solo invitar a la gente a la misa dominical, sino también a la vida parroquial. Esta invitación comienza con escuchar: escuchar las alegrías, esperanzas, penas y angustias de los demás. La escucha mutua es la base del diálogo, la amistad y la vida en comunidad. El propósito del Sínodo no es cambiar la doctrina o las estructuras de la iglesia, sino más bien encontrarnos como hermanos y hermanas en Cristo en el mundo posterior a la pandemia.

Es por eso que nuestra parroquia solicita su participación. Les proporcionaremos una tarjeta con un código QR que los vinculará a una encuesta breve con preguntas redactadas intencionalmente para conocer su sentir. No solo queremos la participación de todos los feligreses, sino también la de sus familiares y amistades que han dejado la práctica de la fe. Al escuchar mutuamente las penas y alegrías de los demás, se abre un camino a la sanación y nuevos comienzos. No solo buscamos escuchar a los católicos, sino que, si conocen a personas de otras comunidades cristianas o de otras tradiciones de fe, también queremos que compartan con nosotros.

Este fin de semana tendremos tarjetas en las bancas para que las lleven a casa. Les pido que primero se tomen el tiempo para responder abierta y honestamente a las preguntas que se les hacen. Recuerden que su voz es importante. Les pido también que le digan a sus familiares y amistades que la Iglesia quiere también escucharlos a ellos. Denles una tarjeta y compártanles el código QR. Invítenlos a que tomen unos minutos para hacer oír su voz. Algunos de ustedes pueden pensar que no tiene caso. ¿Acaso importaría?

Debemos participar con la disposición de acompañar a otros incluso cuando sea difícil o represente un reto. Siempre podemos aprender unos de otros y mejorar a medida que avanzamos. En este momento, no sé cuáles serán los frutos del proceso sinodal, ¡pero puedo prometerles que nuestro personal parroquial y toda la comunidad harán lo necesario para descubrir cómo podemos llegar a ser una parroquia más unida, fiel y amorosa que se esfuerza por caminar juntos para gloria de Dios y en el Santo Nombre de Jesús!

Si aún no han orado por el Sínodo, háganlo. Todos los miembros de la Iglesia están llamados a rezar por este proceso sinodal. La oración de Adsumus (que en latín significa 'estamos ante ti') invoca al Espíritu Santo para que guíe una reunión de la Iglesia. Los obispos y el Santo Padre rezaron esta oración antes del inicio de cada sesión del Concilio Vaticano II. La oración se atribuye a San Isidoro de Sevilla. Para el Sínodo, el Santo Padre propone que todo el Pueblo de Dios rece esta versión simplificada del Adsumus.

Oremos:

Estamos ante ti, Espíritu Santo, reunidos en tu nombre. Tú que eres nuestro verdadero consejero: ven a nosotros, apóyanos, entra en nuestros corazones. Enséñanos el camino, muéstranos cómo alcanzar la meta. Impide que perdamos el rumbo como personas débiles y pecadoras. No permitas que la ignorancia nos lleve por falsos caminos. Concédenos el don del discernimiento, para que no dejemos que nuestras acciones se guíen por prejuicios y falsas consideraciones. Condúcenos a la unidad en ti, para que no nos desviemos del camino de la verdad y la justicia, sino que en nuestro peregrinaje terrenal nos esforcemos por alcanzar la vida eterna. Esto te lo pedimos a ti, que obras en todo tiempo y lugar, en comunión con el Padre y el Hijo por los siglos de los siglos.
Amén.

Recorramos juntos el camino de la sinodalidad en el Santo Nombre de Cristo.

Padre Erik Esparza

Apostles wanted

Last Saturday, Bishop Rojas bestowed the Amar es Entregarse award upon two diocesan leaders who have shared their administrative expertise for the benefit of the Church: Virginia Turner, Human Resources Director; and Ann Marie Gallant, Emergency Operations Collaborative Director. Both ladies guided us through the pandemic much like the Apostles managed the early Church– as faithful stewards! Tracy Earl Welliver connects management with stewardship when sharing about today's scriptures:

"Here's my idea for a leadership conference: The Management Style of the Apostles. Think about it, the only thing the Apostles had more abundantly than holiness was problems. Lots and lots of problems ... most of them of the human resources variety. It's no small feat, starting Christ's Church on earth. I wouldn't want to be project manager of that endeavor.

The Acts of the Apostles is, in some ways, a big book full of problems and ways to solve them. It's a blueprint for tackling interpersonal issues in the manner of a true steward, who encounters every problem starting from the same place: What would my Master want?

It's a question we should be asking ourselves every time we, too, encounter a problem — especially problems relating to other people.
What is the truth in this situation, and how would God have me communicate it?
How could I handle this in a way that is worthy of the name of my Master?

In Acts, we see a lot of characteristics of everyday stewardship. We see the Apostles mindfully acknowledge the lack of peace that is posed by problems like false teachings, this Gospel's problem du jour. They prayerfully confront the obstacles to salvation posed by these issues. Always, always, always, their main objective is to reveal the will of God, remaining committed to the truth while helping newcomers find avenues to salvation."

Amar es Entregarse means the "total giving of oneself". The more we practice stewardship everyday - placing Christ first in the way we use our time, share our talents and skills, and spend our treasure - the more we'll lead like the Apostles.
