Father Martin's Corner

November 1: All Saints´ Day!

There is a great multitude who are saints out there living and dead. But today's feast is instituted to honor all the saints who are dead. They are either known or unknown, canonized and uncanonized, recognized and unrecognized by the Church. So, the holy Mother Church supplies a festal celebration for All Saints during the year.

On this All Saint's Day, we are reminded of our "communio" as a Church of Christ. We always profess the communion of saints. This "communio sanctorum" is our spiritual union or solidarity as members of the Christian Church. This spiritual union binds us together - all the faithful on earth, the souls in purgatory, and the saints in heaven.

November 2: All Souls' Day!

As a Church, we commemorate the souls of all the departed. It is a day of prayer for the dead. With our tradition, we pray for all the dead family members, relatives, friends, parishioners, and school alumni. At the same time, in our Parish, we pray for them for the whole month of November. It is an opportunity to make sacrifices for them. The only way -- prayer -- to help our dead brothers and sisters go back to God, our Creator in eternity.

Eternal rest grant unto souls of all the departed, O Lord. And let your perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen!

Tomorrow, Monday. November 2nd, we shall have a Mass for the Commemoration of the Souls of the Departed at 9:00 in the morning here at the Main Church.

St. Vincent de Paul Ministry needs your help

We need non-perishable food items for your table, and hygiene products. Thank you for your continued support of this outreach ministry. Kristin Bayer, president of the St Vincent de Paul, wants to convey: "a special thank you to all of you who prayed for me during my paramedic internship and offered encouragement, support along the way, emotionally, spiritually and physically. As you are my faith-family at St. Philomene, I persevered and became stronger to serve our brothers and sisters."

Rest in Peace

Jana Susac, Lourdes U. Wilcox and Fatima Pacheco.

Rincón del Padre Martín

1 de noviembre: Todo el día Saints´!

Existe una gran multitud que son Santos ya sea vivos o muertos. Pero la fiesta de hoy ha sido instituida para honrar a todos los Santos que ya están muertos. Sean o no conocidos, canonizados, reconocidos o no por la iglesia. Por lo tanto, la Santa Madre Iglesia suministra una celebración festiva para todos los Santos durante el año.

En este día de todos los Santos se nos recuerda de nuestra "communio" como una iglesia de Cristo. Siempre profesamos a la comunión de los Santos. Este "sanctorum communio" es nuestra Unión espiritual o solidaridad como miembros de la Iglesia Cristiana. Esta unión espiritual nos une - a todos los fieles en la tierra, a las almas del Purgatorio y a los Santos en el cielo.

2 de noviembre: los difuntos!

Como iglesia, conmemoramos las almas de todos los difuntos. Es un día de oración por los muertos. Con nuestra tradición, oramos por todos los familiares muertos y tambien amigos, feligreses y antiguos alumnos de la escuela. Al mismo tiempo, en nuestra parroquia, oramos por ellos durante todo el mes de noviembre. Esta es una oportunidad para hacer sacrificios por ellos. La única manera--oración--para ayudar a nuestros hermanos y hermanas que han muerto el de volver a Dios, nuestro creador en la eternidad.

Descanso eterno sea concedido a las almas de todos los fieles difuntos, oh Señor. Y que tu luz perpetua, oh Senor, brille sobre ellos. Que descansen en paz. Amén!
