TOWARD HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS

From the beginning of creation, God intended for people to live together in relationship with one another. Much of scripture shows us how to do this as it illustrates and clarifies God's plans. The readings this weekend guide us in the value and care of our relationships. Specifically, the Gospel focuses on the circumstances of failed relationships. Unlike the Pharisees, we would do well not to focus on the laws that pertain to failed relationships, but concentrate instead on what God really intended for us. Healthy bonds require a lot of our time and energy. They certainly require trust and honesty. Jesus demonstrated a deep commitment to his friends and to us. As our brother, he gave his very life for us. Children work hard at friendships. They trust, forgive, and love without conditions. The final words of today's Gospel invite us to welcome Jesus and the people of our relationships with the fresh enthusiasm of a child.

NEWS AND EVENTS

October 18 after the 11:00 PM Mass
Covered dish with meat provided
Details in following bulletins
If you would like to help or have ideas to make the event better call Neil..232-5625

Confirmation Parents Meeting
There will be a mandatory Confirmation parents meeting (during CCD) this Sunday, October 4th.

Teaching Masses
Fr. George will be celebrating a series of Teaching Masses on Thursday evenings at 6:00 pm. These teaching Masses will answer the questions that are often asked regarding the Sacred Liturgy; stand sit stand sit stand kneel stand kneel sit – what are we, schizophrenic?; how come the priest never says 'good morning' before Mass?; why is water poured into the wine? These and many others will be explained as we learn about the prayers, gestures, symbols and the signs used during Mass.

Now Available: Electronic Giving!
To become an electronic giver, log onto our website: saintannebellview.org and click on the blue Online Giving button. You can choose your fund (Offertory, and/or some of the Holy Days of Obligation), how much you want to contribute to the fund and how frequently you want to have the money taken out for each fund (weekly, monthly, semi-monthly, annually). Thank you for your continuing support of the parish.

SAFE ENVIRONMENT INFORMATION

Educational Material on the Danger of Abuse

The overwhelming majority of our clergy and lay leaders are hardworking individuals who are dedicated to serving the people of God in our parishes and schools. All of us together are responsible for making sure that all of our ministries are as safe as possible for our children and vulnerable adults. Each of us has a responsibility to educate ourselves about the real danger of abuse. Courses are available online at www.shieldthevulnerable.org, and they are free. For help on these courses and other safety matters, please contact the Diocese Office of Safe Environment at 435-3570.

Victims of Abuse

The Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee is committed to healing the hurting hearts of sexual abuse victims and has established Victims Assistance Coordinators who are experienced and trained counselors and are available to help persons who have been sexually abused. The Coordinator for the Pensacola/Fort Walton Beach area is Louis M. Makarowski, Ph.D., P.A; 477-7181.

Offertory Envelopes Mailed

The quarterly offertory envelopes were mailed out last week. Please be sure to check and see that you received the correct envelope number packet. If you no longer use envelopes, and would like to stop receiving them, please contact the parish office at 456-5966.

Christmas Lights

We still don't have enough volunteers to help with the Christmas decorating, working, and taking down of the lights. If you would like to volunteer, you will find sign-up sheets in the back of the church. Please fill one out and turn it back in to the office or the offertory basket. Deadline to turn in sign-up sheet is Oct. 13th.

DIOCESE OF
PENSACOLA-TALLAHASSEE

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

September 25, 2015

Dear Pastor/Parish Administrator/Parish Community,

Thank you for using CRS Rice Bowl in your parish this Lent. The prayers and devotions that your community has offered through this program are bringing new life to our poorest and most vulnerable brothers and sisters in our own communities and around the world. I truly hope that this program helped provide an enriching spiritual experience for families in your faith community as they prayed throughout the 40 days of Lent and reflected on the Gospel call to serve our neighbors.

This year thirty eight parishes and six schools from our diocese participated in CRS Rice Bowl and raised a total of $35,853.53 for our brothers and sisters living in poverty.

Seventy-five percent of CRS Rice Bowl donations will go to Catholic Relief Services to support humanitarian aid projects that bring vital hope and life-saving aid to the poorest of the poor overseas. Twenty-five percent of CRS Rice Bowl donations will stay here in our area to help those suffering from poverty in our own diocese.

I encourage you to stay connected to the global work of Catholic Relief Services throughout the year. Please visit confrontglobalpoverty.org to learn how your parish can join Catholics across the country in urging our nation's leaders to make decisions that defend the life and dignity of all people.

Thank you again for participation in CRS Rice Bowl this Lent. With our shared spirit of solidarity, we can continue to bring Christ's light of hope to the world.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+

Most Reverend Gregory L. Parkes
Bishop of Pensacola-Tallahassee
