FATHER MARTIN'S CORNER

"The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel" (Ps 80). In the same manner, the vineyard or the house of the Lord is the Church here at St. Philomene's. In the words of Pope Francis in his encyclical, Laudato Si', our local parish is a human ecology or niche where imagination, interactions, creativity and cooperation are constantly happening for our development and growth. It is this human ecology or niche that the Lord's right hand protects, cares and gives new life to those who call upon His name. Being together in our common human niche this weekend is a visible realization of who we are in the vineyard of the Lord.

Just as St. Paul advised the Philippians, he also wants us to remember that our Parish Festival should not in any way give us anxieties but rather peace, love and community because the peace of God will guard our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. Our prayer, petition, thanksgiving and physical presence will definitely make a huge difference. Therefore, it is an opportunity to reconnect and interact in a more meaningful way with our brothers and sisters in the vineyard of the Lord or in our parish niche. I want you to further reflect on the Letter of St. Paul: "whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me. Then the God of peace will be with you."

After celebrating the Eucharist, I invite to the vineyard of the Lord or the parish niche to join our Festival with our fellow laborers in our vineyard, St. Philomene Parish!

St. Philomene School

This week the school has been a buzz with all the preparations for the Parish Festival. The parents, teachers, students, faculty, and staff have been preparing the games, making signs and decorations for the booths, organize workers for the booths, building the booth structures, cleaning campus, moving the large picnic tables, gathering donations, and making cakes, cookies, and breads. We look forward to enjoying a wonderful gathering together as a faith filled community to celebrate St. Philomene Parish and School! God Bless - Mrs. Kerri Bray-Smith

RINCON DEL PADRE MARTIN

"La viña del Señor es la casa de Israel" (Sal 80). De la misma manera, la viña o la casa del Señor es la Iglesia aquí en St. Philomene. En las palabras del Papa Francisco en su encíclica Laudato Si', nuestra parroquia local es una ecología humana o un nicho donde la imaginación, las interacciones, la creatividad y la cooperación están constantemente sucediendo para nuestro desarrollo y crecimiento. Es esta ecología humana o nicho que la mano derecha del Señor protege, cuida y da nueva vida a aquellos que invocan Su nombre. Estar juntos en nuestro nicho humano común este fin de semana es una realización visible de lo que somos en la viña del Señor.

Así como San Pablo aconsejó a los Filipenses, él también quiere que recordemos que nuestro Festival de la Parroquia no debe de manera alguna darnos ansiedades sino más bien paz, amor y comunidad porque la paz de Dios guardará nuestros corazones y mentes en Cristo Jesús. Nuestra oración, petición, acción de gracias y presencia física definitivamente marcarán una gran diferencia. Por lo tanto, es una oportunidad para reconectarse e interactuar de manera más significativa con nuestros hermanos y hermanas en la viña del Señor o en nuestro nicho parroquial. Quisiera que reflexionasen más sobre la Carta de San Pablo: ¡todo lo que es verdadero, todo lo que es honorable, todo lo que es justo, todo lo puro, todo lo bello, todo lo que es bueno, si hay excelencia y si hay algo digno de alabanza, piensa en estas cosas. Sigue haciendo lo que has aprendido y recibido y oído y visto en mí. Entonces el Dios de paz estará con nosotros".

Después de celebrar la Eucaristía, invito a la viña del Señor o al nicho de la parroquia a unirse a nuestro Festival con nuestros compañeros de trabajo en nuestra viña, la Parroquia de Saint Philomene!
