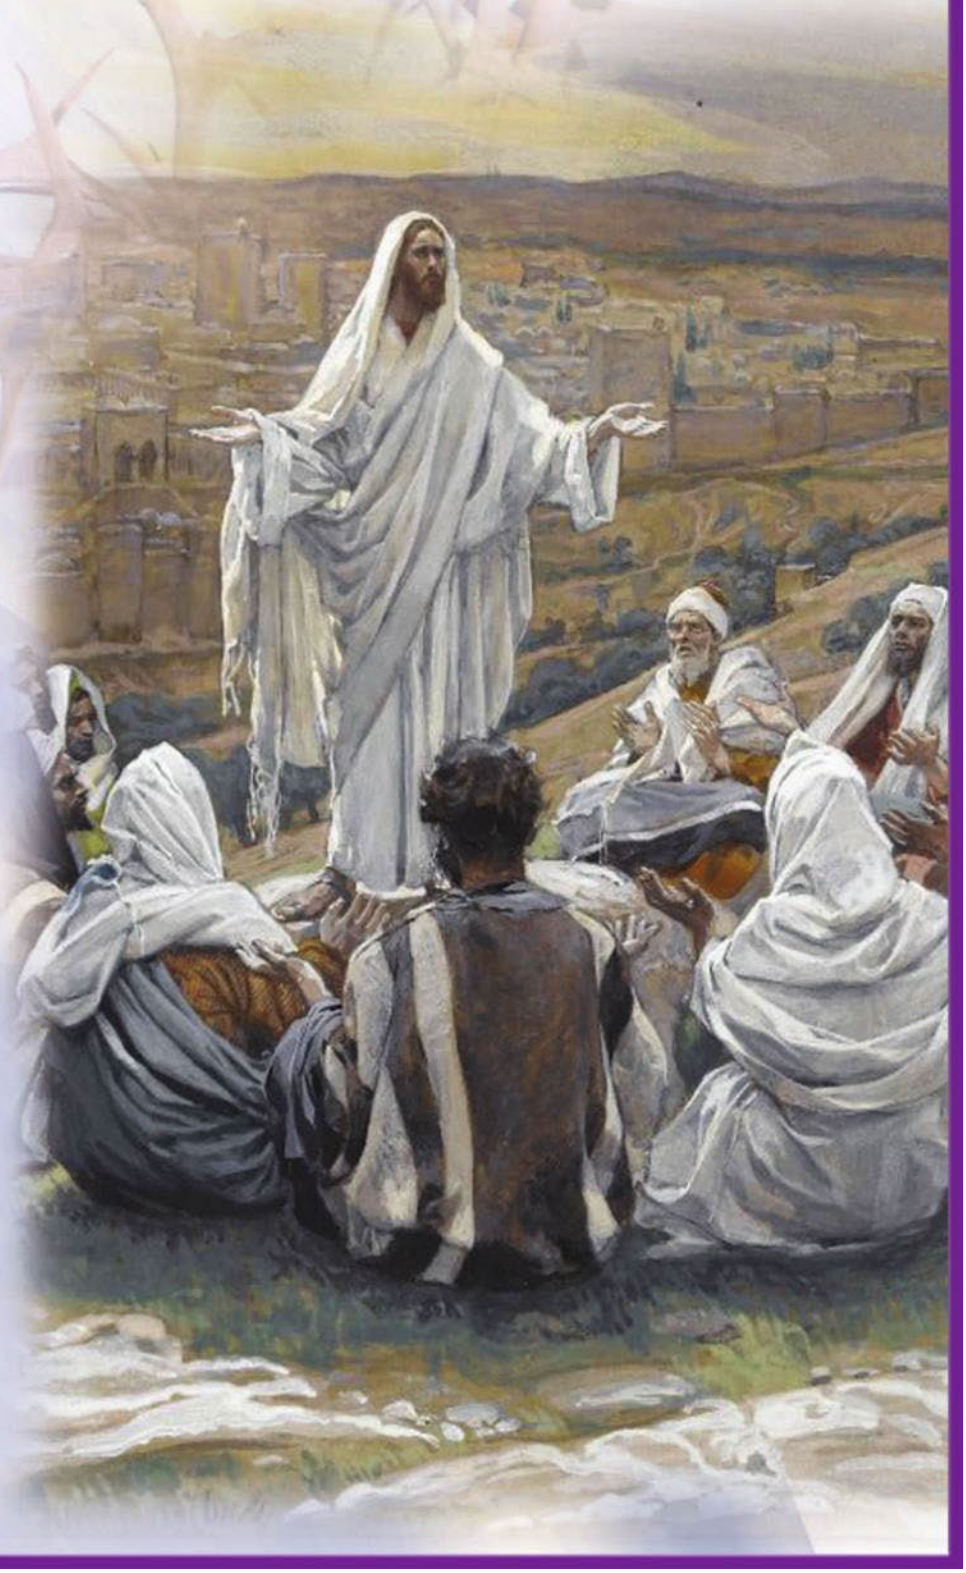
Fifth Sunday of LENT



Jesus teaches his disciples about the way in which he will be glorified by God, and a voice from heaven is heard to affirm his teaching.

John 12:20-33

Our Holy Father: In his own words

"Let us allow God to fill our hearts with his goodness and mercy".

Pope Francis

Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord (March 25)

Originally a feast of our Lord, but now celebrated as a Marian feast, the feast of the Annunciation dates back at least to the fifth century, and the date of the feast, which is determined by the date of Christmas, was set at March 25 by the seventh century.

The Annunciation, as much as or even more so than Christmas, represents Christ's Incarnation. When Mary signaled to Gabriel her acceptance of God's Will, Christ was conceived in her womb through the power of the Holy Spirit. While most of the Fathers of the Church say that Mary's fiat was essential to God's plan of salvation, God foresaw Mary's acceptance of His Will from all eternity.

The narrative of the Annunciation testifies powerfully to the truth of the Catholic tradition that Mary was indeed a virgin when Christ was conceived, but also that she intended to remain one perpetually. Mary's response to Gabriel—"How shall this be done, because I know not man?" (Luke 1:34) was universally interpreted by the Fathers of the Church as a statement of the Mary's resolution to remain a virgin forever.

…"Señor, Quisiéramos ver a Jesús"

Estamos casi al final de la vida pública de Jesús y el evangelio, hoy, nos presenta a unos peregrinos que vienen a celebrar la Pascua, y le hacen una petición a Felipe: «Queremos ver a Jesús». Podemos aplicarnos a nosotros esta petición, nos acercamos a la Iglesia pidiendo ver a Jesús. Y ellos, al igual que nosotros, no lo hacen por curiosidad sino porque han descubierto en Él algo importante, algo que nos ayuda a vivir nuestra vida de forma totalmente diferente a como lo hacemos.

Jesús será crucificado en pocos días y como hombre debe sentir preocupación, por ello contesta con unas palabras que quizás nos desconcierten, igual que desconcertó a aquellos hombres: «Llega la hora de que sea glorificado el Hijo del Hombre». Sabe que ha llegado su hora, que morirá, pero también tiene la certeza que todos veremos su glorificación en la Resurrección.

Ellos no lo entenderían, pero y nosotros, ¿lo entendemos? Cada año rememoramos en Semana Santa todo aquel acontecimiento, aquel dolor, también su Resurrección, pero ¿lo creemos o sólo lo vivimos como unas vacaciones, como un conjunto artístico en la calle pero sin más repercusión?

Si leemos con detenimiento el evangelio, si nos paramos en cada palabra, en cada gesto, en cada signo, que hace Jesús estamos descubriendo el amor más sublime, el más altruista: Dios a través de su Hijo, nos lo hace saber. Dios es Amor.

Con la metáfora del grano de trigo del evangelio de hoy, nos está diciendo Jesús que cuando el grano muere, crece, brota de nuevo la vida, pero si el grano se queda en su envoltura no dará vida. Jesús lo repite en varias ocasiones, si nos agarramos a nuestra vida, a nuestras ideas, de forma egoísta, ésta no tendrá sentido, pero si sabemos compartirla con amor y generosidad si lo tendrá.

Vivimos en estos momentos una crisis, no sólo de dinero, sino también de valores, pero caigamos en la cuenta que también hay muchas personas que tienen una actitud abierta, generosa, que comparten su vida, que intentan cada día hacer la vida de los demás más justa y humana, personas e instituciones que extienden sus manos para acoger al más deprimido, al más marginado. Esa manera de vivir es seguir a Jesús y entender que, a través de la fe, Dios nos ama.

Que pasen una feliz semana

Fr. Juan Fernando Gámez

ST. JOSEPH PARISHIONERS

PLEASE NOTE:

RENOVATIONS

All Masses will continue in the Church structure until further notice. I have received word that there is some confusion about the announcement made last weekend concerning further renovations. As of now, renovations are not starting. It was an announcement meant to prepare us for the near future. Again, Masses continue in the Church structure until further notice. I thank you again for your patience and understanding.

RESTROOM

The family/handicap restroom is available for families who are in need of changing baby diapers. This restroom is located at the south side of the regular restrooms.

Please do not leave soiled pampers in the crying room. Thank you for your cooperation.

HYMNALS

Please be delicate with our hymnals and missalettes. If you see that they are not in place, please put them back in the pews.

SACRAMENTAL CARE

Baptism for Infants & Young Children(ages 7 & under):

We welcome the great blessing of having your child(ren) baptized. In preparation to do so, all parents are required to attend a baptismal preparation process prior to the baptism of each child. All baptisms are scheduled through the parish office.

Baptism for Older Children (8 + yrs):

Please contact the Children Faith Formation Office and speak with David Guerrero for further information.

Marriage:

Engaged couples desiring to marry in the Church need to make an appointment to see either Fr. Pete or Fr. Fernando for marriage preparation. No weddings can be scheduled prior to the first initial meeting with either Fr. Pete or Fr. Fernando.

Confirmation:

High School youth who are at the age to receive Confirmation must contact the Youth Faith Formation office and speak with Polly Gonzalez for further information.

Adults who have not been confirmed are to contact the parish office for further information.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults):

Non-Catholics (non-baptized or baptized in a non-Catholic Christian denomination) who are interested in learning about the Catholic faith with the possibility of becoming Catholic should contact the parish office to sign up. Please note that the course has begun, but there is still time to begin for this Easter Vigil's celebration.

Holy Communion to the Sick and the Homebound:

If you or any one you know is in need of receiving Holy Communion at home, please contact the parish office so that we may schedule a regular visit to you.

Anointing of the Sick:

Parishioners who are scheduled for surgery are invited to receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick prior to their hospitalization. If you know of anyone who is seriously ill or old age who is in need of the Anointing of the Sick, please contact the office.
