THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"What Troubles Reveal
Today's Turning Point/Dr. David Jeremiah/May 19, 2021

And Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can we find such a one as this, a man in whom is the Spirit of God?"
Genesis 41:38

It has been said that difficulties don't determine who we are. Rather, they reveal who we are. Said another way, the same heat that softens butter can make mud hard as a brick. It all depends on how the thing being heated responds. The same with the human heart. Difficulties can soften one heart and harden another.

Joseph, in Egypt, and Daniel, in Babylon, both revealed their character to their pagan masters. Their difficulties caused the presence of God to be manifested through them. In the New Testament, no one endured more difficulties over a longer time than the apostle Paul (2 Corinthians 6:3-10; 11:23-29). He described his difficulties as being "hard-pressed," "perplexed," "persecuted," and "struck down." But never "crushed," "in despair," "forsaken," or "destroyed" (2 Corinthians 4:8-9). He called his troubles "the dying of the Lord Jesus" so that "the life of Jesus also may be manifested in [his] body" (verse 10). His troubles revealed the "treasure" of Christ within (verse 7).

Troubles in life are normal (Job 5:7). Our response will manifest Christ to the world – or not.

To become Christlike is the only thing in the whole world worth caring for."
Henry Drummond

PONDERINGS FROM FATHER BILL

There is a framed picture I have from May 22, 1921 in the front of Sacred Heart Church in Newburgh, on the day of First Communion for perhaps 25 young men and 50 young women. Front and center with a few altar servers is Father John Gallo, the founding pastor of the church. A study of their faces exactly one century ago, now all home with the Lord in Heaven, conveys a mix of emotions be it uncertain nervousness or happy anticipation. That is an apt description of life in general. Like a conditioned soldier on the battlefield, as 1921 was the year World War I came to an end, our future has the good and bad as well as the ugly. When the lens of faith is applied to every moment, including the successes and even (moral) failures, our armor is solidified as it was for all of the great Biblical figures with Joseph and Daniel as concrete examples. Even some of the great sufferings I have experienced as a priest, and in you in similar challenging circumstances, hold in potency the makings of stupendous spiritual growth. Those once young faces in the 1921 photo, a metaphor for us still alive in the world today, have passed the portal into eternity which you and I will one day likewise experience. We will step into a realm of no more hurt or uncertainty, but a perfect state that is pandemic-free and connected to perfect love and mercy facing God's embrace. Father Bill

TODAY

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24

This reading relates how death of the spirit entered the world by the envy of the devil, but those not in his possession will not experience it.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15

Paul exhorts the Corinthians to contribute to the poor of the Jerusalem church in accordance with their means. He explains that if people help each other, they will one day be helped when they are needy.

Gospel: Mark 5:21-43

"Do not be afraid, only have faith." Jesus' power over sickness and death requires absolute trust and absence of fear.

MESSAGE FROM ARCHDIOCESE

"Deacon Hanley has requested a Leave of Absence from his diaconal ministry to attend to some personal matters which has been granted by the Archdiocese of New York. We are grateful for Deacon Hanley's ministry to the parish and ask that we all keep him in prayer."

Fellow Parishioners –New CDC guidelines regarding the wearing of a mask. All who are vaccinated are no longer required to wear a mask, but still may do so for personal safety. For those not vaccinated, the wearing of the mask is still required. As we are returning to some sense of normalcy, all our safeguards in our parish will remain in place. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter and God Bless us all.
