"For they preach but they do not practice." The scribes and Pharisees may be the ones Jesus was speaking about in today's Gospel, but we must be careful not to dismiss his words when it comes to our own actions. Jesus offered a difficult challenge to those honor-seekers that we must also heed when he said, "The greatest among you must be your servant." This is not the way the world usually works. Generally speaking, the idea of being a servant is considered inferior to being someone who has risen to high levels of leadership or status. But Jesus wants people in positions of authority to selflessly serve those over whom they have influence. And he insists that the leaders who establish laws, rules, and guidelines do not excuse themselves from following their own directives! "Practice what you preach," as the saying goes.

Whether or not we have extensive public influence, almost all of us at certain points are in a position to exercise leadership--with our children and families, with classmates, coworkers, neighbors, friends, and sometimes strangers. When these moments arise, we are called to step into this role without being hypocrites. It's important to be sure we don't issue unrealistic demands on others that we ourselves would find it burdensome or even impossible to fulfill. This requires the virtue of humility. Instead of reveling in the authority we may have at any given moment, instead of creating "heavy burdens hard to carry and lay[ing] them on people's shoulders," we need to be ready and willing to walk a mile in their shoes, and lead accordingly. And Jesus tells us clearly that this servant leadership will be rewarded, for "whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

Joyful. Faithful. Successful.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Over the years we have had many great social events in our parish community. We have had socials for New Year's Eve, St. Patrick's Day, Mardi Gras, Our Lady of Guadalupe, Valentine's Day, and so many more. It seems we will use any excuse to have a party and enjoy each other's company. And for more than the last decade, my pastor has been present at most of these events. What always tickles me is to see him in his clerics going around with a tray of entrees or desserts as he seeks to serve his parishioners. We have joked that his clothing does resemble that of a waiter in a fine restaurant. The only difference is no tips! Sorry, Monsignor.

To see a shepherd serve his sheep causes me to reflect on how we are all called to serve one another. We are called to a life of humility and service, giving of ourselves for the greater glory of God. When we seek to serve our brothers and sisters, the Jesus in us meets the Jesus in them.

In our everyday lives we can find ways of serving others if we are mindful of the opportunities all around us. We must never fall into the trap of seeing others in terms of "us and them." In Christ, there is only US. In Christ, there is no Greek or Jew, servant or free. We are one. On this day, who will God place on your path for you to serve? Don't be fooled into thinking that all calls are for something grand. Sometimes, even a little dessert might be all it takes to show others they are loved.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question:
November 9 is the feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome. What is the significance of this feast?

Answer:
Every diocese has a mother church, the bishop's cathedral where the diocesan church gathers and celebrates. The cathedral is the seat of the bishop's authority over the diocese. That authority is intended to be one of service to God's people, shepherding and guiding them in a truly pastoral mode.

The pope is first and foremost the Bishop of Rome, as well as the head of the Roman Catholic Church. St. John Lateran is his cathedral, and its prominence derives from that reality. St. John Lateran cathedral traces its origins to Emperor Constantine who converted a portion of the Laterani family palace into a church, and gave it to Pope Sylvester (314-335) as the papal church and residence; St. John refers to the two saints in whose honor the church is dedicated, John the Baptist and John the Evangelist. It became known as the cathedral of the pope, and its facade's inscription refers to it as "the Mother and Head of all Churches, in the City and of the World." The universal celebration of this feast stresses the unity among Roman Catholics, as they unite themselves with the chair of Peter.

St. Nicholas is sponsoring the IGNATIUS PRESS "I'M DREAMING OF A CATHOLIC CHRISTMAS" BOOK AND FILM FAIR offering a large selection of extraordinary DVDs, books, CDs, and other Catholic gift items from Ignatius Press, one of the world's leading Catholic publishers and suppliers of quality Catholic materials.

- ✞ Many items will be available for purchase after Masses on Nov. 11, Nov. 12, Dec. 9, and Dec. 10
- ✞ You can also place an order and drop it off with payment at the parish office.

Digital catalogs and order forms are available on our website: http://www.stncc.net/book-and-film-fair.

Proceeds will benefit the Gardening Angels Ministry and their work in beautifying our parish grounds.

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

It is so easy to cast judgment upon the thoughts and behaviors of others. We have heard the phrase, "Practice what you preach." If we really believe in Jesus we will put great effort and care into following his example and living his message. Humility is our goal. True humility begins when I see myself as one among many wounded, searching souls who are striving to work out a place in life and discover who God is and how God acts. We are here today because we need to taste and feel the God who reveals himself fully in the Eucharist-the God who is our strength, hope, and salvation. We are not here because we are better or wiser than anyone else for we are simply humble sinners in need of mercy.

Monday, Dec. 11, 9 a.m. – 5 p.m., University of St. Thomas
This one-day symposium will explore the Catholic vision of the human person within its theological, scientific and social context. The goal of this conference is to equip clergy, religious, pastoral ministers and lay leaders with the pastoral insights and language they need to reach out to those they serve – in love and in truth. Registration will open soon. For more information, contact: Dr. Deborah Savage: 651-962-5061 or pdsavage@stthomas.edu

Our Parish School News

PRINCIPAL'S CORNER

Dear Holy Cross Families and Friends,

Now that we are deep into the days of fall, we are also deep into the heart of our school year. With the end of our first Trimester approaching, it is a good time to take stock of how far we have come as a school so far, and use that to gauge where we still need to go.

In a mere 40 days of school, we have been able to accomplish much. Our classes have come together with a strong sense of community and camaraderie. Our teachers have risen to the challenge of differentiated learning within those classrooms with both grace and strength of purpose. We have completed round one of our NWEA testing and will use those outcomes to inform our instruction going forward. Our students have begun service projects both within the school and out in the community. We have changed some teaching responsibilities to optimize learning for our students. Our enrollment has increased to 127 students. We have had three very successful fund raising events in the First Annual Alumni & Community Golf Outing, the Annual Marathon Walk, and the Buca and Bingo Night. Also, a wonderful Family Fun Night was instituted this summer, complete with an inflatable obstacle course, indoor scavenger hunt, and three food trucks!

We have again taken giant steps forward with technology via the use of eBooks, training for our teachers, and the addition of chromebook usage from 3rd through 5th grade that compliments the 1:1 chromebook program already in use in 6th through 8th grade. Our girls competed on 3 volleyball teams and participated in some exciting fall league play. New this fall is an after school STEM program called "Gear Engineers". Fifteen students have been enjoying this "Lego" based experience. The fall drama production of "Treasure Island" will include over 40 of our students in performances next week. Actually, I could go on and on but I think you get the idea that many wonderful things are happening at our school!

In my office I have a picture of the Divine Mercy with the words, "Jesus, I trust in You", written at the bottom. Often during the course of the day, I turn to that picture to remind myself that I do, indeed, need to put my trust in Him. I truly believe that if we all continue to do just that, to trust in Jesus, our school will continue to be the strong and faithful school that it is today. The Holy Spirit is at work at Holy Cross, and for that, I am ever thankful!

Peace be with you all,

Constance L. Krocak, Ed.D.
