May we never forget the memory of those whose spirit shines in the darkness!

At 8:46 a.m. the bells will toll throughout the Archdiocese. Please say a prayer for the victims at this time.

O God the author of mercy and lover of the salvation of mankind, we address Thy clemency in behalf of our brethren who tragically departed this life 16 years ago, that by intercession of the blessed Mary, ever virgin, and all the saints, Thou wouldst receive them into the enjoyment of eternal happiness. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Eternal rest grant them, O Lord
And let perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in Peace.

Message from Father Pergjini:

"Like the deer that yearns for running streams, so my soul is yearning for you my God; my soul is thirsting for God, the living God." Psalm 41:2-3.

After seventeen years of that unforgettable tragic event we still go through that painful memory of terror, our souls and hearts are yearning and thirsting for God to calm our painful memories of that day. September 11, 2001, it was Tuesday, as it is this year September 11, 2018. It was one of the most beautiful days of September with its blue and sunny skies with a pleasant breeze. It was a gorgeous day of September morning. I was scheduled to celebrate the Holy Mass at 12 p.m. As I walked into the sanctuary to start the Holy sacrifice of the Mass I saw a huge crowd of people in front of me, among them many policemen and firemen. It was very unusual for a daily Holy Mass to have such a big number of people attending. I could touch the pain of the crowd, and the crowd could touch my pain which I deeply felt into my soul. They all look at me in those moments to be consoled in Christ. As the opening prayer was said and the time for readings came I went to sit in my chair feeling the pain of those tragic moments, the agonizing death in the flames and smoke of thousands of victims and the unspeakable pain of their families. In those moments of tears and pain I felt that Christ was crying with us. Silence, pain, sufferings, tears. I found rest only in Christ trying to find refuge and hope in Him. During the consecration of the body and soul of Christ I experienced the presence of those who tragically died in the flames, smoke, and collapsing of the buildings. I thought also of the unspeakable pain of the families who lost their dear ones, some of them I knew very well. Here we are, after 17 years of that tragic day, thinking back and remembering in our prayers and thoughts. For sure, the victims' families and many of us who still recall with pain that beautiful September morning, it is still a shock to remember how quickly that beautiful day turned into deadly smoke and flames and brokenness, as our life was changed forever by the terror of September 11th. The Saint Pope John Paul II said about Sept 11th, "even if the forces of darkness appear to prevail, those who believe in God know that evil and death do not have the final say." What a powerful statement to reflect the redeeming value of the mystery of Christ! What a consoling moment for all of us to think on this 17th anniversary when pain and suffering become unbearable for so many people. And yet, we are united with Almighty Father who is all-powerful, through Christ who becomes the Divine Guest every time the Holy sacrifice of the Mass is celebrated on the altar. It is this great divine Eucharistic power that must penetrate the depth of our souls. In this powerful mystery our existence points toward eternal life which can never coexist with evil and terror. We pray for peace and conversion of those who violently think and act against innocent people. Yes indeed we are people who hope in eternal life not simply a hope for the future, in which we can escape and find some rest for our minds and souls, but our hope for ETERNITY becomes a guiding discipline for our present, and this excludes the evil of terror and immorality. Finally with Saint Pope John Paul II we can state with a firm and determined voice: that evil and death do not have the final say. The final say belong to Christ, our Eternal Lord and Savior. AMEN. On this seventieth anniversary of September 11, 2001 of very sad memories, may we find refuge and consolation in the power of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and adoration, and we should remember all those who have died, those who sacrificed their life in that tragic day of September 11th, and their families. We think and pray for those who recently have died in our country and around the world because of the deadly terror attacks. As we all hear the toll bell on September 11th at 8:46 a.m., we will pause for a moment in prayer praying for the innocent victims of Islamic terrorism of tragic event of September 11, 2001, and the recent terror attacks in Europe, in the Middle East and other parts of the world who have been killed, beheaded and crucified! Let us pray for them now and always! Also, we have the command from Christ to pray for our enemies! May the power of Eucharist can touch their hearts and come to know the power of Christ of Love and Mercy! May we as Catholics be faithful to the Divine Truth and Teaching of Christ and His commandments! May our minds and souls today and always be thirsting for the living God as the beautiful psalm reminds "Like the deer that yearns for running streams, so my soul is yearning for you my God; my soul is thirsting for God, the living God" Psalm 41:2-3.

Eternal Rest Grant unto Them Lord and Let Perpetual Light Shine upon Them! May They Rest in Peace. Amen.

Sacred Heart of Jesus Have Mercy on us sinners! Amen.

Mensaje del Padre Pergjini

"Como el venado que anhela correr arroyos, así mi alma te anhela, mi Dios; mi alma está sedienta de Dios, el Dios viviente." Salmos 41: 2-3.

Después de diecisiete años de ese evento trágico e inolvidable que aún atravesamos por ese doloroso recuerdo de terror, nuestras almas y corazones anhelan y ansían que Dios calme nuestros dolorosos recuerdos de ese día. El 11 de septiembre de 2001, era martes, ya que es este año el 11 de septiembre de 2018. Fue uno de los días más hermosos de septiembre con sus cielos azules y soleados con una agradable brisa. Fue un hermoso día de septiembre por la mañana. Estaba programado para celebrar la Santa Misa a las 12 p.m. Al entrar en el santuario para comenzar el Santo sacrificio de la Misa, vi a una gran multitud de personas frente a mí, entre ellos muchos policías y bomberos. Era muy raro que una Santa Misa diaria tuviera tanta asistencia. Pude tocar el dolor de la multitud, y la multitud pudo tocar mi dolor que sentí profundamente en mi alma. Todos me miran en esos momentos para consolarse en Cristo. Cuando se dijo la oración de apertura y llegó el momento de las lecturas fui a sentarme en mi silla sintiendo el dolor de esos momentos trágicos, la muerte agonizante en las llamas y el humo de miles de víctimas y el dolor indescriptible de sus familias. En esos momentos de lágrimas y dolor, sentí que Cristo lloraba con nosotros. Silencio, dolor, sufrimiento, lágrimas. Encontré descanso solo en Cristo tratando de encontrar refugio y esperanza en Él. Durante la consagración del cuerpo y el alma de Cristo, experimenté la presencia de aquellos que trágicamente murieron en las llamas, el humo y el colapso de los edificios. También pensé en el dolor indescriptible de las familias que perdieron a sus seres queridos, algunos de los cuales conocía muy bien. Aquí estamos, después de 17 años de ese día trágico, pensando y recordando en nuestras oraciones y pensamientos. Seguramente, las familias de las víctimas y muchos de nosotros que todavía recuerdan con dolor esa hermosa mañana de septiembre, todavía es un shock recordar cuán rápido ese hermoso día se convirtió en un humo mortal, llamas y quebrantamiento, ya que nuestra vida cambió para siempre. terror del 11 de septiembre. El Santo Papa Juan Pablo II dijo sobre el 11 de septiembre, "incluso si las fuerzas de las tinieblas parecen prevalecer, aquellos que creen en Dios saben que el mal y la muerte no tienen la última palabra". Qué declaración tan poderosa para reflejar el valor redentor de el misterio de Cristo! Qué momento tan consolador para todos nosotros para pensar en este 17 aniversario cuando el dolor y el sufrimiento se vuelven insoportables para tanta gente. Y, sin embargo, estamos unidos con el Padre Todopoderoso que es todopoderoso, a través de Cristo que se convierte en el Invitado Divino cada vez que el Santo sacrificio de la Misa se celebra en el altar. Es este gran poder divino eucarístico el que debe penetrar en la profundidad de nuestras almas. En este poderoso misterio, nuestra existencia apunta hacia la vida eterna que nunca puede coexistir con el mal y el terror. Oramos por la paz y la conversión de quienes violentamente piensan y actúan contra personas inocentes. Sí, en verdad somos personas que esperamos en la vida eterna no simplemente una esperanza para el futuro, en la que podamos escapar y encontrar un descanso para nuestras mentes y almas, pero nuestra esperanza de ETERNIDAD se convierte en una disciplina que guía nuestro presente, y esto excluye la mal del terror y la inmoralidad. Finalmente, con el Santo Papa Juan Pablo II podemos afirmar con una voz firme y determinada: que el mal y la muerte no tienen la última palabra. La última palabra pertenece a Cristo, nuestro Eterno Señor y Salvador. AMÉN. En este septuagésimo aniversario del 11 de septiembre de 2001 de recuerdos muy tristes, podemos encontrar refugio y consuelo en el poder del Santo Sacrificio de la Misa, y la adoración, y debemos recordar a todos aquellos que han muerto, aquellos que sacrificaron sus vidas en ese trágico día del 11 de septiembre y sus familias. Pensamos y rezamos por aquellos que recientemente han muerto en nuestro país y en todo el mundo debido a los ataques terroristas mortales. Mientras todos escuchamos el timbre de llamada el 11 de septiembre a las 8:46 a.m., nos detendremos por un momento en oración rezando por las víctimas inocentes del terrorismo islámico del trágico evento del 11 de septiembre de 2001 y los recientes ataques terroristas en Europa, en el Medio Oriente y otras partes del mundo que han sido asesinados, decapitados y crucificados. ¡Oremos por ellos ahora y siempre! Además, ¡tenemos el mandato de Cristo de orar por nuestros enemigos! ¡Que el poder de la Eucaristía pueda tocar sus corazones y llegar a conocer el poder de Cristo de amor y misericordia! ¡Que nosotros como católicos seamos fieles a la Verdad divina y la enseñanza de Cristo y Sus mandamientos! Que nuestras mentes y almas hoy y siempre tengan sed del Dios vivo como lo recuerda el hermoso salmo "Como el venado que anhela correr arroyos, así mi alma te anhela, mi Dios; mi alma está sedienta de Dios, el Dios viviente." Salmos 41: 2-3.

¡El eterno descanso les concede Señor y deja que la luz perpetua brille sobre ellos! Que descansen en paz. Amén.

Sagrado Corazón de Jesús Ten piedad de nosotros pecadores! Amén.

ST. JOHN CHRYSOSTOM (344/49-407) - SEPTEMBER 13TH

This Doctor of the Church died in Turkey on September 14, 407, and his body was transferred to Constantinople in 438. His feast is celebrated on the vigil of the day of his death because September 14 is the feast of the Holy Cross. The Churches in Constantinople and Alexandria also observe this date. Born at Antioch around the year 349, John was educated by his mother, who was widowed at the age of 20, and by the famous Greek master Libanius. At the age of 18 he was baptized a Christian and at the age of 32 he was ordained a priest, after having lived the monastic life for six years. He spent 12 years as a preacher at Antioch, where his sermons won the admiration of the faithful, largely because he was able to incorporate both exegetical or dogmatic content with moral application. "Chrysostom" means "golden-mouthed." It was largely because of his fame as a preacher that John Chrysostom was elected patriarch of Constantinople, but it was also because of his preaching that he aroused the hostility of the imperial court. Angered by one of John's sermons against pomp and luxury, the empress Eudoxia prevailed on Theophilus, bishop of Alexandria and an adversary of John Chrysostom, to have John sent into exile in 403. He was soon brought back by the emperor Arcadius, but two months later the empress had him exiled once more, first to the frontier of Armenia and then to the Black Sea. He died en route at the little town of Comana, saying: "Glory be to God for everything. Amen." It was the feast of the Holy Cross, September 14, 407.

Father, the strength of all who trust in you, you made John Chrysostom renowned for his eloquence and heroic in his sufferings. May we learn from his teaching and gain courage from his patient endurance.
