College Scholarships for GS Students

Adrian Gonsolin, a long-time member of Good Shepherd Parish, a third-degree Knight of Columbus, and a staunch supporter of education and the local community, used his estate to establish an undergraduate scholarship for the benefit of practicing Catholic high school students of the parish.

- Current high school seniors can apply between March 1st and March 31st. Students who expect to receive a Tennessee Promise scholarship, or who will defer college for military service, should still apply for the Adrian Gonsolin scholarship during their senior year. That will ensure future eligibility.
- Past recipients can apply for renewal up to three times. Renewal applications are also due between March 1st and March 31st.

For complete details and the application forms, please visit the Parish's website at www.goodshepherdtn.com and look under the "About Us" menu.

THANKS TO THOSE WHO GAVE…

Thank you to the parishioners of Good Shepherd and St. Margaret Mary for your invaluable support of Good Samaritan Ministries in 2018.

Good Samaritan distributed 4,110 food boxes, 103 supplementary bags plus 150 Christmas boxes to residents of Franklin County. We also assisted with 825 utility bills.

The heart of our ability to serve those in need, within our community, comes from people like you.

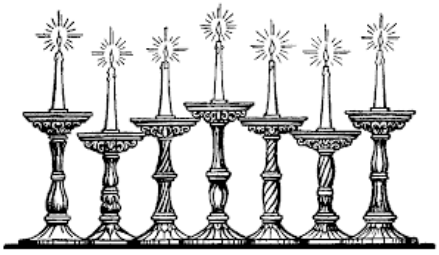
TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Saturday's feast of the Presentation is a day for the blessing of candles. Why does liturgy require candles? In the first years of the church, worship was often at night, and candles and torches were carried from place to place within the worship space as needed. Candles were also a mark of festivity and hospitality when people gathered for prayer in homes, and later on in large buildings with thick walls and dark corners. But even after gaslight and electricity, candles were kept.



Part of the reason has to do with the warm, clean light of a candle's flame. Candles are a good sign of the partnership of God and creation: wax made by bees, gathered and fashioned by human hands into something beautiful and useful. In order for the light to shine, the candle surrenders itself, almost as if it is pouring itself out so that the light can flood into the world. The candle of baptism, placed into our hands, and carried again and again, speaks silently of that same wisdom. If you would save your life, you must lose it. You must pour your life out like Christ so that you may be filled with the light of his love.

The Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Word In Our Lives

In the first reading, Ezra gets a strange reaction from the people to whom he reads the book of the law. First they lie down, with faces to the ground, and then they all are weeping. Remember the background of this reading. The people of Israel had returned from exile and needed to become a unified nation. Many probably didn't know that they had been breaking the law. Others might have been overwhelmed with all the requirements of the law.

Ezra and Nehemiah console the people by reminding them that their return makes this a day "holy to the LORD" (Nehemiah 8:10). He adds that they would get strength from "rejoicing in the LORD." That may be good advice for us also.

We might find ourselves so trapped in sin that we think we could never be forgiven. We need to remember that Jesus loved sinners so much, he gave his life on the cross to free us from sin. No sin can be so bad that God's love cannot forgive it. In fact, the more I have to repent, the more God wants to forgive. So we can rejoice in the Lord's forgiveness and the Spirit will give us the strength to change our lives.

And what about those who find the law overwhelming? That can be because we have forgotten Jesus' saying that all of God's laws are contained in the command to love God and love our neighbor as we love ourselves. The more we come to accept God's presence in our lives and see God in others, the easier it becomes to keep the law of love.
