A Beautiful Meditation
by Saint John Henry Cardinal Newman

God has created me to do him
some definite service.
He has committed some work to me
which he has not committed to another.
I am a link in a chain,
a bond of connection between persons.
He has not created me for naught.
I shall do good.
I shall do His work.

❖ PRAYER FOR POPE FRANCIS ❖

Pope 'Reacted Well' to Intestinal Surgery, July 5th

Last Sunday evening's surgery lasted about three hours. He said a hemicolectomy on the left side took place during the surgery. Pope Francis is doing well and is alert, according to a statement released by the director of the Holy See Press Office, in the latest medical bulletin regarding the surgery the Pope underwent. He added that the Pope will remain at Gemelli hospital for seven days, barring any complications.

"O God, Shepherd and Ruler of all the Faithful, look favorably on your servant Francis, whom you have set at the head of your Church as her shepherd; Grant, we pray, that by word and example, he may be of service to those over whom he presides so that, together with the flock entrusted to his care, he may come to everlasting life." Through Christ. Amen.

"GLORIA PATRI, ET FILIO, ET SPIRITUI SANCTO"

Have you ever noticed the beautiful LATIN DOXOLOGY carved into the 22-karat gold portion of our church façade, right underneath the magnificent Rose window? Take time to look at it. Lovingly carved over 109 years ago, it's perfect for our CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY.

The Divine Comedy,* Paradise, XXVII, excerpt,
by Dante Alighieri, Thirteenth Century

"Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,"
all Paradise began the Gloria,
and that sweet sone made me drunk.

What I saw seemed like a universe in smiles
as I was intoxicated by what I saw and heard.

O joy! O sublime happiness!
O unending life of love and peace!
O secure wealth, without greed!

"Making All Things New"

"Making All Things New" is the pastoral initiative by Archbishop Dolan to create a process for strategic planning in the Archdiocese. Although still in the pre-planning stage, its purpose is to make sure that Mass, the sacraments, and the life of our Faith are available to every Catholic in the Archdiocese, now and in the future.

Priest and deacons have already been consulted; religious sisters and brothers are to be consulted about the wisest and most effective ways to insure that the human, financial, and physical resources of our parishes continue to serve today and ahead.

The Archdiocese is now asking your thoughts about parish criteria and the structure of our planning process. Our consultation begins with a survey, a copy of which is inserted in today's bulletin. Please take the time to fill it out and return it next by next Sunday.

There is a special box where your completed survey can be deposited today or next weekend. Survey forms can also be mailed to the Rectory. The Archdiocese seeks your thoughts and reflections. We also offer you the convenience of filling out the form online; be sure to answer all 17 questions. (1/23/11)

Lenten Contemplative Groups

Beginning Ash Wednesday, you will have the opportunity to enhance your Lenten experience with small-group contemplative meetings, Wednesday evenings, based upon writings of Thomas Merton. If interested, please contact the Rectory and leave your contact information. Pick up a flyer. (3/06/11)

Sta. KATERI TEKAKWITHA

14 de julio

Kateri nació en un pueblo cerca de Auriesville, Nueva York en el año 1656 y era hija de un luchador de la tribu Mohawk. Ella tenía cuatro años cuando su madre murió de rubéola. Esta enfermedad también atacó a Kateri y desfiguró su rostro. Luego de este evento que marcó toda su vida Kateri fue adoptada por sus dos tías y su tío. Kateri se convirtió al catolicismo durante su adolescencia. Ella fue bautizada a los veinte años y esto ocasionó una gran hostilidad hacia ella por parte de su tribu. Aunque tuvo que sufrir grandemente por su fe, ella se mantuvo firme en sus creencias.

Después de un tiempo Kateri se fue a una nueva colonia indígena en Canadá. Allí, ella vivió una vida dedicada a la oración, a la penitencia y al cuidado de los enfermos y ancianos. Cada mañana, aun durante los inviernos más fuertes, ella se instalaba frente a la puerta de la capilla hasta que la abriesen, a las cuatro de la mañana, y se mantenía ahí hasta la ultima misa del día. Kateri era muy devota a la Eucaristía y a Jesús Crucifi-cado. Murió el 7 de Abril de 1680 a la edad de 24 años y es conocida como la Flor de Pascua de los Mohawks. A la devoción de Kateri se le atribuye el establecimiento de ministerios para las tribus indígenas en las Iglesias católicas de los Estados Unidos. Kateri fue declarada venerable por la Iglesia Católica en 1943 y fue beatificada en 1980.

Actualmente se está trabajando en el proceso para su canonización. Miles de personas han visitado sus santuarios, erguidos en San Francisco Javier y en Caughnawage, lugar natal en Auriesville, Nueva York. Hoy en día sigue habiendo grandes peregrinaciones a estos lugares históricos y de gran importancia espiritual. Kateri Tekakwitha es la primera Indígena Americana declarada beata. Ella es considerada patrona de la naturaleza y de la ecología así como San Francisco de Asís. Tomado de http://www.ewtn.com/spanish/Saints/Kateri_7_14.htm

+ A Reflection +

"LILY OF THE MOHAWKS"

"Father de Lamberville was one of the most holy missionaries of New France. He often declared that in his first interview with Tekakwitha he thought he could discern that God had great designs as to that virgin. He asked all who knew her and was greatly surprised to find that there was not one, even among those who had given her most to suffer, who did not sound her praises. … He was astonished to find in her, immediately after baptism, not a neophyte needing to be confirmed in the faith, but a soul filled with the most precious gifts of heaven who had to be guided in the most sublime spiritual ways."

– Father Pierre François-Xavier de Charlevoix, S.J. (+1761)
