Counselor's Corner

Hello and I hope everyone has enjoyed the cold weather.

We had a fun week in PreK/Kinder learning about tattling versus reporting, and middle created great role plays on anger management. Next week I will begin my month-long lessons on bullying for each grade. PreK/Kinder will learn about friendship next week, elementary school will learn the start with hello program, and middle school will discuss cyber bullying. It is going to be a great week.

Parents can learn about the Start with Hello program by visiting: Start With Hello: Creating Kinder Schools— Sandy Hook Promise
