WHEN A STORM THREATENED TO SINK THE BOAT IN WHICH JESUS AND HIS DISCIPLES WERE SITTING, JESUS ORDERED THE WIND AND THE SEA TO BE QUIET. IMMEDIATELY THE SEA BECAME CALM.

MARK 4:35-41

St. Philomene Parish Mission Statement

We, the parishioners of St. Philomene Parish, are a communion of brothers and sisters united by our communion with Jesus Christ who gathers us and empowers us with His Holy Spirit to worship God in faith through the celebration of the Sacraments, prayers, evangelization and loving communion and service. We rejoice and embrace the diversity of all our members as a gift from God.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The Lord reminded Job that the sea, in all its power, was made by God. God has set limits and "fastened the bar of its door" and said "proud waves be stilled!"

[Job 38:1, 8-11 (95B)]

Responsorial Psalm — Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

(Psalm 107:23-24, 25-26, 28-29, 30-31)

Second Reading — Christ died that all who believe in him might live for the Lord. The old order has passed away. "So whoever is in Christ is a new creation."

(2 Corinthians 5:14-17)

Gospel — When a storm threatened to sink the boat in which Jesus and his disciples were sitting, Jesus ordered the wind and the sea to be quiet. Immediately the sea became calm.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL

As we continue in Ordinary Time, our reading today is taken from the Gospel of Mark, the primary Gospel reading in Lectionary Cycle B. Mark's Gospel presents a vivid portrait of Jesus, whose words and deeds show that he is the Son of God. Today's Gospel describes the end of a day of teaching in Jesus' ministry. Jesus taught the crowd in parables and then offered explanations of these parables to his disciples. Jesus then led his disciples away from the crowds and into the boats that they will use to cross the Sea of Galilee. The sea and its surrounding area are the settings for Jesus' teachings and miracles in this part of Mark's Gospel. Today's reading describes how Jesus calmed a storm at sea. It is the first of four miracles that are presented in sequence at this point in Mark's Gospel.

As is typical in Mark's Gospel, Jesus' disciples are frightened by the sudden storm; they do little to inspire confidence in the reader. Mark notes the contrast between the disciples' terror and Jesus' peace. Jesus is sleeping, untroubled by what is going on around him.

The disciples' words to Jesus are telling. They are familiar enough with Jesus to dare to wake him. Their words to him are words of reproach, questioning his care for them. A careful reader might wonder what the disciples expected Jesus to do. Are they more troubled by the storm or by Jesus' inattentiveness to their needs? How many of us have chided a family member or friend for not agreeing with our assessment of the severity of a situation?

Today's Gospel offers evidence of Jesus' power and authority as he calms the storm. In his day, power over nature was believed to be a sign of divinity—only God calms storms. Jesus' rebuke of the storm also echoes the rebuke he uses when he talks to and expels demons. In each situation, Jesus' power and authority is a sign of his divinity. Indeed, the disciples are left wondering about Jesus' identity at the conclusion of today's Gospel. They see before them a human being who acts with the authority and power of God. The disciples' uncertainty about Jesus' identity is a recurring them in Mark's Gospel.

This Gospel is a metaphor for our lives. We are in the boat, the storms of life are raging around us, and like the disciples, we may believe that Jesus is unconcerned, or "sleeping." We hope that we will be as familiar with Jesus as his disciples. If we feel that Jesus is sleeping, are we comfortable enough to wake Jesus and present him with our needs? Jesus does not chide his disciples for waking him. Instead he chides them for their lack of faith, for their lack of perspective. When we bring our worries to God in prayer, we might just begin to learn to see things from God's perspective.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera Lectura — El Señor le dijo a Job que el mar, con toda su fuerza, fue hecho por Dios. Dios le puso limites y calmo el orgullo de sus olas. "Hasta aquí llegaras", dijo el Señor.

[Job 38, 1. 8-11]

Salmo Responsorial — Den gracias al Señor, porque es eterna su misericordia.

(Salmo 106, 23-24. 25-26. 28-29. 30-31)

Segunda Lectura — Cristo murió para que los que crean en el, vivan para el Señor. Todo lo antiguo ha pasado. Todo es nuevo. En realidad, el que esta en Cristo es una criatura nueva.

(2 Corintios 5, 14-17)

Evangelio — El temporal amenazó con hundir la barca en la que estaba Jesús con sus discípulos . Jesús ordeno que se calmaran el mar y el viento. Inmediamente el mar se calmo.

(Marcos 4, 35-41)

ANTECEDENTES SOBRE EL EVANGELIO

Continuando en el Tiempo Ordinario, la lectura de hoy es tomada del Evangelio de Marcos, la lectura principal del Evangelio en el ciclo B del Leccionario. El Evangelio de Marcos nos presenta un retrato vívido de Jesús, quien sus palabras y hechos muestran que él es el Hijo de Dios. El evangelio de hoy describe el final de un día de enseñanza en el ministerio de Jesús. Jesús enseñó a la multitud en parábolas y luego ofreció explicaciones de estas parábolas a sus discípulos. Luego, Jesús llevó a sus discípulos lejos de las multitudes y los subió a las barcas que usarían para cruzar el mar de Galilea. El mar y sus alrededores son el escenario de las enseñanzas y los milagros de Jesús en esta parte del evangelio. La lectura de hoy describe cómo Jesús calmó una tormenta en el mar. Es el primero de los cuatro milagros que se presentan en secuencia en este punto del Evangelio de Marcos.

Como es típico en el Evangelio de Marcos, los discípulos de Jesús están asustados por la tormenta repentina. Marcos nota el contraste entre el terror de los discípulos y la paz de Jesús. Jesús está durmiendo, tranquilo por lo que sucede a su alrededor.

Las palabras de los discípulos a Jesús son contundentes. Están lo suficientemente familiarizados con Jesús como para atreverse a despertarlo. Sus palabras para él son palabras de reproche, cuestionando su cuidado por ellos. Un lector atento podría preguntarse qué esperaban los discípulos que hiciera Jesús. ¿Están más preocupados por la tormenta o por la falta de atención de Jesús a sus necesidades? ¿Cuántos de nosotros hemos reprendido a un familiar o amigo por no estar de acuerdo con nuestra evaluación de la gravedad de una situación?

El evangelio de hoy ofrece evidencia del poder y la autoridad de Jesús mientras calma la tormenta. En su época, se creía que el poder sobre la naturaleza era un signo de divinidad; solo Dios calma las tormentas. La reprimenda de Jesús a la tormenta también se hace eco de la reprimenda que usa cuando habla con los demonios y los expulsa. En cada situación, el poder y la autoridad de Jesús es un signo de su divinidad. De hecho, los discípulos se quedan preguntándose sobre la identidad de Jesús al final del Evangelio de hoy. Ven ante ellos a un ser humano que actúa con la autoridad y el poder de Dios. La incertidumbre de los discípulos sobre la identidad de Jesús es un hecho recurrente en el Evangelio de Marcos.

Este evangelio es una metáfora de nuestras vidas. Estamos en el bote, las tormentas de la vida están rugiendo a nuestro alrededor y, como los discípulos, podemos creer que Jesús no está preocupado o que está "durmiendo". Esperamos estar familiarizados con Jesús como sus discípulos. Si sentimos que Jesús está durmiendo, ¿estamos lo suficientemente cómodos para despertar a Jesús y presentarle nuestras necesidades? Jesús no reprende a sus discípulos por despertarlo. En cambio, los reprende por su falta de fe, por su falta de perspectiva. Cuando llevamos nuestras preocupaciones a Dios en oración, es posible que comencemos a aprender a ver las cosas desde la perspectiva de Dios.
