Ask Sr. Rose

What does the Catholic Church say about other Religions?

Vatican II in its Declaration on the Relation of the Church to Non-Christian Religions: "Men look to their different religions for an answer to the unsolved riddles of human existence. The Catholic Church rejects nothing of what is true and holy in these religions." (1-2) (842-843). Catholics are to respect, preserve, and promote the spiritual and moral good found in all religions as well as the values in their society and culture- (2104). Special mention is made of our indebtedness to the Jewish faith. The Old Testament is the basis and root of Christianity. Jesus was a practicing Jew, and many Christian rituals stem from Jewish customs and traditions. (574-594).

Prayer for our Troops

Almighty God and Father, hold our servicemen and women in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time and need.

Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help or sought your intersession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, we fly unto you, O Virgin of virgins our Mother; to you we come, before you we stand, sinful and sorrowful; O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in your mercy, hear and answer us. Amen.
