OLPH School News

Our annual Boosterthon Fun Run fundraiser was a great success. We met our $20,000 goal and the students had an amazing time running! Throughout the 2 week program the students learned about kindness, generosity, honesty, humility, and gratitude.

EMPATHY

This year's gospel value is Empathy. The children in the school and PSR are learning the importance of understanding and sharing the feelings of another. Each month they are introduced to a scripture verse related to this value. The verse for March is: "Be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ." (Eph 4:32)

Saint of the Week: St. Margaret Clitherow

Margaret was born in York, England, in the middle of the sixteenth century. Her father was a rich candle maker. In 1571, she married John Clitherow, a well off butcher. About two or three years later, Margaret embraced the Catholic faith.

There were laws in England at the time that forbade people to be Catholics. John Clitherow was fined many times because his wife was not attending Protestant services. Because she continued to practice her Catholic faith, Margaret was put into prison for two years. As soon as she was released, she began a Catholic school for children. She rented a house where the Mass could be celebrated in secret. Catholic priests had been forced into hiding, and Margaret's home became one of their most important hiding places.

In 1584 Margaret was put under house arrest in her own home for eighteen months because she had sent her oldest son to France to receive a Catholic education. A short time later, her house was searched and a hiding place was found, containing books and articles used for Mass. Margaret was arrested and charged with hiding Catholic priests. Since this was a capital offense, she was sentenced to die on March 25, 1586. Pope Paul VI canonized brave Margaret Clitherow in 1970 as one of the Forty Martyrs of England and Wales.

It's not always easy for us to stand up for what our religion teaches us. We may worry about what others will think of us. When this happens we can pray to St. Margaret for the courage to be true to our faith in everyday life. We may even find that others are grateful for our example of faith!

Saints for Young Readers for Every Day, January-June, Volume One

Annunciation of the Lord

Nine months before Christmas, we celebrate the moment in which our Lord Jesus Christ became man and began to grow as a baby in Mary's womb. We read about the Annunciation (the announcement of the coming of Jesus) in the Gospel of Luke (1:26-38).

When the time had arrived for God's Son to come down to us from heaven, God sent the Archangel Gabriel to the town of Nazareth where Mary lived. The archangel entered Mary's little house and said, "Hail Mary, full of grace! The Lord is with you, and you are blessed among women." Mary was surprised to hear the angel's words of praise.

"Do not be afraid, Mary," continued Gabriel. Then he told Mary that she was to be the mother of Jesus, the Son of God and our Savior.

Mary understood what a great honor God was giving her. She answered, "I am the handmaid of the Lord!" Mary knew, too, that as the mother of Jesus, she would have many sorrows. She knew she would have to suffer when her Son suffered. But with all her heart, she said, "Let everything happen as you have said." At that very moment, Mary became the Mother of God.

At the Annunciation our Blessed Mother gave us a wonderful example of humility and obedience. Let's show God our love by obeying those who represent him—our parents or guardians and teachers.

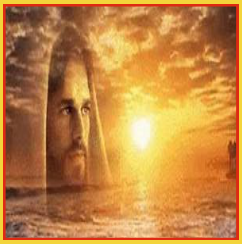
Ez. 37:12-14. I shall put my spirit in you, and you will live.

Rom. 8:8-11. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you then he will give life to your own mortal bodies.

Jn. 11:1-45. I am the resurrection and the life.

DAY by DAY with JESUS



Were it not for the constant presence of our divine Master in our humble chapel, I would not have found it possible to persevere in sharing the lot of the lepers in Moloka'i. . . . I find my consolation in my only Companion who never leaves me.
