RETURNING TO PUBLIC WORSHIP

We believe that public worship can continue to take place safely in an era of social distancing.

The archdiocese is working with state and local officials to realize its goal of bringing the Mass and sacraments back to the Catholic community responsibly and expeditiously with its Faith Forward plan.

QUICK FACTS

• The obligation to attend Sunday Mass is suspended until further notice

• Those who are at a higher risk for COVID-19 (i.e., those who are older than 65 or who have underlying health conditions) are urged not to come to church for Mass

* Those who cannot attend Mass may be encouraged to spend time daily reading the Scriptures, praying with their families, watching a broadcast or live-streamed Mass, and making an act of spiritual communion.

• Those who feel in any way sick (e.g., oral temperature higher than 99.5°F, cough, chills, muscle aches, headache, sore throat, or new loss of taste or smell) or who are worried about attendance should not enter the church.

• In accord with current state policy, the faithful (over 2 years old) must wear cloth face coverings when in public, including when they come to church.

• Parishioners should sanitize their hands prior to entering the church for Mass or other public prayer opportunities.

• All present at Mass should sit 6 feet or more away from others.

* Families may sit together.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
JULY 11TH & 12TH

ENTRANCE HYMN:
Jesus Christ, by faith revealed
In your gathered Church at prayer,
In the Spirit, giving thanks
For the blessings of your care:
God with us as life, we pray,
Make your presence known today!

OFFERTORY HYMN:
God, our God of distant ages,
God, our God, now present here,
God of prophets, seers and sages,
Ever present, ever near.
Great and mighty Lord, we greet you,
All your goodness we acclaim.
Here within our midst we meet you
as we gather in your name.

Present, in the words once spoken
By the prophets, saints of old,
Lord, your testaments unbroken
By our lips are here retold.
Open, Lord, our hearts to hear you;
Sacred are the words you speak.
In the good news we are near you,
You, the living news we seek.

Mighty Lord of all creation,
Threefold is your presence known.
Bread and word and congregation
Are the symbols you have shown.
Time and space cannot confine you,
Nor the earth, nor heaven above.
Yet our humble hearts enshrine you,
Infinite, Great God of love.

COMMUNION HYMN:
Refrain:Jesus Christ, Bread of life, fill us with your love,
Jesus Christ, bread of life, fill us with your peace.

Thankfully, here we bring simple bread and wine,
For the life of the world, once and for all time.

Faithfully, we recall, gathered here as one,
Bread of life, cup of peace, which we now become.

When we drink of this cup, when we eat this bread,
We proclaim Jesus Christ, risen from the dead.

Are not all hearts aflame when we break this bread?
Are not all one in Christ by the blood he shed?

FINAL HYMN:
We sing the mighty power of God
that made the mountains rise,
that spread the flowing seas abroad
and built the lofty skies.
We sing the wisdom that ordained
the sun to rule the day;
the moon shines full at his command,
and all the stars obey.

We sing the goodness of the Lord
that filled the earth with food;
he formed the creatures with his word
and then pronounced them good.
Lord, how your wonders are displayed,
where'er we turn our eyes,
if we survey the ground we tread
or gaze upon the skies.

Please pray for our brothers and sisters that are ill,
and those who are suffering the consequences of the current pandemic and those who passed away during the past week, especially:

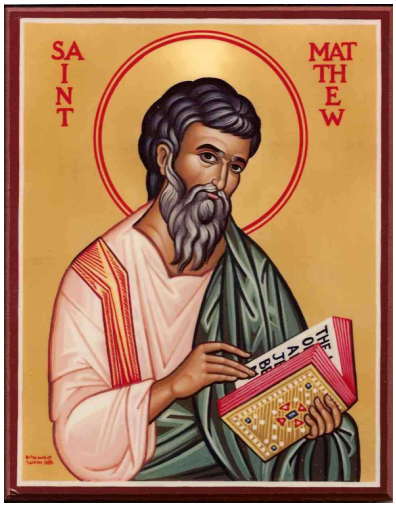
Lucy Vallejo



The Gospel of Saint Matthew
Liturgically we are in year A of our Sunday readings. For the most part the Gospel readings for this year are from St. Matthew. This is called the Church's Gospel. We will look at the similarities and the differences between the Gospel of Matthew and the Gospel's of St. Mark, St. Luke and St. John. Father Nolan and Bob Huber are going to work together on the class outlines. This will be at a basic level and all are welcome. Tuesday nights from 6:30 to 7:30pm.

THE LETTERS OF ST. PAUL: LIFE IN THE EARLY CHURCH

This mini-course will draw upon St. Paul's letters to understand his impact on spreading the Gospel of Jesus, and his longer term significance in the development of the Catholic, Orthodox, and Protestant faiths.
