Prayer to Saint Kateri Tekakwitha

St. Kateri Tekakwitha, favored child and Lily of the Mohawks, I come to seek your intercession in my present need: (mention it). I admire the virtues which adorned your soul: love of God and neighbor, humility, obedience, patience, purity and the spirit of sacrifice. Help me to imitate your example in my state of life. Through the goodness and mercy of God, Who has blessed you with so many graces which led you to the true faith and to a high degree of holiness, pray to God for me and help me.

Obtain for me a very fervent devotion to the Holy Eucharist so that I may love Holy Mass as you did and receive Holy Communion as often as I can. Teach me also to be devoted to my crucified Savior as you were, that I may cheerfully bear my daily crosses for love of Him Who suffered so much for love of me. Most of all, I beg you to pray for me that I may avoid sin, lead a holy life and save my soul. Amen.

From the Pastor's Corner:

I am very blessed and grateful that Fr. McLafferty offered me the position of Director of Education here at St. Kateri Tekakwitha Parish. I look forward to working with Fr. McLafferty, you and your children.

I was born on Bell Island, Newfoundland, Canada. I was in the 5th grade when we moved to Brooklyn. I cried every day because trees grew out of concrete. I attended St. Agatha School and when I finished 8th grade my family moved to NJ. I have a twin brother who lives in Georgia. Marcel and Roseann have a son and three daughters. My younger sister Colette and Bob live in Howell, NJ. They have two sons, two daughters-in-law, and three grandsons, all under the age of 3.

When I was in the first grade I knew I wanted to be a Sister of Mercy; they taught me on Bell Island and in Brooklyn. When we moved to Howell, I met the Sisters of the Resurrection, and here I am. I taught for 15 years at St. Mary's, Schenectady; St. Agnes, Lake Placid; St. Francis, Newburgh; and St. Veronica, Howell, my home parish. I was principal at St. Francis, Newburgh for two years and at St. Veronica, Howell for 27 years. It was time to move on and I came to St. Columba. I worked in the front office for a few months, and then I went into the resource room to help children who struggled to read. I have enjoyed all of the places where God called me to serve, and I look forward to this new ministry, here at St. Kateri.

I have been blessed in so many ways. Know that you and your families will be in my prayers, and I ask that you please remember me in your prayers.

Prayerfully,

Sister Cherree Ann Power, C.R.

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Written by THE FAITHFUL DISCIPLE

Ex 16:2-4, 12-15 | Eph 4:17, 20-24 | Jn 6:24-35

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

In our house, we know we've got a situation when we run out of bread. It's the staff of life, yes, but also the stuff that makes toast, goes with soup or salad, and smells so good when we bake it ourselves. So perhaps some of us can relate to the Israelites in the first reading as they "grumbled against Moses and Aaron," before the Lord promised to "rain down bread from heaven for [them]." On a deeper level, perhaps we also truly understand the importance of what Jesus tells his disciples in today's Gospel: that the bread from heaven which the Father gives will not only satisfy their physical hunger, but give life to the world. Jesus says, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst." Just as the disciples heartily responded "give us this bread always," today's readings encourage us to long not only for all good gifts from the Father, but specifically for that one, unique gift of the Son whose nourishment to us in the Eucharist transforms us and "gives life to the world."

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Like many Catholics, I attended Mass online for much of 2020 and the first half of 2021. Initially, it seemed like enough, and I was immensely grateful for the opportunity to hear the Word of God, see the Lord in the Eucharist, and to receive him spiritually. However, as we began to return to church this past spring, I truly felt the enormity of what I had been missing: receiving the Eucharist, and doing so within a community. As we hear Christ's words in the bread of life discourse over the next few Sundays, the magnitude of God's gracious gift should become ever more apparent. When we receive the Eucharist at Mass, we partake in the body and blood of Jesus, sharing in the divine banquet that leads us to everlasting life, and drawing closer to Jesus and to one another in the process. Nourished by his presence within us, we can then go out and share the bread of life with others. What that looks like will differ for each of us, but ultimately it is all for the purpose of accomplishing the works of God: believing in the One he sent and giving witness to that belief in all we say and do.

ACTION Paul's Letter to the Ephesians admonishes his listeners to "put on the new self, created in God's way in righteousness and holiness of truth." As we begin each day this week, we can pray for the grace to "put on a new self" and let go of those things that get in the way of our own holiness.

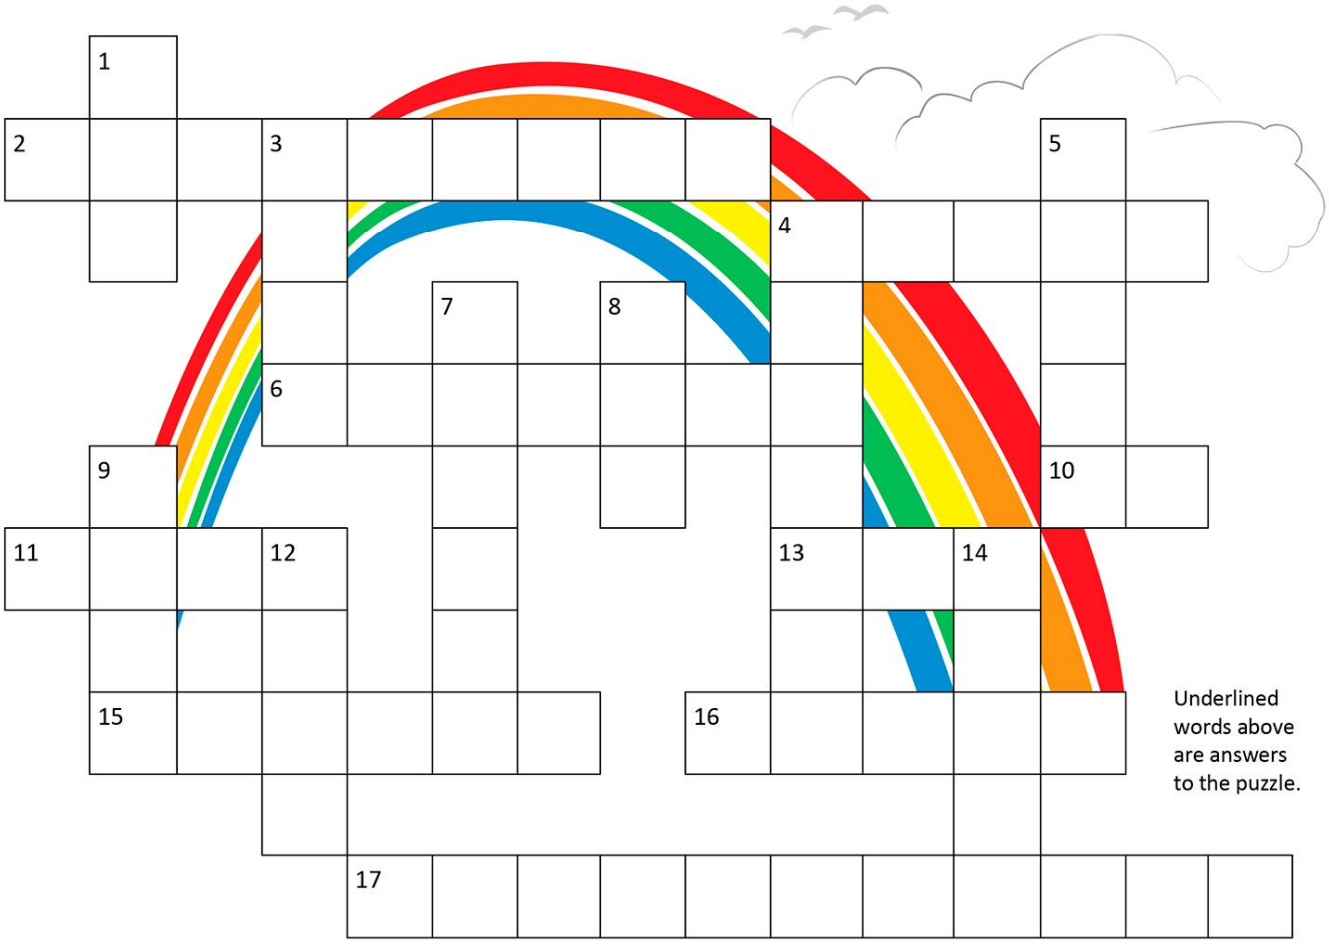
Gospel Today

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time | John 6:24-35

The people following Jesus are looking for miracles like the bread and fish they had to eat, but they are also looking for something to believe in. Jesus tells them the truth, to believe in the One sent by God, and says "I am the bread of life".

©2021 Bon Venture Services, LLC

They don't understand Jesus means eternal life, not food to sustain life. The people near Jesus are looking for a sign, like the manna "bread from heaven" their forefathers were given.



Underlined words above are answers to the puzzle.

DOWN

1 --------- Jesus was sent by _____.
3 --------- Jesus is the bread of _____.
4 --------- We _____ in one God.
5 --------- Moses was given _____ , "bread from heaven".
7 --------- Many _____ were following Jesus.
8 --------- Jesus is the _____ sent by God.
9 --------- The people had eaten bread and _____.
12 --------- Not far, _____.
14 --------- Jesus says, "I tell you the _____".

ACROSS

2---------- People were _____ Jesus.
4---------- Jesus says, "I am the _____ of life".
6---------- Everlasting, or _____ life.
10---------- Jesus says, "I _____".
11---------- The people are looking for a _____ from God.
13---------- Hungry people _____.
15---------- Manna was called "bread from _____".
16---------- The people were following _____.
17---------- Their _____ ate manna.

Act now to help end hunger.

In the United States, 1 in 9 people face hunger.
