TRY * SHOW * LIVE GOD'S MERCY

Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time August 20/21, 2016

The Gospel reading today starts with a question: "Lord, will only a few people be saved?" Jesus offers only a simple reply: Strive to enter through the narrow gate. Many will try to enter and will not be able. Good stewards know there is only one, narrow gate. Not everything will fit. This narrow gate has no room for our accomplishments. No room for our money. No room for our possessions. No room for anything else but those who've been good stewards of the Gospel. We can't custom build our own gates either. There is only one, narrow gate that happens to be open for a time, but for how long? What is our plan of action to get through that gate?

St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross (Edith Stein)

Edith Stein was born in 1891 to a Jewish family living in Breslau, Germany. From a very young age she was intellectually curious and loved to learn. She rejected her family's Jewish piety and even God because her observation was that people acted as though they did not believe in God. She was a brilliant university student and graduated summa cum laude with a doctoral degree in philosophy. She became the assistant to one of the most influential philosophers of the 20th century, Edmund Husserl, who recognized and admired her intellectual gifts. In 1921 Edith had a conversion experience. At age 30, she began reading the autobiography of St. Teresa of Avila in a friend's library and couldn't put it down. "This is the truth!" she exclaimed. She converted to Catholicism and was baptized on New Year's Day, 1922. Edith soon became well regarded as a Catholic philosopher and author. She left her university appointment as Husserl's assistant and took a position teaching at a Dominican college for women teachers in Speyer, Germany. While there, she studied the philosophy of St. Thomas Aquinas and published the first German translation of his treatise The Truth. She also lectured widely to Catholic women's groups throughout Europe. Edith was passionate about her teaching, writing and lectures, but she yearned for a deeper relationship with God. In 1933 she entered religious formation in the Carmelite community at Cologne, Germany and made her final vows on Easter Sunday 1935, taking the name Teresa Benedicta of the Cross. As the persecution of Jews in Germany intensified in the late 30s, Sister Teresa Benedicta was taken out of the country. On New Year's Eve 1938, she secretly crossed the border into the Netherlands where she was welcomed by the Carmelite community at Echt. There she would write her final book, The Science of the Cross, a study of the spirituality of St. John of the Cross. The German Army invaded the Netherlands in 1940 and Sister Teresa's situation would again become perilous. She and her sister Rosa, also a Catholic convert, were eventually arrested and transported by cattle train to Auschwitz, where they perished in a gas chamber on August 9, 1942. In his homily at the time of her canonization in 1998, St. John Paul II said: "St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross says to us all: 'Do not accept anything as the truth if it lacks love. And do not accept anything as love which lacks truth!'" The feast day of Saint Teresa Benedicta of the Cross is August 9.

Trata * Muestra * Vive La Misericordia de Dios

Vigésimo Primer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
Fin de Semana del 20-21 de Agosto de 2016

La lectura del Evangelio de hoy comienza con una pregunta: "Señor, ¿sólo unos cuantos serán salvados?" Jesús da una simple respuesta: intenten entrar por una estrecha puerta. No todo entrará por ella. Esta estrecha puerta no tiene espacio para nuestros logros. Tampoco para nuestro dinero. Ni para nuestras posesiones. No tiene espacio para nada más que para aquellos que han sido buenos corresponsables del Evangelio. Tampoco podemos construir nuestra propia puerta personalizada. Solamente hay una estrecha puerta que estará abierta por un tiempo determinado, pero ¿por cuánto tiempo? ¿Cuál es nuestro plan de acción para entrar por esa puerta?

Santa Teresa Benedicta de la Cruz (Edith Stein)

Edith Stein nació en 1891 en el seno de una familia judía en Breslavia, Alemania. Desde muy joven fue intelectualmente curiosa y amaba aprender. Ella renunciaría a la devoción judía de su familia e incluso a Dios, ya que su observación era que las personas actuaban como si no creyeran en Dios. Fue una brillante estudiante universitaria, obtuvo el Doctorado en Filosofía con el grado de summa cum laude. Fue discípula de uno de los filósofos más influyentes del siglo XX, Edmund Husserl, quien reconoció y admiró sus dones intelectuales. En 1921, Edith tuvo una experiencia de conversión. A la edad de 30 años, comenzó a leer la autobiografía de Santa Teresa de Ávila en la biblioteca de una amiga y no pudo hacerla a un lado. "¡Esta es la verdad!" Exclamó. Ella se convirtió al catolicismo y fue bautizada el día de Año Nuevo en 1922. Edith fue pronto considerada como filósofa católica y autora. Ella dejó su puesto en la universidad como asistente de Husserl y tomó la responsabilidad de enseñar en un Colegio Dominico para profesoras mujeres en Speyer, Alemania. Mientras se encontraba ahí, estudió la filosofía de Santo Tomas de Aquino, y publicó su primera traducción al idioma alemán de su tratado The Truth. Ella dio también conferencias, en términos generales, para grupos de mujeres católicas en toda Europa. Edith era apasionada de su enseñanza, sus escritos y sus lecturas, pero ella anhelaba una relación más profunda con Dios. En 1933 ingresó a la formación religiosa en la comunidad Carmelita en Colonia, Alemania, e hizo sus votos perpetuos el Domingo de Pascua de 1935, tomando el nombre de Teresa Benedicta de la Cruz. Al intensificarse la persecución de los judíos en Alemania a finales de los años 30s, la Hermana Teresa Benedicta fue sacada del país. La noche de Año Nuevo de 1938, ella cruzó secretamente la frontera hacia Holanda donde fue acogida por la comunidad Carmelita en Echt. Ahí ella escribiría su último libro, The Science of the Cross, un estudio de la espiritualidad de San Juan de la Cruz. La Armada Alemana invadió Holanda en 1940 y la situación de la Hermana Teresa sería peligrosa otra vez. Ella y su hermana Rosa, convertida también al catolicismo, fueron arrestadas eventualmente y transportadas en un tren de ganado a Auschwitz, donde perecieron en una cámara de gas el 9 de agosto de 1942. En su homilía, el día de la canonización en 1998, San Juan Pablo II dijo: "Santa Teresa Benedicta de la Cruz nos dice a todos nosotros: "No aceptéis como verdad nada que carezca de amor. Y no aceptéis como amor nada que carezca de verdad" El día de la fiesta de la Hermana Teresa Benedicta de la Cruz es el 9 de agosto.

Act of Hope

O my God, relying on your infinite goodness and promises, I hope to obtain pardon of my sins, the help of your grace, and life everlasting, through the merits of Jesus Christ, my Lord and Redeemer. Amen.

What does the Catechism of the Catholic Church say?

Paragraph 1817:
Hope is the theological virtue by which we desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as our happiness, placing our trust in Christ's promises and relying not on our own strength, but on the help of the grace of the Holy Spirit. "Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful." [Heb 10:23] "The Holy Spirit... he poured out upon us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that we might be justified by his grace and become heirs in hope of eternal life." [Titus 3:6-7]

Century Club

Prayer for Priests

O Jesus, our great High Priest, Hear my humble prayers on behalf of your priest, Father [N]. Give him a deep faith, a bright and firm hope and a burning love which will ever increase in the course of his priestly life. In his loneliness, comfort him in his sorrows, strengthen him in his frustrations, point out to him that it is through suffering that the soul is purified, and show him that he is needed by the Church, he is needed by souls, he is needed for the work of redemption. O loving Mother Mary, Mother of Priests, take to your heart your son who is close to you because of his priestly ordination, and because of the power which he has received to carry on the work of Christ in a world which needs him so much. Be his comfort, be his joy, be his strength, and especially help him to live and to defend the ideals of consecrated celibacy. Amen.
