33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

We are getting closer to the end of the liturgical year. In a couple of weeks we will celebrate the First Sunday of Advent. Like everyone says, where did the time go? Coming to the end of the Church's year, the readings take on a dooming flavor. They talk about the end of time. The end of time is always on our radar. Often the news will tell us all about a meteor that will pass by the earth by a few miles. To add spice they make sure to tell us that if the meteor hit the world would be destroyed. Currently, we are all waiting for "The Big One" in California. Any day now Yellowstone's volcanos will say "Hi." Don't even talk to me about Nuclear. So, the end of the world is nigh and we can do nothing. We have to live with it.

The various themes spoken of in the Gospel reading have already happened in history. "You will be handed over by parents, brothers, relatives and friends." Go and talk to the people who lived in East Germany in the Communist era and they will tell you all about betrayal by family and friends. In every war, every time and place we hear of people killed by war and destruction. It is all very upsetting. "Nation will rise against nation, kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes, famines and plagues from place to place." It is a miracle we have survived until now. Every way we turn there is death all around. It makes you think. There is nothing that lasts. There are no thousand year kingdoms. Everything comes to an end at some time. All we can do is jump out of the way and try to survive. What are you going to do? It seems to me if I get lost in the ocean and I am moments from death...I see a rock sticking out of the ground. What I have to do is swim to that rock and hang onto it with all my life to stay alive. In the world of today and I am moments from death and the rock I see is the consolation of God, let me swim to Him. Let God be my Savior and companion. There are so many things I have no control over, but I can say, "The Lord is my light and my help. Whom should I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life, before whom shall I shrink?"

With love,
 Fr. Pat

UPDATE ON THE PRAYER HALL CONSTRUCTION IN INDIA

Dear friends,

Here is an update on the construction of the St. Catherine of Siena Prayer Hall in India along with some photos.

From the time we were able to get the required sand for the construction, the work is progressing with jet speed. I am very happy that the workers are spending extra hours to complete the prayer hall by January 2020. Even if other works take some extra time, they are promising to handover the Prayer Hall by the middle of January 2020 and if that happens, then it will be a big miracle.

Now they are getting ready for the roof work. Once the roof is fixed, they have to keep the supports and water the roof for 21 days. During that time they will try to complete all the external works. The stucco work is planned to begin the first week of December and should be completed by the end of the month.

Sincerely,
Fr. Ray Pothireddy

Please RSVP by Tues., Nov. 19 to forum@caregivingcafe.com or (512) 301-3560.

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION – MONTH 3: I grabbed my hand today! I am quite active. Even though my mother cannot feel me yet, I can kick and flip around in my safe little world. I can move my eyes but my eyelids are closed. My cartilage is changing to bone. Sometimes I get the hiccups. I am now three inches long and can hear outside noises. I can close my fingers around an object and I can squint, frown and smile. I am starting to react to my environment and although I can already feel sensations like pain, I really hope things stay the same - quiet, peaceful, and warm.

ON THURS., NOV. 21, EVERYONE IS INVITED TO THE POMEGRANATE CAFÉ to gather and celebrate Thanksgiving with a light potluck lunch after the noon Mass. Please bring turkey sandwiches and a dessert to share. Contact Sylvianne at (512) 892-2433 for more information.

WANTED: VOLUNTEERS WITH CHRISTMAS SPIRIT! We need volunteers on Dec. 12, 13, & 16 for our "Christmas in Siena" event. Consider donating a couple of hours to make this event lovely for all our parishioners. We need kitchen, decoration & set up volunteers, servers and clean up volunteers. Contact Sylvianne at sylvianne.mariotti@stcatherine-austin.org or (512) 892-2433.
