From the Pastor's Office16th Sunday in Ordinary Time*

From the first lesson, "There is no God besides you who have the care of all." That is not something that reveals itself easily. I was talking with a lady who told me that she often drives her car losing her temper with everyone as she drives. She screams and shouts at family and friends while she drives and it is a miracle that she doesn't hit anyone. She promised me that she is working on it. That got me to thinking. The reason she drives like a maniac cursing and swearing is because nobody will listen to her or take her advice. Clearly the problem, as far as she is concerned, is that she wants everyone to take her advice, take her directions, do what she says, obey in all things. The reason why it is hard to say there is no God besides you is because I want to be God myself. I don't just want my family and friends to do what I say, I want the whole world to do what I say. I am driving my car like a maniac because I am angry with God that He doesn't give way to me. I mean, I would make a great God. Ask anybody. In fact it is amazing how God and I agree on everything. Why can't my family see that? Today in the Gospel, we are given a bunch of parables to consider. Anybody in the business of making speeches will testify that a good story is gold dust to a good speaker. Jesus was forever telling his stories. Three of his stories today are about the size of the Kingdom of God. Clearly it is very big. In our human way we like to contain everything. We want to reduce it down to small manageable sizes, including God. I remember Fr. Kieron Burke when he was learning how to celebrate Mass in the weeks before his ordination. Fr. Kieron is a shy, retiring kind of man. Consider what a terrifying ordeal it was for him to stand out there and celebrate Eucharist. His shy nature showed itself in his presentation. His voice was a whisper. His gestures were tight to his chest. His head was down. Later a panel gave their evaluation of his performance. He did quite well, but they did comment on his shyness. One summed it up very well. His comment about Fr. Kieron, "how wide is your God." I thought that was a great line. So, what about you dear parishioner and friend, "How wide is your God?"

With love,
 Fr. Pat

Lord, you are good and forgiving.

ADULT EDUCATION

ST. CATHERINE HAS RENEWED OUR SUBSCRIPTION TO FORMED. Just go to the link on our parish website and sign up. It's that easy. Enjoy the content, suitable for adults, families and children. Different parish programs will be using materials from FORMED.org as we go online with learning and building community. SENIOR MINISTRY will be hosting two Zoom sessions this month. Both sessions are open to the whole parish.

- "Staying Connected in an Online World," Thurs., July 23 at 10 a.m. Kendall Antosh, Family Life Ministries Coordinator, will demonstrate what life with social media looks like. She will talk about the means of staying connected in an online world and give practical examples of using social media to stay connected in creative ways. Register by July 21 with Jennifer Gamblin or on the parish website to receive a Zoom invitation.
- "How the Gospels Were Constructed, Part 2," Thurs., July 30 at 10 a.m. Fr. Lou will continue his presentation on the construction of the Gospels. Register by contacting Jennifer Gamblin to join this zoom presentation. (Part 1 is available at www.stcatherine-austin.org/adult-education-webinars)

ADULT OFFERINGS: Has this experience of isolation provoked you to think about your relationship with God? Are you asking questions about why such suffering? Wondering about life and death? Contact us to join in conversations about these and other questions. Online gatherings will begin on Mon., Aug 3 at 7:00 pm. To attend, register with Pam at pam.neumann@stcatherine-austin.org.

If you are interested in finding out more about the Catholic faith, to celebrate your Confirmation and take your place in the Church, contact Fr. Pat in the Parish Office at (512) 892-2420 or Pam Neumann at pam.neumann@stcatherine-austin.org.

FAMILY FAITH & GENERATIONS OF FAITH

JUST BECAUSE THIS SUMMER IS DIFFERENT FROM OTHER SUMMERS DOESN'T MEAN IT'S CANCELED! There are many fun things families can do together to learn, grow, and explore our faith. Head over to St. Catherine's Faith Formation website at www.stcatfamilyfaith.com for lots of summer ideas.

- Find out about our need for LEISURE
- Gain a new perspective on the need for PLAY
- Discover a new way to PRAY
- WATCH popular videos like Brother Francis through our FORMED subscription
- LEARN more by reading one of our recommended books, and
- CREATE something beautiful as you design with a new art form.

We also have resources to help your family pray along at home with the Mass, as well as some tips to help your children handle the anxiety of our current stay-at-home situation. Another important activity to do this summer as a family is to have a discussion about racism. The USCCB has developed several good, age-appropriate resources to discuss racism based on what our church teaches and believes. You can find these and other resources on our website.

Liturgy

PLEASE ARRIVE EARLY TO MASS! If you're attending Mass in person or considering doing so, please arrive early! Seating everyone in the limited available space is a challenge for the few ushers who are presently serving. Last-minute and late arrivals complicate this and may result in your entry being delayed. Help us take care of everyone, and help ensure yourself a seat, by arriving early. And while at Mass, please follow the instructions of the Ushers at all times – especially during Communion and when the church is being vacated at the end of Mass.

MORE HELP IS NEEDED TO SANITIZE THE PEWS AFTER MASS ON WEEKDAYS AND WEEKENDS. After each Mass, the pews in the church are sprayed with a CDC-approved disinfectant solution. The staff and volunteer ushers who serve you need additional help. It takes just a few minutes, and the more individuals who know how to do this properly, the better! If you are able to join this effort, please check with an ushers, Mass Coordinator or staff member in the Narthex to help you get involved.

THE READINGS FOR SUNDAY MASS are available on the parish website, as well as the text of the Gloria and Creed. Visit the livestream page and click the button that says 'Worship Aid.' When you enter the church, use your smartphone camera and the QR codes on posters in the Narthex to go directly to the Worship Aid. (The QR code is also listed below.)

LITURGICAL MINISTERS: Do you know your EIM (Ethics & Integrity in Ministry) anniversary date? If you don't, please call Esther in the Parish Office at (512) 892-2420. All members of liturgical ministries (including Mass Coordinators, Ushers & Hospitality, Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Psalmists, Cantors, Musicians and Choir Members) over 18 years of age must remain in compliance with this Diocesan program as a required part of their service in the parish ministry. At this time, the Diocese is temporarily offering the renewal course online. Contact Esther or Jennifer in the office to find out more.
