21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Gospel tells us that Jesus brought his apostles to the region of Caesarea Philippi. Often Jesus took them away with him. Those days were more like retreats away from the crowds. A time to reflect and talk. Caesarea Philippi was a scary place. This is not a place where you might go and have a picnic. The place had a big rock formation, big cliffs. There was a cave. People believed that this cave was one of the entrances to the Underworld. Scary. Worse than that, there also existed the shrine to the God Pan. Pan was not a very nice God. He is depicted as half-man/half-goat playing his flute. Pan loved to frighten people which only added to the mystery of Caesarea Philippi. Scattered about the place were many pagan temples to the gods. This was indeed a scary place, a sober place for a picnic.

We can tell from the conversation in the Gospel that it was time for some serious talk. All the time Jesus had His plan to go to Jerusalem. All the time it was important for Him to know that His Apostles were with Him no matter what happened. It was time for Jesus to find out what they really thought. "Who do people say that I am?" In the world of politics and elections you might write an opposition paper on your opponents. We all want to know what people think. The replies seem to be vague. "Some people say you are John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." We often hide our opinion behind what people say. Because I don't want to get into trouble I keep my cards close to my chest. We are about to enter the election of our next President. It is understandable if people keep their thoughts to themselves. True to character, Peter lets it all out. I guess Peter and I have something in common. Staff tell me that I don't have a filter. I say exactly what I think. Strange that people find honest communication to be something less. "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Peter gets Jesus. Whatever about his ramblings and overstepping the mark, Peter gets Jesus. He knows who He is. Maybe we can work with this. Jesus is so impressed that Peter is willing to say what he thinks. He doesn't hide behind what other people say. You say what you mean, and you mean what you say. If I don't say it, I don't know whether I am right or wrong. Jesus rewards Peter's truth and honesty. That is kind of the right thing to do. If I were to ask you who do you say Jesus is, the chances are that you will probably just repeat what Peter said. That is Peter's answer. What is yours?

With love,
 Fr. Pat

*Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake
 the work of your hands.*

ADULT EDUCATION

EXCITING NEWS! We are excited to announce that our parish now has access to premium video content from Word on Fire through Flocknote. These films and videos feature Bishop Robert Barron who has been hailed as "one of the Church's greatest messengers" and is the second most-followed Catholic in the world on social media (behind only Pope Francis.) He is best known for his CATHOLICISM film series and his Emmy-nominated Pivotal Players series.

Through Flocknote, our parish's email and texting tool, we can now send you short Bishop Barron videos with engaging questions via email or text message. We encourage you to participate in our parish discussions as together we draw deeper into the Faith. In addition, you now have access to the entire Word on Fire digital video library. You can watch any of Bishop Barron's films or study programs whenever you want, on any device! Just click on any video we send to get started! If your email and/or phone number is not registered with the parish, or if you would like to add additional addresses, visit stcatherineofsiena27.flocknote.com or text CATHERINE to 84576.

RCIA. The process of becoming Catholic. There are many ways to learn about the Catholic Church. Thanks to the uncertainty of COVID-19, we have all been challenged to rethink how we walk with each other, but we will always be here for anyone wanting to know more. We don't know what September and beyond will look like, but we know that God is with us always. Whether online, in person or some combination of the two, we welcome you to inquire about finding out more about God and the Church. Have we ever needed God more? If you are interested in finding out more about the Catholic faith, to celebrate your Confirmation and take your place in the Church, contact Fr. Pat in the Parish Office at (512) 892-2420 or Pam Neumann at pam.neumann@stcatherine-austin.org.

SENIOR MINISTRY will host the presentation, "How the Gospels Were Constructed, Part 3" on Thurs., Aug. 27 at 10 a.m. Fr. Lou Brusatti will continue his online discussion on the construction of the Gospels. To receive the Zoom meeting link, email jennifer.gamblin@stcatherine-austin.org or register online by Aug. 25.

FAMILY FAITH & GENERATIONS OF FAITH

REGISTRATION FOR THE 2020 - 2021 FAITH FORMATION YEAR IS OPEN. Parents are now able to register children in grades Pre-K - 12th for classes. To register, please visit stcatherine-austin.org/registration-for-children-and-youth-2020-21. This year our program will look different. We will not have online Zoom classes for elementary school students. We will also have one model of faith formation for everyone that we believe to be simple, meaningful and integrated. We hope that by the spring we might be able to move toward some in-person gatherings at the parish; however, out of an abundance of caution, we are not going to do that this fall. For information regarding our program this year, visit our Faith Formation website at www.stcatfamilyfaith.com/.

Liturgy

PLEASE – ARRIVE EARLY TO MASS! In the last few weeks, more and more people have been arriving to Mass later and later – in one recent Mass, over a third of the congregation arrived after Mass had begun! This makes seating everyone in the limited available space more difficult and stressful for the few ushers who are presently serving. A rush of late arrivals compounds this. Being part of a last-minute rush may mean that you will not be able to find a seat in the church. Once all the spots in the church are filled, there is no standing allowed in the Narthex; it may be possible to open up additional seats in the Parish Hall, but a last-minute rush will also delay your entry there. Help us take care of everyone, and help ensure yourself a seat, by arriving early. And while at Mass, please follow the instructions of the Ushers at all times – especially during Communion and when the church is being vacated at the end of Mass.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION WILL BE OFFERED IN THE MAIN CHURCH from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., Monday through Friday. Church doors will open immediately before the Adoration hours begin. All who attend must observe social distancing at all times, using only the areas marked for seating in the church; congregating in the Narthex or other church areas will not be permitted during the ongoing pandemic. The Day Chapel will remain closed. These adoration hours will allow time for private prayer before our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. Personal devotions (the Rosary, Divine Mercy, etc.) are to be prayed individually, maintaining silence for the sake of others who may wish to pray without interruption.

WE ARE GRATEFUL FOR YOUR HELP SANITIZING THE PEWS AFTER MASS ON WEEKDAYS AND WEEKENDS. We have upgraded the equipment, and a slightly different technique is required. Our aim is to thoroughly clean the pews without damaging them. If you would like to help, please wait in the Narthex after Mass for the usher team. Once the church is empty, they'll give you a quick tutorial. It takes just a few minutes, and the more of us who know how to do this properly, the better!

LITURGICAL MINISTERS! Do you know your EIM (Ethics and Integrity in Ministry) anniversary date? If you don't, please call Esther in the parish office at (512) 892-2420. All members of liturgical ministries (including Mass Coordinators, Ushers & Hospitality, Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Psalmists, Cantors, Musicians and Choir Members) over 18 years of age must remain in compliance with this Diocesan program as a required part of their service in the parish ministry. During the current conditions, the Diocese is temporarily offering the renewal course online. Contact Esther or Jennifer in the parish office to find out more.

Dearest Lord,

Help me foster a household of physical, emotional and spiritual health.

May our household promote an abiding sense of safety and security so our child has the courage to face the horizons and challenges of each day.

May our child have a willingness to listen carefully, a clear mind both to learn and recall, a generous spirit toward family and friends, and an unshakable self-worth and personal dignity.

Bless our child's teachers, mentors and counselors with wisdom, patience, and fortitude. May our household always love and serve you.

Amen.
