25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Clearly the Prophet Isaiah is not a procrastinator. A procrastinator is someone who always puts things off for another day. Isaiah says, "Seek the Lord while he may be found, call him while he is near." Regarding the things of God, lots of us put it off until the last minute. In fact, we are the same as the bridesmaids in the parable story. While they were waiting for the bridegroom to come they were advised to put oil in their lamps. They paid no attention. When the bridegroom did come and everyone went inside to enjoy the banquet, the bridesmaids were locked outside crying their eyes out. "Told you so, told you so!"

The Gospel is interesting today. Familiar story. The Kingdom of Heaven is like the owner of a vineyard who went out to hire some help. Everything went fine until he hired some more help later. At the end of the day the owner paid the same wages to everyone. The ones he hired first complained. They expected that they would get more money because they came first. Why did the owner pay the same wages to those who came late? This must be a matter for the Jobs tribunal. Fair pay, and all that stuff. The owner justified this by saying to those he hired first that he paid them exactly what they agreed upon. They were not hard done by. The fact that he paid those who came later the same, that was the owner's business. I think the key words for me is that the first workers "thought they would receive more." I remember at a conference, they were talking about marriage relationships. The speaker said that the reason marriages break down is that there is a breakdown in communications. People make assumptions about each other, and they don't check them out. I assume things about you. I don't find clarification. The workers thought because they came first they would get more money. That sounds like something a good negotiator would sort out. They assumed the thing. The owner justified it by saying, "well, it is my property and my money. What I do with it is my business." I can see the point of view of the workers, but I suspect in a court of law the owner would win. Such is the way of God. God will decide what to do with His vineyard and His money. If He chooses to be generous then so be it. He did not shortchange me. He gave me what we agreed upon. Do I make assumptions about God and I never check them out? Hmmm...

With love, Fr. Pat

WE HAVE LOST OUR TREASURE, ESTHER QUINTANILLA

It is with deep sadness that we announce our lovely receptionist, Esther Quintanilla, passed away on Sat., Sept. 12, after a lengthy battle with cancer. She was always loving and welcoming to everyone that called or visited our offices. She worked tirelessly to be sure that every need that arose was met with calm and grace.

Esther leaves behind her beloved husband Roy Quintanilla, her mother Susie, and many siblings, children and grandchildren. Her family, our staff and many parishioners and other friends are brokenhearted. She will be missed by all. May she rest in peace.

Prayer of the Week

Today is Catechetical Sunday. On Catechetical Sunday, we honor and commission our parish and school catechists who teach and pass on the Catholic faith each year.

A PRAYER FOR CATECHISTS

Loving Father, we pray today for our catechists. We thank you for their gift of ministry in your Church. Grant them your wisdom that they may grow in the understanding and teaching of your Word. Grant them also your love that they may be fruitful heralds of your Word and lead others to love you. Pour forth your Holy Spirit upon them to grant them wisdom about what is important; knowledge of the truths of faith; understanding of their meaning; right judgement about how to apply them in life; courage to persevere even in the face of adversity; reverence before all that is sacred and holy; and that loving zeal which leads others to a transforming encounter with your Son. We pray this through Christ, our Lord.

COMING TO MASS IN PERSON? PLEASE ARRIVE EARLY!

As the summer comes to a close and routines change, we are watching closely for changes in Mass attendance. As attendance levels rise and distancing protocols remain in place, we inch closer to the seating capacity of the church. Once the available spots in the church are filled, there is no standing allowed in the Narthex; it will become necessary to close off the church and direct those arriving later to the Parish Center, where additional seating and the livestream of Mass are set up. If you arrive close to the start of Mass, be prepared for delays as the ushers may struggle to quickly seat a sudden influx. Being part of a last-minute rush may mean that you will not find a seat available in the church. Help us take care of everyone, and help ensure yourself a seat, by arriving early. And while at Mass, please follow the instructions of the Ushers at all times – especially during Communion and when the church is being vacated at the end of Mass.

WE ARE CONTINUING TO SANITIZE THE PEWS AFTER MASS ON WEEKDAYS AND WEEKENDS. The number of volunteers for this changes from day to day, and on some days there are few or no volunteers. To help us maintain this safeguard, please wait in the Narthex after Mass. Once the church is empty, sanitizing can begin. The more who participate, the less time it takes for those who do, and the more who know how to do this properly, the better!

The READINGS FOR SUNDAY MASS are available on the parish website, as well as the text of the Gloria and Creed. Visit the livestream page and click the button that says 'Worship Aid' or when you come into church, use your smartphone camera and the QR codes on posters in the Narthex and in the pews (or the example shown below) to go directly to the worship aid page. The Worship Aid now contains links to open the online version of the weekly bulletin and to online giving as well!

Prayer to the Virgin Mary for Protection During the Coronavirus

*O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey
as a sign of salvation and hope.
We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick.
At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain,
with steadfast faith.
You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need.
We are certain that you will provide, so that,
as you did at Cana of Galilee,
joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial.
Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will
and to do what Jesus tells us:
He who took our sufferings upon Himself,
and bore our sorrows to bring us,
through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen.
We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God.
Do not despise our pleas – we who are put to the test –
and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.*
