27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

There is a disturbing theme that runs through the Bible. We see it mostly in the Old Testament. The lesson from Isaiah captures the idea. From the beginning we have let God down. If you love reading the scriptures, find the place where Moses speaks to the Hebrew slaves at the end of their desert journey. They are about to enter the Promised land. Moses reminds the people that God loves them. Let them remain faithful to Him. The people said, "Absolutely. Consider it done!" Then they entered the Promised Land and completely forgot about God. That theme is carried on throughout the Bible. The constant message is that God loves his people. He yearns to love us. We turn to Him in times of stress. We make all kinds of promises to God. Isn't that how we pray? God, if you will grant me this thing, I promise to do this other thing. Then when I get the thing, I forget about my promise to God. Isaiah tells us about his friend who had a vineyard. He did everything a good farmer does. He watered his plants. He took care of his farm until harvest time. After all that effort the crop came in spoiled. God nurtured and looked after His people. After all that effort the people came back to God wild and ruined. You can't blame God if he gets a bit annoyed sometimes. You put in all that effort and you get nothing in return. Isaiah says that his friend got so mad that he took his rage out on the farm. "Let it be trampled on. Let it become a ruin." The story is what they call an allegory. It is a story about one thing, but the meaning is another thing entirely. We are the people of the vineyard. We don't appreciate all the love and care that is spent on us by God. He put His heart and soul into it and we didn't care. It is like we always knew that the harvest would be something rotten. We don't deserve to have a God who loves us that much, because we don't appreciate Him. Well, shame on us. Let the terrible sinners come forth to claim our prize because we never deserved it.

With love,
 Fr. Pat

I have chosen you from the world, says the Lord, to go and bear the fruit that will remain.

CORONA VIRUS UPDATE FROM FR. PAT

We have received this information from the Bishop's office:

Temporary COVID-19 Protocols for the celebration of the Sacraments in the Diocese of Austin. Parishes are to return to their pre-pandemic Mass schedules for Sunday and Daily Mass and confessions no later than October 4th, 2020.

The following members of the faithful are dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and other holy days of obligation during the time that the Temporary COVID-19 Protocols remain in effect:

1. Those who are sick;
2. Those who are 65 or older;
3. Those who have been advised by health care workers or caregivers to not attend Mass;
4. Those who sincerely believe that attending Mass will jeopardize their health or the health of a person with whom they reside;
5. Those who sincerely believe that because of the limitations imposed by the temporary protocols attending Mass is not reasonable.

The Bishop's office has informed us that if you are 65 or older and you feel fine, you are welcome to come to Mass. Masks must be worn in the church at all times. Sanitizers are available at all the church doors.

I wish to announce that beginning the weekend of Oct. 3 - 4, 2020, St. Catherine of Siena Catholic Church will return to the normal schedule of Masses. Here is our Mass schedule:

Saturday: Confessions 3:30 - 4:30 p.m. in the Choir Room

Vigil Mass at 5:00 p.m. The 7:00 p.m. Mass will be discontinued permanently.*

 The 7:00 p.m. Mass was never part of our official schedule. It was added during the construction of the Parish Center. You might remember that we lost half of the parking lot to a building site. In order to take pressure off the parking lot on Sundays we added the 7:00 pm on Saturday. That need is no longer required. Additionally, the community of people who attended this Mass was always small in number.*

Sunday: 7:30 a.m., 9:30 a.m., 11:30 a.m., 1:15 p.m., and 5:00 p.m.

Right now, we do not require the help of our altar servers, eucharistic ministers (some), deacons, and choirs. We do require some ushers and Mass captains on Sundays. Parish collections will be accepted in the baskets provided on the Offertory table. Communion will be on the hand only. We will give Communion only in the form of bread. People will be directed to their seats and people will be escorted from the Church to comply with social distancing protocols. We will disinfect the Church after every Mass. The Day Chapel and the Adoration Chapel are closed at this time. We will continue to live stream the following Masses: Saturday 5:00 p.m. Mass, Sunday 9:30 a.m. and 1:15 p.m. Masses. However, once Mass is concluded the live stream will finish. We will not archive Masses for later viewing.

Weekday Schedule:

Monday - Friday: Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in the Church 9:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.
Daily Mass at 12:00 p.m.

Tuesdays: Confessions at 6:00 p.m. in the Choir Room
Mass at 7:00 p.m.

Eucharistic Visitors will not be needed until further notice. Only limited visitors are currently allowed in the nursing homes. As more restrictions are lifted and we return to more normal practices, we will keep you informed. The Parish Office is now open and you may come into the Reception area. You may make an appointment to see the priests or staff.

With love,
Fr. Pat

RCIA SPONSORS: We have been blessed with a good number of people inquiring about the Catholic Church this year in our RCIA process. Despite the challenges of COVID, God provides always. We are asking you, our fellow parishioners, to consider stepping up to sponsor someone. This entails attending our Monday Zoom sessions, participating in the Rites at Mass, and the retreats. For information and to volunteer, please contact Pam at pam.neumann@stcatherine-austin.org. What better time to reflect upon and share our love of God?

RCIA MINISTRY MINUTE: This week's Ministry Minute will be provided by the Knights of Columbus Ladies Auxiliary. God bless you for your kindness.

For more information, visit www.stcatherine-austin.org/registration-information-2.

Liturgy

MASS SCHEDULE RESUMES: Beginning this weekend, we will resume our entire regular Mass schedule: Saturday at 5:00 p.m., Sunday at 7:30 a.m., 9:30 a.m., 11:30 a.m., 1:15 p.m., & 5:00 p.m.

IMPORTANT LIVESTREAM CHANGES: Along with the new instructions from the Diocese and the expansion of our Mass schedule, we will continue to livestream the same three Masses as we have for much of this year: Saturday at 5:00 p.m., Sunday at 9:30 a.m. and 1:15 p.m. However, all parishes have been instructed that the faithful are to participate in each Mass as a gathered community – whether at church or at home – at the actual time the Mass is being celebrated as a living liturgy! To that end, the practice of archiving video of Masses and allowing for ‘On Demand’ viewing has now been prohibited in the Diocese of Austin.

WE ARE CONTINUING TO SANITIZE THE PEWS AFTER MASS ON WEEKDAYS AND WEEKENDS. The number of volunteers for this changes from day to day, and on some days there are few or no volunteers. To help us maintain this safeguard, please wait in the Narthex after Mass. Once the church is empty, sanitizing can begin. The more who participate, the less time it takes for those who do, and the more who know how to do this properly, the better!

LITURGICAL MINISTERS! Do you know your EIM (Ethics and Integrity in Ministry) anniversary date? If you don't, please call the parish office at (512) 892-2420. All members of liturgical ministries over 18 years of age must remain in compliance with this Diocesan program as a required part of their service in the parish ministry. During the current conditions, the Diocese is temporarily offering the renewal course online. Contact Jennifer Gamblin in the office to find out more.

THE DAY OF THE DEAD (Día de los Muertos) PARISH ALTAR will be set up in the narthex from Sat., Oct. 17 until Sun., Nov. 22. Please bring a memento or photo of your loved ones to place on our altar. (Make sure to label the items with your name.)

Prayer to the Virgin Mary for Protection During the Coronavirus

*O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope.
We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick.
At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain,
with steadfast faith.
You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need.
We are certain that you will provide, so that,
as you did at Cana of Galilee,
joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial.
Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will
and to do what Jesus tells us:
He who took our sufferings upon Himself,
and bore our sorrows to bring us,
through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen.
We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God.
Do not despise our pleas – we who are put to the test – and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.*
