Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Moses represents the Word of the Lord spoken way back when. The time of Moses is a long time ago, but, God spoke in his time. Through the mouth of Moses, God said, "A prophet like me will the Lord, your God, raise up for you from among your own kin; to him you shall listen." For the rest of our times we go in search of this prophet. Who is this one that God sent into our midst? We are still searching for this voice today. We testify that we have found this voice in the Lord Jesus from Nazareth. Lots of people today don't know that or they are not ready to settle. Lots of people are searching for meaning in this world and they can't find it. It is hard to recognize and see the Lord, but when we have found Him we are delighted. When we find the Lord, we make a connection. We are no longer sheep wandering among the fields. We don't feel lost anymore. We have found the Lord. If only our children, members of our family could experience the joy that we feel. When hard times come we feel like we have someone to go to for refuge. This Messiah walked into the synagogue at Capernaum. It was all a bit spectacular. The first thing they noted about this stranger was that He spoke with authority. For some people that is very important. Have something to say and say it well. Then we had the episode of the man with the unclean spirit. When something unexpected happens you kind of hope it happens at the side. You don't want to make a fool of yourself in the public glare. But life is like that. This is happening now. I have to deal with this now with all these people watching. Jesus is masterful. He is completely in charge. He drives the spirit out of the man and everybody was amazed. You would think that things would get better after that. But there is always someone in the crowd who wants to throw a wrench into the works. Not everybody is with you. Not everybody is impressed by you. Every one of us has to find a way of dealing with this. But that is the nature of living. We journey through life. Good things and bad things happen, and we have to deal with them. You did good. You didn't do so good. On to the next thing. That is life. We know from other gospel sources that eventually the people of the synagogue turned against Jesus. But for now, things are going well. Thanks be to God.

With love,
 Fr. Pat

Preschool Ministries

PRESCHOOL REGISTRATION IS OPEN FOR THE 2021-2022 SCHOOL YEAR! We teach a play-based emergent curriculum. This allows us to plan based on the children's interest and passion at a certain point in time. Teachers will take into account the class skills, needs, and interests. Children thrive and learn best when their interests are captured. Our play-based preschool is for children ages 2 to 5 years old. The hours are 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., Tuesday through Thursday, with a two or three day a week option. For registration information, please contact Camille Parker at camille.parker@stcatherine-austin.org.

ST. CATHERINE'S PRESCHOOL AT HOME PRESCHOOL LESSONS FOR FAMILIES WITH CHILDREN AGES 2-5. The weekly themes have fun and interactive child-centered activities. All plans include prayers, songs, stories, activities, bible lessons, crafts, finger plays, songs, and recipes. The At Home Preschool lesson plans are $30/week or $75/month. For a sample lesson plan, visit our website or contact Camille Parker at (512) 892-2420, ext. 319 or camille.parker@stcatherine-austin.org.

THIS WEEK'S AT HOME PRESCHOOL THEME:

"HOMES." Shelter is one of our basic necessities and having a proper home contributes to our overall well-being. Our house keeps us safe. It provides us with a place to sleep and gather with our family. Inspire your child to work on their observation and comparison skills by thinking about how their house compares to other houses they have visited. Animals also need shelter where they have access to food, water, and protection from the harsh weather. Animals tend to live in places where they can get the items they need. For example, frogs live in places where land and water are available and panda bears live where they can find bamboo. Has your child seen any birds, butterflies, lizards, snakes, toads or spiders roaming around your yard or in the park? What do they think attracts these critters? Is there a way to attract more of them or discourage their presence? By encouraging curiosity and helping your child look for answers, you will increase the chances that they will become a life-long learner! To find out more about our At Home Preschool program, please visit www.stcatherine-austin.org/at-home-preschool.

After each of us watches the video lesson and reads the workbook, we will meet online on Sundays from 11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. for discussion. This Bible Study will meet through Feb. 28. To register, please visit www.stcatherine-austin.org/bible-study.

RCIA MINISTRY MINUTE: This week's Ministry Minute will be provided by the Wedding and Engaged Ministries. God bless you for your kindness.

SENIOR MINISTRY will host a special online presentation by Paula D'Arcy on Thurs., Feb. 4, at 10 a.m. Paula is an internationally known author and has held workshops and retreats on subjects including spirituality, grief, writing, women's issues, and initiation. Everyone is invited. To participate, register online or send email to jennifer.gamblin@stcatherine-austin.org by Feb. 2.

SMALL CHRISTIAN COMMUNITIES ONLINE MEETING, FEB. 10, 7:00 P.M.: We invite you to join us to find out more about our groups this Lent. We will present ideas for gathering virtually and about the material. This Lent, we invite you to reach out to each other in a shared study of Pope Francis' latest encyclical, Fratelli Tutti, on Fraternity and Social Friendship. Using Bill Huebsch's plain English study guide to this papal document, we will reflect on Pope Francis' call to understand, celebrate, and live Christ's message of love, community and peace in these troubling times of social unrest and of the upheaval caused by Covid-19. Contact jennifer.gamblin@stcatherine-austin.org to receive the meeting link.

ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASS: If you have been baptized Catholic and received your First Communion, we would be happy to help you complete your Sacraments of Initiation by preparing for Confirmation in late spring. To register, contact Jennifer at jennifer.gamblin@stcatherine-austin.org. Questions can be directed to Pam Neumann, Pastoral Associate at pam.neumann@stcatherine-austin.org. Online classes will begin Tues., March 2 at 7:00 p.m. Confirmation is scheduled for Sat., May 22.

Liturgy

THE FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD (CANDLEMAS) – TUES., FEB. 2: On this day, we hear the words of Simeon in the temple, proclaiming the infant Jesus as a light to all the world. Therefore, this is the traditional day when the candles used in church and the ones you will use at home throughout the year are brought to the church to be blessed. At the noon Mass, we will observe this tradition, with one major difference! Please bring your candles that day in a shopping bag or other portable container and keep them next to you when you sit in the pews. The blessing will be given during Mass.

MEMORIAL OF SAINT BLAISE AND BLESSING OF THE THROATS – WED., FEB. 3: Legend tells us that St. Blaise cured a young boy choking on a fish bone. We ask for St. Blaise's intercession of healing or keeping us free from any illness or injury to our throats. This year, the Blessing of the Throats will be given without the use of sacramental candles, as a general blessing to all who attend the noon Mass, either in person or via livestream.

SCOUT SUNDAY will be celebrated on the weekend of Sunday, Feb. 7th at all Masses. During each Mass, all Scouts will be prayed for and receive a special blessing. Scouts may participate by attending Mass in person or via the parish livestream.

LITURGICAL MINISTERS! Do you know your EIM (Ethics and Integrity in Ministry) anniversary date? If you don't, please call the parish office at (512) 892-2420. All members of liturgical ministries (including Mass Coordinators, Ushers & Hospitality, Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Cantors, Musicians and Choir Members) over 18 years of age must remain in compliance with this Diocesan program as a required part of their service in the parish ministry.
