From the Pastor's OfficeThird Sunday of Lent*

The story of the woman at the Well is one of my favorite stories about Jesus. I love the pace of it. Time stands still. There is no hurry. Making a connection with this woman is all that matters. Jesus will wait hours if he has to. Meanwhile, the Apostles are here and there trying to find food. Townspeople are going about their business. At the middle of the day, at the hottest, people are taking their siestas. Gradually the town becomes quieter and quieter. This is the time when the woman comes forth from the shadows. She doesn't want to deal with people. People are cruel. They will gladly hurt you. They will take your most vulnerable part and fire it in your face. We seem to have learned that from childhood. It is not just children. All of us, we can be very cruel. We seek out the vulnerable and the isolated and we condemn them over and over again. We love having dirt on people. Would you blame this woman for being cautious? To make things worse there is a Jewish man sitting by the Well. Jewish society says that it is not proper for a stranger woman to speak to a stranger man. It is not proper for a Samaritan to speak to a Jew. No doubt the Samaritan woman wished that this man would just go away. She has no choice. She has to approach, she needs the water. We imagine the scene of this woman sheepishly approaching the Well. The wild animal comes out of the shadows and comes close. Jesus doesn't make any sudden moves. He just sits and watches. She draws the water. This is an opportunity for Jesus to ask for some water. That makes sense. It is hot outside. He is thirsty. What could be wrong with that? The truth is that Jesus broke the ice. He makes sure that the woman knows very quickly that He is no threat to her. I guess when you spend your days living isolated from your community it must be nice to speak with a nice person. This man knows nothing about this woman. What harm is there in talking for a while? Without knowing it, the woman begins to say more. She ends up having a great healing conversation with Jesus. We have all enjoyed those healing conversations where everything seems to get sorted. Everything fits into place. Clarity comes. I find new energy. Jesus sitting at the Well becomes the role model stance for every minister of the Church. People want to talk. Sometimes it takes a while to get going. Sometimes when they do get going they can't stop, they have so much to say. But, that's alright, too. All those times I have role-modeled Jesus sitting by the Well waiting for the man/woman to come close and trust me. Those were good times. I got more from it than them. What a lovely story.

With love,
 Fr. Pat

UPDATE FROM FATHER RAY

BIG SMILES ON THE FACES OF THE CARMELITE SISTERS

The Cloistered Carmelite Sisters Convent roof work is progressing at jet speed. Both the first stage (fixing the Iron frames) and the second stage (painting) have been completed and the third stage (fixing the iron sheets) is on full swing. The progress of the repairs is bringing smiles on the faces of our beloved sisters and the happiness and joy to all of us.

If they continue to work at this speed, the entire mission should be completed by the end of March 2021. Once they complete the third stage of fixing of the iron sheets, they will fill the gaps, waterproof all of the walls to prevent the water leakages, close the sides to prevent any insects, birds and even the snakes and scorpions.

This iron sheet fixing system is very common for the flat roof buildings when they face water leakage problems. This not only reduces the expenditure but also provides safety for the residents, protects the roof from the rain and scorching sun, reduces the summer heat inside the building.

The sisters are continuously praying for us. Every day they are offering all of us on the altar and interceding for us and for our family. They always say that our St. Catherine's community is very dear to them.

As we receive donations, we send the contributions but also forward the donor names for their special prayers. Let's continue our support and prayers for these sisters. You can send your donations to our parish office, payable to Fr. Ray Pothireddy for the Cloistered Carmelite Sisters or donate online.

With a grateful heart,
Fr. Ray Pothireddy

Religious Education

ADULT EDUCATION

RCIA MINISTRY MINUTE: This week's Ministry Minute will be provided by the Prayer Shawl Ministry. God bless you for your kindness.

ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASS: If you have been baptized Catholic and received your First Communion, we would be happy to help you complete your Sacraments of Initiation by preparing for Confirmation in late spring. To register, contact Jennifer at jennifer.gamblin@stcatherine-austin.org. Questions can be directed to Pam Neumann, Pastoral Associate at pam.neumann@stcatherine-austin.org. Online classes will begin Tues., March 23 at 7:00 p.m. Confirmation is scheduled for Sat., May 22.

DAILY REFLECTIONS FOR LENT: We are trying to be flexible and creative this year in the midst of the pandemic. We realize that not all parishioners may be able to physically come to the church to pick up reflection booklets. We have purchased a license for Ann Naffziger's Words for the Weary: Embracing the Lenten Season after a Challenging Pandemic Year to make it available on the parish website. Visit www.stcatherine-austin.org/lenten-daily-reflection-booklet to download these reflections and take a few minutes each day to think about our lives this year and entrust ourselves to God.

Preschool Ministries

ST. CATHERINE'S PRESCHOOL AT HOME PRESCHOOL LESSONS FOR FAMILIES WITH CHILDREN AGES 2-5. All plans include prayers, stories, activities, Bible lessons, crafts, finger plays, songs, and recipes. Lesson plans are $30/week or $75/month. For a sample lesson plan, visit our website or contact Camille at camille.parker@stcatherine-austin.org or (512) 892-2420, ext. 319.

FARMS CAN BE SO MUCH MORE THAN CUTE LITTLE ANIMALS. These animals are useful. They provide use with milk, eggs, meat, and wool. Farms also provide us the grains and vegetables that show up in our grocery stores. Farms can teach us about seasons. Certain produce might be more available at different times of the year and baby animals are more abundant in the spring. Take this opportunity to teach your child animal names, the sounds they make, and what they provide for us. When you eat grains, show your child a picture of the plant they came from. The farm is the perfect place to learn about God's creations! Find out more about our Preschool program at www.stcatherine-austin.org/preschool.

Family Life Ministries

ROMP – A MINISTRY FOR ALL MOTHERS: Motherhood is better when we are all connected to each other. Join us on Mon., Mar. 22 at 7:45 p.m. on Zoom for our monthly Main Meeting, which will feature speaker Rachel Wong of The Feminine Genius Podcast. Mark your calendar and join us for the remaining Spring ROMP Main Meeting dates: Apr. 19 & May 17. Use Zoom Meeting ID 811 6749 6225. Find out more at stcatherine-austin.org/romp.

Liturgy

JOIN US ON FRIDAY NIGHTS OF LENT AT 7 P.M. FOR STATIONS OF THE CROSS FOLLOWED BY MASS. If you cannot make it on Friday evenings, we also have our outside Stations of the Cross available for you to walk and pray at any time.

LITANY OF SAINT JOSEPH: On the nine days leading to the Feast of Saint Joseph, we will recite the Litany of Saint Joseph before all liturgies at St. Catherine. This includes all daily, Vigil and Sunday Masses from Thurs., March 11 through the Feast itself, Fri., March 19. We will have The Litany available as a physical prayer card in the Narthex beginning this weekend. It can also be found at stcatherine-austin.org/litany-of-st-joseph.

LENT IS A PENITENTIAL SEASON. If you were unable to attend our Parish Penance Service, below are other services being offered in the Diocese of Austin:

- March 10 St. Paul Catholic Church 6:30 p.m.
- March 12 Santa Cruz Catholic Church (Buda) 7 p.m.
- March 22 St. Austin Catholic Church 7 p.m.
- March 24 St. John Neumann Catholic Church 5-7 p.m.

FASTING AND ABSTINENCE DURING LENT: On the Fridays of Lent, it is the obligation of practicing Catholics from age 14 onward to abstain from eating meat. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of both fasting and abstinence; On days of fasting, Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 are permitted to eat one full meal and two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. On days of fasting, refrain from eating between the permitted meals.

THE WAY OF THE CROSS FOR THE BEREAVED, written by Fr. Terence P. Curley, presents the story of Jesus' passion and death as a source of consolation and hope in times of grief following the loss of a loved one. This special journey with the stations will be offered on Mon., Mar. 22, at 6:30 p.m.

ABOUT THE SINGING: We are beginning to reintroduce a limited amount of sung music at the Saturday 5:00 p.m. Vigil as well as the Sunday 9:30 a.m., 11:30 a.m., and 5:00 p.m. Masses. For the time being, a solo cantor will offer hymns, primarily for the opening Procession, Communion, and at the conclusion of Mass (Recession). This is being done with an approach that seeks to ensure the safety of the singers as well as the congregation. We will continue this practice insofar as we are able to schedule cantors for whom this is a safe prospect. We continue to observe the pandemic conditions with hope, and our musical offering will continue to be reviewed and administered with the utmost care.
