From the Pastor's Office23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time*

"Say to those whose hearts are frightened, be strong, fear not. Here is your God, He comes with vindication." From our earliest years as children, any time we were afraid we called out for Mommy or Daddy to come and make us feel safe again. That primitive expression remains with us all our lives. Before God we cry out to Him to bring us comfort. It is comforting to hear the voice of God say, I hear you, I come to you. The poor man of the Gospel reading suffered with a speech impediment. All of his life he cried out to God to come and heal him. I love the way Jesus took him aside so that He could minister to the man in a more intimate way. Jesus was very precise in what He did. He put His finger in the man's ears. He touched the man's tongue with His spittle. "Ephphatha, be opened." The little ritual of Jesus with this man is repeated today with our RCIA candidates. On Easter Saturday morning just before they are made full members of the Church, the priest blesses them on the ears and on the mouth with the holy oils and he repeats these words of Jesus, "Ephphatha, be opened." The idea is that we must open our ears to hear God's word. We must open our mouth to proclaim God's word. I always love the intimate moments when Jesus spends time with marginalized people. For example, the way He spent time with the Samaritan woman. The way He spent time with Jairus and his family, the way He spent time with Mary Magdalene, with the Gerasene demoniac. We all long for our intimate moment with Jesus. All those people who spend time in Adoration will testify that it is such an intimate experience to be there. Just me and Jesus. So often I meet Jesus and I am swallowed up in the midst of a crowd. Jesus is far away from me. I treasure those moments when we are together alone and I can really talk with Him. When I listen I can hear Jesus talk back to me. The frightened child of my past is comforted again. I am not alone. I am not forgotten. I think of the Paul Newman movie which captures the idea, "Somebody up there likes me."

With love,
 Fr. Pat

A NOTE FROM THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT de PAUL

Austin Vincentians and friends will be joining hundreds of others on Friends of the Poor® Walks across the United States in an effort to eradicate poverty. This national special event started 13 years ago to shine a light on poverty, raising awareness & funds for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul (SVdP). Come join us in a show of love of the poor and needy. Walk the talk together with others as a visible sign of unity with Jesus' preference for the poor.

Many people in our greater Austin area, including our very own community, struggle daily to make ends meet. The St. Catherine of Siena SVdP Conference is helping individuals & families in our parish community, together with another 38 Parish Conferences and the Austin area SVdP Council who serve the Diocese of Austin area. SVdP members (over 1300 in the Austin Diocese) visit families providing emergency food, rent, helping keep the lights on, and other life needs. Over $3.8 million in direct financial assistance served over 72,000 people in the last fiscal year. Our Austin Council distributes food and groceries weekly, provides bus passes, operates a Thrift Store, provides clothing and household goods vouchers and much more. It helps manage the distribution of pandemic relief funds for Travis County and City of Austin. All SVdP services provide individuals and families with assistance regardless of religion, race, or national origin.

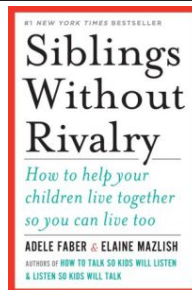

We greatly appreciate your support and hope you can join us as we Walk the Talk. Registration and donations may be made at the event (registration begins at 10:30 AM) or on-line at www.fopwalk.org.

BECOMING CATHOLIC: Have you been wondering what Catholics believe? Why we believe? How we pray, live, care for each other and the world? It's been a trying time as we struggle to find God in the noise and anger. Where do we turn, who can we talk to about God's call in the midst of this moment? Beginning Mon., Sept. 13, we will host Inquiry Sessions at 7:30 p.m. to help you explore some of those questions. Please contact Pam at pam.neumann@stcatherine-austin.org to find out more about the process.

FALL BIBLE STUDY THIS SEPTEMBER: The Prophets: Messengers of God's Mercy. Join us as we spend time studying some of the prophets. Come and learn about Hosea, Isaiah, Jeremiah and more. Beginning Sept. 12, this Bible Study will meet online on Sundays at 11:30 a.m. Materials are available to purchase through Ascension Press. For details, visit stcatherine-austin.org/bible-study. For any questions, contact Jennifer at jennifer.gamblin@stcatherine-austin.org.

THAT MAN IS YOU! (TMIY) RETURNS THIS FALL! Paradisus Dei has developed an entirely NEW year of TMIY, Thy Kingdom Come. We will focus on living for the Kingdom here and now. Featuring 10 dynamic presenters, new personalities, and incredible new topics, it's sure to invigorate and set a fire in your hearts! Sessions begin Fri., Sept. 17 and will meet online Friday mornings for 13 weeks. We will start with a video presentation at 6:30 a.m. followed with small group discussion. Meetings will end promptly at 7:30 a.m. Prayerfully consider participating in TMIY. A one hour investment each week can bring great perspective and help you on your path to being a better man. For more information or to receive the meeting link, please contact Paul Root, root_paul@att.net or (512) 282-9377 or Greg Thomas, gregt8793@gmail.com or (512) 750-6478.

ATTENTION SENIORS NEW TO OUR PARISH: One more impact of Covid-19 is our Senior Ministry has found it difficult to stay in touch with the very people we want to reach. Senior Ministry is a Spiritual/Educational group that previously met 4 times monthly on campus to enjoy community and various presentations geared to enrich. Since the pandemic arrived, we have been meeting twice monthly via Zoom and we share interesting information and links of interest through our mailing list. We have had wonderful presentations and lively discussions online. If you recently moved into our parish, Senior Ministry would like to reach out to you! Contact Jennifer Gamblin at jennifer.gamblin@stcatherine-austin.org to be added to our mailing list! We look forward to meeting you!

Preschool Ministries

IT'S BACK TO SCHOOL TIME! Do you have a preschooler that loves to play? Loves books, blocks, and dress up? Do you want your child to learn more about God, meet new friends, and get ready for kindergarten? St. Catherine's Preschool is the place for your little one! We have a few spots still left in our classes. Parishioners receive a $50 discount per month! To find more information, visit stcatherine-austin.org/preschool or contact Camille Parker at (512) 892-2420, ext. 319. We would love to give you and your child a tour of our preschool.

Liturgy

CHURCH OFFICES WILL BE CLOSED ON MONDAY, SEPT. 6 in observance of Labor Day. Daily Mass will be celebrated at noon. We will not have Adoration. The Church will open at 11:00 a.m. and will close after the noon Mass.

REMINDER: THE "CRY ROOM" IS OPEN DURING MASS IN THE PARISH CENTER! Parents may bring children to the Café area (through the door directly across from the church) during all Masses. The large TV monitor will project a 'live' feed of Mass, and a Eucharistic Minister will bring Communion. The Café facilities will not operate during Mass, so you will be able to watch and participate with as little interruption as possible.

LITURGICAL MINISTERS: Do you know your EIM (Ethics and Integrity in Ministry) anniversary date? If you don't, contact Jennifer Gamblin at jennifer.gamblin@stcatherine-austin.org or (512) 892-2420. All members of liturgical ministries (including Mass Coordinators, Ushers & Hospitality, Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Psalmists, Cantors, Musicians and Choir Members) over 18 years of age must remain in compliance with this Diocesan program as a required part of their service in the parish ministry. During the current conditions, the Diocese is temporarily offering the renewal course online. Contact Jennifer in the parish office to find out more.

PRAYER FOR LABOR DAY: On Mon., Sept. 6, we celebrate the gift of work that God has given to each of us. Let us pray this Labor Day:

*God our Creator,
 We are the work of your hands.
 Guide us in our work,
 that we may do it, not for self alone,
 but for the common good.
 Make us alert to injustice,
 ready to stand in solidarity,
 That there may be dignity for all
 In labor and in labor's reward.
 Grant this through Christ our Lord.
 Amen
