From the Pastor's Office

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

I don't like the Prodigal Son. I don't think I like his dad much either. The Prodigal Son learned his values and principles from his dad. Dad spoiled his son rotten and now look at the way he turned out. Not impressive. The story continues as we watch the ungrateful son sail down the swanee until he is reduced. He is lower than a worm's belly. Thankfully there is a thing called rock bottom. When we hit that we know that we can only rise up from there. I feel really sorry for anyone who has hit rock bottom. That must be a terrible place to be. You have outdone your welcome in everyone's home. You have lost everything and everyone. Nobody cares about you. You are on your own. Nature and instinct kick in. Just like Scarlett O'Hara you realize that you will find your strength and respite if you just go home. That takes a lot of courage because the people at home have every right to reject you again. Think of all the terrible things you have done to them. They have no reason to welcome you back. Right now you have nothing to lose and you have nothing to gain. But instinct kicks in. You remember what home and family means. You decided to learn your lesson the hard way. You lived your rebellion in the Hard Knocks Hotel. The return journey home is a humbling experience. It is brutal and honest. Meanwhile, useless Dad who set all this disaster in motion has been doing some soul-searching as well. He appreciates his son. He learns that a parent's love for his child reaches beyond all limitations. Even after all has been said and done, after all the mistakes, after all the betrayals, he is still your son. You still love him, and you want him to come home. We can work things out. Just come home, please. The greater picture is that this is an allegory. This is a story telling us that no matter what, even when I deserved to be punished, even after all that I have done to hurt, God is my father and He loves me. He waits for me at the porch as the evening sun goes down hoping to catch a glimpse of me coming home. His heart is so full of the sight that Dad runs towards his child. The warm hug becomes the moment of healing and forgiveness. We all long for it. I wish I could meet my beloved and say sorry. I want us to be friends again. I miss him.

With love,
Fr. Pat

DIOCESE OF AUSTIN 75TH ANNIVERSARY

Year of Celebration

Beginning November 19, 2022, through November 18, 2023, the diocese will celebrate the 75th anniversary of its founding on November 15, 1947. The year of celebration will begin with a Mass with Bishop Vásquez, and a program featuring a keynote speaker, live praise & worship music, our Diocesan choir and more! In addition, Bishop Vásquez has designated five Pilgrimage Sites around the Diocese, a commemorative book for purchase and a history display that will travel to parishes. Stay tuned with all activities at the 75th Anniversary website at austindiocese75.org.

Liturgy

On Saturday, September 17, we celebrate the feast day of St. Hildegard of Bingen, one of the four women Doctors of the Church. St. Hildegard was a remarkably gifted woman who was blessed with many charisms, among them mystic, philosopher, visionary, musical composer and writer. St. Hildegard wrote about “precious stones and pearls” representing the saints whose holy beauty aids the repentant on their journey. As we hear in this weekend’s Gospel reading about the rejoicing in heaven when we repent, let us ask St. Hildegard to pray for us and help lead us back to the mercy of our Heavenly Father when we go astray!

Cry Rooms on Sunday

During the Sunday morning and 1:15 p.m. Masses, families with young children who need a “cry room” may use the Pomegranate Café. A Eucharistic Minister will distribute Communion in the Café. At the Sunday 5:00 p.m. Mass, families may use the Choir Room in the Church and will need to come into the Sanctuary to receive Communion.

Liturgical Ministers!

Do you know your EIM (Ethics and Integrity in Ministry) anniversary date? If you don’t, please call Katheryn in the parish office at (512) 892-2420. All members of liturgical ministries (including Mass Coordinators, Ushers & Hospitality, Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Psalmists, Cantors, Musicians and Choir Members) over 18 years of age must remain in compliance with this Diocesan program as a required part of their service in the parish ministry.

Preschool Ministries

We have had a GREAT start to preschool!

Our awesome teachers and sweet students enjoyed learning and playing with one another. Our playground was full of happy laughter and smiling faces! This month our biblical theme is "God Made Me Special."

We are learning about how God loves us so much and made us each unique. We are learning "All About Me" and are getting familiar with our teachers and friends. Our two year-olds have been busy with Back to School stories and learning about colors and shapes. Our three year-old classrooms have been transformed into a big birthday party! With this theme, they are learning more about themselves and their favorite things... who doesn't love to talk about their birthday? And our Super Pre-K classes are learning what it's like to be Superheroes of Kindness! They are showing God how they can be good stewards of His love.

If you are interested in enrolling your preschooler or being added to our waitlist, contact us today! Camille Parker at (512) 892-2420 or camille.parker@stcatherine-austin.org.
