From the Pastor's Office

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus in the gospel is very blunt. Basically, He tells us to stop being hypocrites. Say what you mean and mean what you say. Don't proclaim to the world that you are a man/woman of faith and nobody is able to see it. You don't live out what you preach. I had a thought while I was writing this. Paul speaks in his letter about the wisdom of this age. Then he talks about God's wisdom, which is different. Paul goes on to say that the rulers of this world have no idea what God's wisdom is. If they did know it, they would not have crucified the Lord Jesus. I am being very judgmental now. I saw video of Putin at worship over Christmas. News tells us that many times influential people have suddenly fallen from balconies. There is wide suspicion that high power has something to do with it. I wonder, for expediency sake, would Putin crucify the Lord Jesus if he felt the need to do it? There are plenty of people who say their prayers. They hang about churches all the time. But, they have no problem doing things that suit their own agendas. Lots of us, I wonder, are capable of crucifying the Lord Jesus ourselves. We have good reason, we think. The message of Jesus challenges the way we live. I quite like breaking the commandments when it suits me. I have no problem judging my brother/sister. "They started it!!!" If I choose to live an immoral life, that's my business. We have a kind of a la carte version of Christianity. I keep the bits I like and I just forget about the bits I don't like. If I do something wrong I just go to confession and Father stamps my heavenly card and I am good to go again. That means I don't have to take responsibility. I feel no responsibility to change my attitude. My attitude is as long as I do it and no one knows I do it, I am good to go. The brutal truth is that we all live some version of this. As long as nobody knows, I am good to go. In God's book that is a failure. Say what you mean and mean what you say. Be authentic. Be a disciple. Live out your faith. Do works of charity. Pray often. Be the Christian person you present yourself to be.

With love,
Fr. Pat

SEPTEMBER 2023 PARISH TOUR UPDATE

The Parish World War II Tour from Normandy to Berlin has two spaces available. If you are interested, please contact Rhonda Smith at rhonda.smith@stcatherine-austin.org or (512) 892-2433.

Liturgy

Parish offices will be closed on Monday, February 20 in observance of President's Day. Daily Mass will be celebrated at noon.

Ash Wednesday is on February 22

We are aware that on Ash Wednesday the Church is very full, with many desiring to come and receive ashes on their foreheads to symbolize the attitude of internal penance to which we are called throughout Lent. In response to this great outpouring, we will have three Masses as well as four Prayer Services. The Prayer Services are child friendly, and only last about 20 to 30 minutes.

Ash Wednesday Schedule:
Masses: 7:30a.m., 12:00 p.m. & 7:30 p.m.
Prayer Services: 10:00 a.m., 3:30 p.m.,
5:00 p.m. & 6:00 p.m.

Stations of the Cross

Join us on Friday Nights of Lent at 7:00 p.m. for Stations of the Cross. Mass follows immediately after the Stations for those who wish to remain. The parish also has Stations of the Cross outside on the grounds for you to walk and pray in private prayer.

Liturgical Ministers: Do you know your EIM (Ethics and Integrity in Ministry) anniversary date? All members of liturgical ministries (including Mass Coordinators, Ushers & Hospitality, Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Psalmists, Cantors, Musicians and Choir Members) over 18 years of age must remain in compliance with this Diocesan program as a required part of their service in the parish ministry. If you had an EIM account in the past, your data has been transferred to VIRTUS and you'll receive a welcome email with your VIRTUS login information. If you are new to the EIM process, go to austindiocese.org/eim-virtus-intro to create an account and sign up for a workshop. If you have any questions, contact the EIM Office at eim@austindiocese.org or (512) 949-2447.

Blessings and Congratulations to Deacon Christopher Schroeder on his 16th Ordination Anniversary on February 17
