From the Pastor's Office

3rd Sunday of Lent

The story of the Woman at the Well is one of my favorite stories about Jesus. I love the pace of it. Time stands still. There is no hurry. Making a connection with this woman is all that matters. Jesus will wait hours if he has to. Meanwhile the Apostles are here and there trying to find food. Townspeople are going about their business. At the middle of the day, at the hottest, people are taking their siestas. Gradually the town becomes quieter and quieter. This is the time when the woman comes forth from the shadows. She doesn't want to deal with people. People are cruel. They will gladly hurt you. They will take your most vulnerable part and fire it in your face. We seem to have learned that from childhood. It is not just children. All of us, we can be very cruel. We seek out the vulnerable and the isolated and we condemn them over and over again. We love having dirt on people. Would you blame this woman for being cautious? To make things worse there is a Jewish man sitting by the Well. Jewish society says that it is not proper for a stranger woman to speak to a stranger man. It is not proper for a Samaritan to speak to a Jew. No doubt the Samaritan woman wished that this man would just go away. She has no choice, she has to approach. She needs the water. We imagine the scene of this woman sheepishly approaching the well. The wild animal comes out of the shadows and comes close. Jesus doesn't make any sudden moves. He just sits and watches. She draws the water. This is an opportunity for Jesus to ask for some water. That makes sense. It is hot outside. He is thirsty. What could be wrong with that? The truth is that Jesus broke the ice. He makes sure that the woman knows very quickly that He is no threat to her. I guess when you spend your days living isolated from your community it must be nice to speak with a nice person. This man knows nothing about this woman. What harm is there in talking for a while. Without knowing it the woman begins to say more. She ends up having a great healing conversation with Jesus. We have all enjoyed those healing conversations where everything seems to get sorted. Everything fits into place. Clarity comes. I find new energy. Jesus sitting at the well becomes the role model stance for every minister of the Church. People want to talk. Sometimes it takes a while to get going. Sometimes when they do get going they can't stop, they have so much to say. But that's alright, too. All those times I role modelled Jesus sitting by the well waiting for the man/woman to come close and trust me. Those were good times. I got more from it than them. What a lovely story.

With love,
Fr. Pat

A note from Fr. Pat

For your information...

On Tuesday mornings, a group of retired men and women veterans gather in the Coffee Shop around 9:30 a.m. to chat and remember the old days in the military. If this is something you might be interested in, they are very happy to welcome you to join them.

Liturgy

Lent is a time to slow down our busy lives.

Are you taking more time to pray? Have you sat in silence to listen to what God is saying to you? Have you prayed the Stations of the Cross and reflected on their meaning in your life? Remember that Jesus tells us that God always loves us and is merciful and forgiving.

We need Eucharistic Visitors!

If you are interested in serving in this ministry once a month and having the opportunity to be the hands and feet of Christ through bringing Holy Communion to the homebound, please contact Katheryn Daniel in the parish office at katheryn.daniel@stcatherine-austin.org or (512) 892-2420, ext. 335.

If you were unable to attend our parish Lenten

- Tues, 3/21 Emmaus Parish, Lakeway 6:00 p.m.
- Thurs, 3/30 St. John Neumann Parish 6:00 p.m.

To find other services in the Diocese, please visit austindiocese.org/lenten-penance-services.

Stations of the Cross

Join us on Friday Nights of Lent at 7:00 p.m. for Stations of the Cross. Mass follows immediately after the Stations for those who wish to remain. The parish also has Stations of the Cross outside on the grounds for you to walk and pray in private prayer.

Fasting and Abstinence during Lent

On the Fridays of Lent, it is the obligation of practicing Catholics from age 14 onward to abstain from eating meat. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of both fasting and abstinence. On days of fasting, Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 are permitted to eat one full meal and two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. On days of fasting, refrain from eating between the permitted meals.

Please plan to join us for our annual Outdoor Family Stations of the Cross on Friday, April 7, at 10:00 a.m. at the outdoor stations on the parish grounds. We will gather outside on the lawn near the east driveway to begin. We are looking for a few readers to help lead the Stations by reading the reflections as we walk from one station to the next. The parish has a microphone we can use; but we need readers who speak clearly and do not mind public speaking in front of a large group. High school or middle school students who are gifted at public speaking and strong readers are invited to volunteer. Please contact Marti at marti.salas@stcatherine-austin.org to volunteer.

While it is not required that anyone make use of this dispensation, those who do wish to make use of it are encouraged to abstain from meat on some other day as part of their penitential practices during Lent. Read the full decree on the Diocese of Austin website.
