WALK HUMBLLY

From the Pastor's Office

Third Sunday of Easter

In an attempt to understand, and using Peter's words today, he said, lawless men manipulated the crowd into believing that Jesus from Nazareth was a trouble maker, a criminal, a usurper of law and order, and needed to be condemned. Most people in the crowd had little idea who this Jesus was. They stood Him next to other criminals. They supposed Him to be one of them. Crucify them all! Ancient people in ancient Rome were well used to crucifixions. The highways were dotted with crosses and corpses. After the crucifixion of Jesus, these Jews had blood on their hands. They condemned an innocent man. Peter addresses them, and he tells them that they are responsible for the death of an innocent man. But then, Peter goes on. He tells them that "God raised this Jesus. Exalted at the right hand of God, He received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father and poured Him forth, as you see and hear." There is no bitterness here. We acknowledge the part we all played, but now we must move on. Let the message of Jesus be proclaimed. Usually when the founder dies, often the institution dies with him. In this example the Church just grew and grew. Jesus reveals His majesty to His people. The two disciples on the road to Emmaus had quite an experience. Because they were followers of Jesus, naturally they talked about what happened in Jerusalem as they walked. A stranger going the same way joined them and they walked together. They are full of talk. Then Jesus began to teach them. They discussed and debated. It was all fascinating. When they came to the end of their journey, naturally the two disciples invited their new friend to join them and take some food. Jesus took the opportunity to bless the bread, and in some mystical awakening, the two disciples recognized that the Messiah was in their midst. Then He disappeared. Did that just happen to us? It turns out that there were many sightings of Jesus around the same time. What on earth is going on? Everybody is talking about it. Forget going to Emmaus, the disciples returned to Jerusalem very quickly to give their account of what they had experienced. It is all very exciting and remarkable.

With love,
Fr. Pat

THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTINUED

SUPPORT: We are grateful to this community for giving so greatly and regularly at home through online and mail contributions. Please also try to include St. Vincent de Paul in your giving. St. Vincent continues to try to meet the need of a growing group due to the economic effects of the virus and will need your continued financial support to meet this challenge.

Changes in the Sacrament of Penance (Confession)

The U.S. bishops voted to amend the Order of Penance in June 2021. As of April 16, 2023, these changes will be implemented: the priest will say a revised Prayer of Absolution, revised Scripture readings will be used (particularly for Penance services), and penitents will have an added option for the Act of Contrition. For more information, please visit austindiocese.org/penance-changes.

Thank you for your generous support of our Renew and Rejoice in His Spirit Campaign! We are blessed as a Catholic community and are excited to tell you we are 30% of the way to our goal! Next week we are officially kicking off our campaign and cannot wait to share the excitement with you at Mass!

Last week, our entire community received their invitation to participate in the Renew and Rejoice in His Spirit campaign. Thank you to those who've already made your pledged commitments! Through this effort, we have an opportunity to pass on the blessings we have received as members of this wonderful parish, just as God blessed previous generations of parishioners with the ability to build up the physical structure that is St. Catherine of Siena Catholic Church. Renew and Rejoice in His Spirit is our chance to create a similar legacy for those who follow.

With the Holy Spirit guiding our way, here are three things that will enable our campaign to be a success:

1. Participation

We need every family of St. Catherine of Siena to participate. Our ambitious goal is $6 million...every gift counts and each gift matters. We will be successful in this journey of faith only if we all embrace this campaign and live charitably.

2. Pledges

Gifts and pledges to the Renew and Rejoice in His Spirit Campaign may be paid over a five-year period to allow everyone in our parish family to participate as fully as possible. This flexibility will help us accommodate individual circumstances so that everyone can prayerfully consider making a significant and sacrificial gift.

3. Personal Sacrifice

We invite you to participate in this capital campaign in thanksgiving for the blessings God has bestowed upon our parish. And, we invite you to make a gift that shows your desire to grow spiritually and trust in God's generosity and love.

As a reminder, the campaign team members are calling on behalf of Father Pat and Father Ray to either schedule conversations to share the message of the campaign or to answer any questions you may have and help you make your gift. You can set up your pledge online or return your pledge card to St. Catherine's by putting it in the offertory bin or by mailing it back to us.

Our online giving link is LIVE! Scan this QR code with your phone to make your pledge today.

They started at 8:15 a.m. to bring the Resurrection Cross to the Church and the Crucifix to the Chapel. Carpeting was placed on the altar floor to protect it during the Baptismal portion of Mass and a wooden frame was placed around the Baptismal trough. A tiered wooden flower stand was placed on the back of the altar. The Knights also hosted the Annual Easter Egg Hunt for children of the parish on the church grounds at 10:00 a.m. Photos of the Easter Egg Hunt can be found on the Council Website at kofc8156.org in the Photos section.
