From the Pastor's Office

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus said to the twelve, "Fear no one." That is easier said than done. I am afraid of lots of situations. I am afraid of lots of people. I feel sorry for poor Jeremiah the prophet. The poor man had a terrible time being a prophet. He didn't want it, but some kind of compulsion made him say yes to God. The people hated him as a prophet. I suspect he had to go to counselling. Worse than that, Jeremiah never knew when prophesy came. He would be sitting enjoying his hamburger when suddenly the voice of God burst forth from him and ruined his dinner. Even Jeremiah was afraid of his prophesying. Because I enjoyed Harry Potter so much I can't help but think that Jeremiah looked a bit like Hagrid, a big long-haired burly man. I always imagine Jeremiah at Mass in St. Catherine's. Because he is so scary looking naturally no one wants to sit near him. So, when I look out into the Church on a Sunday morning I see all the people in the pews, and there is poor Jeremiah sitting alone with a huge gap all around him. Lots of people choose to stand at the back. In the first reading, we have Jeremiah at his most fearful. "I hear the whisperings of many: 'Terror on every side.' Denounce him, denounce him!" What is a prophet to do? In lots of terrifying situations, we turn to God in desperation. Dear God, please save me from this. The call to be prophetic is not coated in sugar by Jesus. "Do not be afraid of those who kill the body." That's lovely, but I don't want to die.

Something happens to those who are passionate. They seem to journey beyond their fears and focus on the message. They communicate with their passions. Nothing can stop them from speaking. The message becomes more important than life itself. When something is worth it, we don't count the cost. Sometimes, maybe not always, Jesus is well worth it.

With love,
Fr. Pat

"How beautiful is a Church with a happy, serene and smiling face, a Church that never closes doors, never hardens hearts, never complains or harbors resentment, does not grow angry or impatient, does not look dour or suffer nostalgia for the past, falling into an attitude of going backwards."

— Pope Francis

Liturgy

This Saturday, June 24, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist.

In the Catholic Church, solemnities are celebrations of the greatest importance. The only other birth that the Church celebrates with a solemnity is the Nativity of the Lord (Christmas). So, why is such importance given to the birth of St. John the Baptist? During this season of Ordinary Time, let us recall the extraordinary events leading up to the birth of John. The Bible tells us that John's parents, Zechariah and Elizabeth, "both were advanced in years" (Luke 1:7). In this first chapter of Luke we read that the archangel Gabriel appeared to Zechariah while Zechariah was serving in the temple of the Lord, and Gabriel announced to Zechariah that Elizabeth would bear him a son, that they were to name John, and that "...he will be great in the sight of the Lord." There is also the Visitation, when Mary, who was pregnant with Jesus, visited Elizabeth, who was pregnant with John, and that the preborn infant John was filled with the Holy Spirit, as foretold by Gabriel.

In Matthew 11:11 we read that Jesus said "Amen, I say to you, among those born of women there has been none greater than John the Baptist." John's greatness did not come from himself – his conception and birth, to parents well beyond normal child-bearing years, was certainly amazing and awe inspiring. However, John's greatness came from the role that he was assigned by God in Salvation History, before John was even born, as a lamp for Jesus, to "go before the Lord to prepare his way, to give his people knowledge of salvation by the forgiveness of their sins." May we, too, be willing to play a part in building up the Kingdom of God by pointing others to Jesus. St. John the Baptist, pray for us!

Daily Mass location change

Due to church sound system renovations, noon daily Mass will be celebrated in the Parish Center, 2nd floor in Siena Hall through the end of June. Weekend Masses will be celebrated in the Church. Livestreaming and hearing assistance in the Church and Café will not be available until further notice.

Ethics and Integrity in Ministry

Liturgical Ministers: Do you know your EIM (Ethics and Integrity in Ministry) anniversary date? All members of liturgical ministries over 18 years of age must remain in compliance with this Diocesan program as a required part of their service in the parish ministry. If you had an EIM account in the past, your data has been transferred to VIRTUS and you should have received a welcome email with your VIRTUS login information. If you are new to the EIM process, go to austindiocese.org/eim-instructions to learn how to create an account and sign up for a workshop. If you have any questions, please reach out to the EIM Office at eim@austindiocese.org or (512) 949-2447. You can also contact Katheryn Daniel, katheryn.daniel@stcatherine-austin.org or Evelyn Amador, evelyn.amador@stcatherine-austin.org.

Religious Education

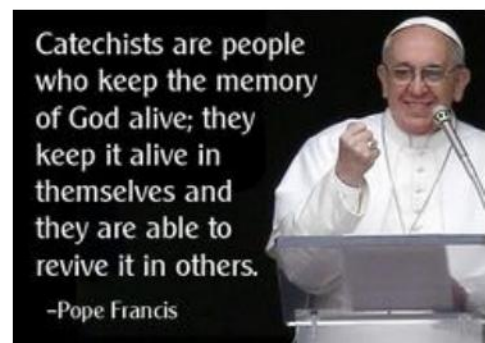

Adult Faith Formation

Do you have questions about God? About Prayer? About the Catholic Church? Our door is always open and we would love to talk with you! Contact Fr. Pat Coakley at patrick.coakley@stcatherine-austin.org or Pam Neumann, Pastoral Associate, at pam.neumann@stcatherine-austin.org.

Family Faith Formation & Youth Ministry

Catechist Mentors

We are looking for experienced teachers, catechists and religious education teachers to help mentor a new generation of catechists and parents. If you are an experienced or retired teacher of any kind and are interested in giving your time and talent to help new catechists, we'd love to hear from you! We're looking for people who want to do more than teach children prayers—people who know that living a Catholic life of faith must be integrated into home and family life, too, as well as action and service. All volunteers must be willing to complete the diocesan VIRTUS/Ethics and Integrity in Ministry program. Also, volunteers must be able to participate in our Tuesday Weekly Faith Formation program or Sunday afternoon Middle School program during the school year. Volunteers should be willing to learn and grow themselves in the process. Please contact Marti Salas at (512) 892-2426 or marti.salas@stcatherine-austin.org to volunteer or for more information.
