From the Pastor's Office

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Paul tells us in his letter today, "He is the firstborn of creation. All things were created through Him and for Him. He is the head of the body, the Church. He is the beginning, the firstborn." The feast of Christ the King marks the end of the official Church year. Next Sunday begins with the First Sunday of Advent, the beginning of the new Church year. We remember Jesus said He was the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. The story of the Church is the story of Jesus of Nazareth, the Son of God. We are all part of that story. We live in Creation and we live our lives to the fullest. Jesus is the signpost pointing the way to Heaven. He is our Good Shepherd. He watches over us, the flock. He leads us to safe pastures and flowing waters. If I were to trek along the Appalachian trail I would do well to bring along a guide to keep me on the right path. I don't want to be falling down the mountain. Throughout our lives on this earth, we Christian people follow Jesus as our guide. He will bring us to Heaven safely if we do what we are told. The problem is that we don't always do what we are told. We are like little children. As soon as Mom or Dad are not looking I am away exploring all kinds of dangerous places. I don't need to enter the world of sin and iniquity. From my childhood, I was told what was the right way to live. The world is full of dangers and it is the Church that teaches me the right way. Rules are not there to be broken. Rules are there to protect me.

With love,
Fr. Pat

Catholic Social Teaching

Advent Activity: Mustard Seed Commitments

What are you doing for Advent? Advent is a time when we deepen our prayer lives and prepare ourselves to celebrate the coming of Jesus Christ at Christmas. Advent is also a time when our Sunday readings talk about a new heaven and a new earth, a time of God's justice and right-relationships, and we are called by God to help bring about the Reign of God on earth. So, what are you doing for Advent?

The Catholic Social Teaching ministry here at St. Catherine's invites all parishioners, families and ministries to participate in the Mustard Seed Commitments. This is an initiative of the U.S. Bishops and is a list of small, "concrete actions such as changes in lifestyle or habits, that someone can easily adopt." The Mustard Seed Commitments are based on the Seven Themes of Catholic Social Teaching. Visit our parish website or pick up a copy of the Mustard Seed Commitments from our parish Information Tables in the narthex. Share your Mustard Seed Commitments using the form on our website or email them to marti.salas@stcatherine-austin.org. We will post them on our parish social media (anonymously, if you prefer) to inspire our parish community to plant the seeds of justice in our world. We invite all parishioners to participate as individuals, families or ministry groups and to send in photos of themselves acting on or living their Mustard Seed Commitment. Commit to one small action for each week of Advent or to all of them for the season of Advent. Let's come together as a parish community and work to build the City of God among us!
