WALK HUMBLLY

From the Pastor's Office

3rd Sunday of Advent

The first lesson from Isaiah today gives us images from the desert. The desert is a hostile place and it is hard to live in it and it is hard to survive there. We realize that in order to live we must have a constant supply of water or else we die. All that talk about climate change is making us pay attention to the supply of water. I heard recently that South Africa is in trouble. Last year their water supply dried up. This year they are worse off than ever. The climate is changing and we better pay attention. We hear all about the city of Austin protecting the Aquifer. We are vulnerable as well. In the world of gardening, experts tell us in Texas to move away from our lovely green lawns and begin to look like homes in Arizona. We should replace our green lawns with desert foliage, lovely cacti, and pretty boulders. When the rains come there is huge rejoicing. The parched places become fully alive again. Within a couple of days the desert bursts into bloom. The animals come back to the watering hole. Unconsciously we breathe a sigh of relief. We can survive for another while. This climate change business is all getting very serious. Isaiah says it like this: "The desert and the parched land will exult, the steppe will rejoice and bloom. They will bloom with abundant flowers and rejoice with joyful song." The idea is that with the coming of the Messiah, the parched desert of our lives will bloom once again. The tremendous change that comes is articulated in the words of Jesus as well. "Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind regain their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised and the poor have the good news proclaimed to them." That is all good news. Lots of us don't know it and lots of us don't see it either. We go about in our daze every day blending into another. Proof of that is that this time every year you say, "I can't believe it is Christmas already." You have aged another year. Time passes and you have no idea what is going on. You live in a desert. You don't know that you thirst for water. My gaze is so focused on the things of the earth that I don't actually see what is going on. Lift up your eyes to the Heavens and see the joy that comes to you from God. Rise and show yourself. Show your splendor to the world. For the Lord has comforted His people.

With love,
Fr. Pat

Third Sunday of Advent - Gaudete Sunday (Joy)

Today is the Third Sunday of Advent! This Sunday is known as Gaudete Sunday and we light the rose candle in the Advent wreath to symbolize our joy at the impending incarnation of our savior, Jesus Christ. In our first reading today, we hear the prophet Isaiah tell us that "Those whom the Lord has ransomed will return... crowned with everlasting joy." Let us rejoice that the Prince of Peace soon will be born!

As we come to the end of the Jubilee Year of 2025, the theme for which Pope Francis gave us as "Pilgrims of Hope," we are offering the following opportunities to celebrate a hope-filled Advent at St. Catherine's:

- Our Lady of Guadalupe Mass will be on Saturday, December 13 at the 5 p.m. Mass. Our annual Mass for the Feast of Our Lady will once again feature a dramatization by our Amigos Club of the appearance of the Virgin Mary to St. Juan Diego.
- The Telling of the Christmas Story, Sunday, December 14 at 3 p.m. in the Church. Come listen and participate in the telling of the Christmas story. Children can come dressed in simple costumes like angels, shepherds and kings so they can be part of the story. Everyone is invited to this annual event.

Community Ministries

THE GIVING TREE PROJECT

Through your incredible generosity, we delivered 748 gifts to children in need this Christmas! What an amazing outpouring of love and kindness. Those who helped deliver the gifts last Saturday witnessed the joy firsthand – the smiles on the children's faces said it all. In addition to the gifts, each family received 5-6 bags of groceries, and we still had many bags left to share. Thanks to your generosity, we've continued distributing food to those who come to us for assistance. What a blessing it is to be able to offer food and hope to our neighbors, especially during this holy season. We also were able to help Carrying Hope, St. Louise House, The Gabriel Project, Casa Marianella, and Posada Esperanza with thirty $30 gift cards each. Thank you to everyone who participated in any way – through donations, time, prayer, or helping hands. You have truly made a difference. Wishing you and your loved ones a blessed and joy-filled Christmas.

Donations Needed

Gently used winter coats and clothing, white tube socks, and small toiletries. Thank you!

Thank You!

Thank you to all the kind parishioners who have donated cotton fabric to Community Ministries! Your generosity helps some wonderful, hard-working women create beautiful handmade lap blankets and baby blankets to share with those in need. This week, we delivered 111 lap blankets to a local nursing home – one for each resident – as a Christmas gift from St. Catherine's. The residents were overjoyed, many even moved to tears. It was truly a touching experience. We also recently provided over 100 baby blankets to Carrying Hope, an organization that helps foster children transition into new homes. Each child receives a backpack or a baby bag filled with essentials and comfort items. Many of these babies go straight from the hospital into foster care. The blankets are made with love and prayer for these children. Thank you again for your continued support and fabric donations. We can always use more fabric, as the need – especially among foster children – remains great. Your kindness truly makes a difference. Please contact Rhonda Smith for more information.

Catholic Social Teaching

Advent Activity: Mustard Seed Commitments

What are you doing for Advent? Advent is a time when we deepen our prayer lives and prepare ourselves to celebrate the coming of Jesus Christ at Christmas. Advent is also a time when our Sunday readings talk about a new heaven and a new earth, a time of God's justice and right-relationships, and we are called by God to help bring about the Reign of God on earth. So, what are you doing for Advent? The Catholic Social Teaching ministry here at St. Catherine's invites all parishioners, families and ministries to participate in the Mustard Seed Commitments. This is an initiative of the U.S. Bishops and is a list of small, "concrete actions such as changes in lifestyle or habits, that someone can easily adopt." The Mustard Seed Commitments are based on the Seven Themes of Catholic Social Teaching. Visit our parish website or pick up a copy of the Mustard Seed Commitments from our parish Information Tables in the narthex. Share your Mustard Seed Commitments using the form on our website or email them to marti.salas@stcatherine-austin.org. We will post them on our parish social media (anonymously, if you prefer) to inspire our parish community to plant the seeds of justice in our world. We invite all parishioners to participate as individuals, families or ministry groups and to send in photos of themselves acting on or living their Mustard Seed Commitment. Committing to one small action for each week of Advent or to all of them for the season of Advent. Let's come together as a parish community and work to build the City of God among us!

St. Vincent de Paul
CENTRAL TEXAS

The Giving Tree Keeps on Giving

The St. Vincent de Paul Conference at St. Catherine's would like to express heartfelt thanks to our generous parishioners for their contributions to our very successful Christmas project.

The SVDP "Christmas Project" begins in September, when invitation to participate letters are sent out to families in our database. Over the subsequent months, gifts for children and seniors are recorded and tags are created on the Giving Tree. This year we served 96 families, 283 children and 18 Seniors, each of whom received gifts and bags of groceries. None of these efforts would have been possible without the help of our kind volunteers in both the planning and distribution. We are also especially grateful to the Knights of Columbus for their donation and support.

During these hard times you answered Jesus' call in Matthew 25:40: "Truly I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me." Your kindness and generosity have overwhelmed us, and we are so blessed!
