Liturgy

This Sunday's Readings - 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Cycle A

First Reading, Isaiah 55:6-9 God's ways are far beyond the ways of human beings.

Responsorial Psalm, Psalm 145:2-3,8-9,17-18

God is near to those who call upon him.

Second Reading, Philippians 1:20c-24,27a

Paul tells the Philippians to live for Christ.

Gospel Reading, Matthew 20:1-16

In the parable of the workers in the vineyard, Jesus teaches about God's generous mercy. All workers in the vineyard receive the same salary. The parable reminds us that although God owes us nothing, He offers abundantly and equally. We are occasionally tempted to think that our own actions deserve more reward, more of God's abundant mercy, than the actions of others. But God's generosity cannot be quantified or partitioned into different amounts for different people. When we think that way, we are trying to relate to God on our terms rather than to accept God's radically different ways.

Updated Schedule Changes Begin This Week

Please note the following changes to our weekly schedule:

- Confessions (Room 132 in Johnson Hall):
Tuesdays from 5:30 pm to 7:00 pm - there will be NO Tuesday evening Mass

- Wednesday Noon Mass is resuming effective next week, September 23, 2026.
- Weekly Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament with Deacon Art Cavazos: Every Thursday in Johnson Hall, from 4 - 7 p.m.

In honor of St. Francis of Assisi, the Blessing of the Animals will take place on Saturday, October 3 at 9:30 a.m. in the Courtyard. St. Francis wrote, "All praise to you, O Lord, for all these brother and sister creatures!" He knew that the bond between person and pet is like no other. Bring your cats, dogs and other pets for a short prayer service and special pet blessing. Please arrive early!

Foundation Communities Needs Health Coverage Volunteers

Open Enrollment is almost here! Foundation Communities' Health Coverage Program is seeking volunteers to help Austinites access affordable health insurance. Thousands of community members rely on this program to find insurance. This work is only possible because of volunteers. Can you commit to 15 hours between November 1 and January 15 to help a neighbor get the coverage they need? Volunteers...

- Receive comprehensive training
- Support clients one-on-one as they explore coverage options
- Can choose shifts available 7 days/week, mornings/afternoons
- Build connections with fellow volunteers and staff
- Make a direct impact on access to healthcare in our community

Millions of Monicas

Many people have children who are struggling to embrace their Catholic faith or have left the church. The Millions of Monicas prayer ministry supports mothers in this situation. Following the example of St. Monica, these mothers come together weekly to persevere in prayer for their children's joyful return to full unity with the Catholic Church. Meetings are held every Monday from 6 to 7 p.m. at St. Mary Cathedral, 203 E. 10th St. For more information, visit www.millionsofmonicas.com.

Volunteer with Posada Esperanza (Immigrant Home for Women and Children)

Volunteers at Posada aren't just an extra pair of hands—they're the reason we're able to support our residents so thoroughly. We're always looking for volunteers to serve as tutors, homework helpers, appointment advocates, and up-for-anything-on-the-fly-helpers. If you're interested in being part of our arsenal of volunteers and are energized by an environment where needs can change day-to-day (or minute-to-minute!), reach out to us at: posadaesperanza@casamarianella.org.

Baby Banks are Coming!

In October, Respect Life Month, we will host this campaign to foster greater respect for the sanctity of human life. In this post-Roe era, we as a church need to be islands of mercy for those facing a crisis pregnancy, parenting challenges, or seeking healing after abortion. Your donation will help the efforts in our parish and throughout the diocese to help walk with moms and families in need and provide formation and education in the sanctity of life from conception to natural death. For more information, please contact:

Rhonda.smith@stcatherine-austin.org.

Updated EIM Compliance Information

The mission of the Diocese of Austin's Ethics and Integrity in Ministry (EIM) program is to help protect people from abuse and unethical behavior through education, action, and reporting, and to listen to and learn from those who have experienced abuse in order to provide healing. EIM compliance is required for persons active in most ministries in the diocese. Looking for resources and information about safeguarding children and other vulnerable people? Do you want to volunteer and are new to the EIM process? Are you returning to ministry and already have an EIM account? Visit austindiocese.org/eim to learn more about EIM policies and procedures and how they keep our parishes and schools safer for everyone. Contact your parish or school's EIM site administrator, Jennifer Gamblin at jennifer.gamblin@stcatherine-austin.org, or eim@austindiocese.org for additional assistance. Report Abuse: Report abuse of a minor, elderly adult, or an adult with a disability to local law enforcement or the Texas Abuse Hotline at www.txabusehotline.org or (800) 252-5400 and the diocese at www.austindiocese.org/report-abuse or (512) 949-2447.
