The Transfiguration of the Lord

August 6, 2023

NOTES FROM FR. ROGER MENSAJES DE PADRE ROGER

City Deanery

The Catholic Church in the City of Wilmington
Cathedral of St. Peter I St. Ann I St. Anthony of Padua I St. Elizabeth
St. Hedwig I St. Joseph I St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception
St. Patrick I St. Paul I St. Thomas the Apostle

Carlo came to fully understand the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, and it broke his heart to see many Catholics ignore the gift that our Lord gives us in the Blessed Sacrament. So, at age fourteen, he started working on an idea.

With his natural ability to program computers, Carlo decided to combine his love for Christ in the Eucharist with coding. On a website he created, he compiled data on all the eucharistic miracles he could find. This was the early 2000s, when social media platforms that we now use every day were still being developed. Nothing like Carlo's idea was available in the early 2000s.

In his research, Carlo found dozens of eucharistic miracles. He discovered stories of saints and mystics who had experienced powerful, hopeful feelings and more when receiving the Eucharist. He wrote down information about people who had been miraculously healed from physical and spiritual problems after receiving holy Communion. The project grew larger as Carlo continued to collect stories, pictures, and even scientific data about these mysterious occurrences. Today that site makes information on those miracles available in seventeen languages. Its name is miracolieucaristici.org, which is Italian for "eucharistic miracles."

SECOND COLLECTION TO BENEFIT THE CATHEDRAL

The Cathedral of Saint Peter is the Bishop's own parish and the center of Catholicism in our diocese. It was built over 200 years ago – 50 years before the founding of the Diocese of Wilmington - and continues with a small but dedicated parish community and school. In 2015, the diocese instituted an annual special collection to support the maintenance and ministry of our Cathedral. This year, the collection will be held on August 12 & 13. More information is available at www.cathedralofstpeter.com. You can make a secure, online donation at www.cdow.org/cathedral. We thank you for your generosity.

On behalf of St. Elizabeth Parish and School, I take this opportunity to sincerely thank Brooks Jensen for his Pastoral ministry among us for the past 14 months. Brooks, your faith and deep spiritual practices have been appreciated and inspired us all. You have encouraged all of us to continue to live our Catholic faith and to express that faith in the living out of our lives each and every day.

May God continue to bless you on your formation journey at St. Mary's Seminary and University. We will continue to pray for you, your family and your brother seminarians. Your vocation is needed and appreciated so that the Sacraments of the Church may be celebrated among the Holy People of God here in the Diocese of Wilmington.

We thank Fr. Carroll for his insight in offering St. E's as your assignment and we thank Bp. Koenig for officially assigning you here for your pastoral ministry. We have been blest.

Now another academic year dawns for all...let us use our intellect and our heart to continue to discover all that God has created...what a gift the Lord has given...let us rejoice and be glad.

Fraternally,
Fr Roger

There is a Blessing of the Child in the Womb at the conclusion. If you have received the good news that you are pregnant, come for the blessing.

The Thousand Hail Marys is a "super rosary" well meditated on all the mysteries of our salvation, which bring many graces to all participants. Consider praying with us for all your personal intentions.

VOCATION REFLECTION

Pray that those called to help Christ feed the multitude will not be held back by what they see as their limitations, but will rely on Jesus who will feed those to whom they are sent as priests, deacon, sisters and brothers. If you think God is calling you to be a priest, deacon, religious brother or sister, contact Fr. Carroll. 302-573-3113, www.cdow.org/vocations or vocations@cdow.org.

THE LOVING ENVIRONMENT...

...OF A FAMILY draws forth an individual's greatest talents and gifts. We've come to realize that creating an atmosphere in which children can hear the Lord's call is one of the most significant responsibilities resting on our shoulders as parents. Our own lives must reflect the presence of God, His Word, and the love He offers His people.

Parents, do you encourage your children to develop their talents and gifts? Do you encourage your children to think of Church ministry as a possible life choice?

Serra for priestly and religious vocations

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

August has 2 full moons (Aug. 1 & 30) Rare but thought provoking. A full moon symbolizes completion, fertility, abundance, and transformation which are marriage worthy qualities. Ponder these qualities throughout the month.

PARENTING POINTERS

On Aug. 6 & 9, 1945 the USA bombed Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Have we learned anything since then? "Not everyone is going to be a friend, but no one needs to be an enemy." (Raising Kids Who Will Make a Difference) How do you and your children deal with people you don't like? Avoid them? Pray for them? Try to understand them? Gossip about them? Confront them? Fight with them? Other?

WORD OF LIFE

"We thank you, heroic mothers, for your invincible love! We thank you for your intrepid trust in God and in his love. We thank you for the sacrifice of your life" (EV 86).

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's liturgy invites us to celebrate the feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. This feast calls to our attention the importance of this event in Jesus' life, further affirmed by its report in each of the Synoptic Gospels: Matthew, Mark, and Luke. In Cycle A, the reading for this feast is taken from the Gospel of Matthew. The Transfiguration occurs after Peter confesses his belief that Jesus is the Messiah and after Jesus predicts his Passion. In each of these Gospels, a discussion of the cost of discipleship precedes the Transfiguration.

In each Gospel, Jesus takes three of his disciples—Peter, James, and John—to a high mountain. While they are there, Elijah and Moses appear and converse with Jesus. Elijah and Moses are both significant figures in the history of Israel. Moses led the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt and received from Yahweh the Ten Commandments. Moses represents the Law, which guides the lives of the Jewish people. Elijah is one of the most important prophets of Israel who helped the Israelites stay faithful to Yahweh, and some believed that Elijah's return would signal the coming of the Messiah for the Jewish people. The appearance of these two figures from Israel's history indicated Jesus' continuity with the Law and the prophets. They also reveal that Jesus is the fulfillment of all that was promised to the people of Israel.

Upon witnessing Jesus' Transfiguration and seeing Jesus with Elijah and Moses, an awestruck Peter offered to construct three tents for them when a voice from Heaven affirms that Jesus is "my beloved Son" and commands the disciples to listen to him.

In each of the reports of the Transfiguration, Jesus instructed the disciples to keep secret what they had seen until after "the Son of Man has been raised from the dead." Until they witnessed Jesus' Passion and Death, the disciples could not possibly understand what he meant by being "raised from the dead." We, however, have the benefit of hindsight. In our hearing of the Transfiguration Gospel, we see an anticipation of Jesus' Resurrection, a foreshadowing of Christ's glory in Heaven, and the promise of our own resurrection.

Family Connection

Every family has special moments that they remember and share. In sharing these stories, the meaning and importance of the events develops and deepens over time. This is how it was with the disciples' remembrance of Jesus' Transfiguration. The full significance of what they had seen and experienced could only be understood after Jesus' Death and Resurrection. As Peter, James, and John reflected on the event and told other believers about the Transfiguration, their own faith deepened. Because Matthew, Mark, and Luke recorded the account of the Transfiguration in their writings, we too can deepen our faith in Jesus, the Son of God and our Savior.

Gather as a family and think about some special memories that your family recalls over and over again. Talk about why these moments are important to you. Remember that in the Bible we find many important stories about Jesus. They have been recorded so that we too can learn about him and his teachings, so that we too can come to know and love Jesus, God's beloved Son. Read today's Gospel, Matthew 17:1–9. Discuss as a family how Jesus fulfills the promises that God made to Israel and how God glorified Jesus after the Resurrection. Talk about your family and the promises you have made to one another. Conclude by praying together the Lord's Prayer so that as a family you continue to grow in faithfulness to one another and to your heavenly Father.
