MENSAJES DE PADRE ROGER

Dear Alumni,

Last Sunday afternoon we celebrated with many Alumni, a prayer service, in our church.

It was great to see representatives from many years ago, to the most recently graduated class, and all those in between.

You are both the history and the future of our beloved School.

Your continued prayers are deeply appreciated.

Your presence at Holy Mass on Sundays is a blessing to the community. All are welcomed and it is good to have you here.

Your continued financial support is greatly appreciated as well. Your regular monetary gifts that you send to the school help us in so many ways to continue the fine level of Catholic Education here on Cedar Street. The administration, faculty, parents and students are grateful for your donations.

With great respect to your families.

Fraternally,
Fr. Roger

Since 1976, the Annual Catholic Appeal has been a unified effort in which all parishioners are asked to provide critical, financial support to nearly forty diocesan ministries that provide for the spiritual emotional and physical needs of the community. This year, the appeal will be called the Faith and Charity Catholic Appeal. We are all united by our faith and called to charity. SEPTEMBER DEVOTION:

The month of September is dedicated to Our Lady of Sorrows, a title given to Mary as she suffered alongside Christ during his passion. September 15th marks the Feast Day for Our Lady of Sorrows, but we are called to pray and reflect on our own interior sufferings throughout the entire month. May we seek the intercession of the Blessed Mother in hopes of receiving her grace and strength as we endure our own sorrowful crosses. Virgin, Most Sorrowful, pray for us. +

Dear Friends in Christ,

Across our Diocese, the spirit of Catholic education is alive and vibrant – and this year, our students themselves are leading the way.

I'm delighted to introduce this year's Share in the Spirit campaign for tuition assistance, created by students, for students. From video production and article writing to poster design and heartfelt testimony, our young people have stepped up to champion the importance of Catholic education in a powerful and inspiring way.

Lauren Tyree, a rising senior at St. Mark's High School, led the creation of a compelling campaign video that captures what Catholic schools mean to our students: community, safety, purpose, and a place where faith is the heartbeat of learning.

Reagan Handy and Kinsleigh Engler, rising seniors at Ss. Peter and Paul High School, wrote a moving article about the lasting value of their education and why tuition assistance is vital.

Dominic Rufo, a rising senior at St. Elizabeth High School, wrote beautifully about the sense of belonging he feels and his gratitude for the support he has received.

And Paige Sopirak, a senior at Padua Academy, used her artistic talents to design this year's campaign poster, reminding us that students helping students is a powerful witness of faith in action.

These students have poured their hearts into this campaign, hoping to give more young people the same opportunity they've been given: a Catholic education rooted in faith, love, and excellence.

Last year, thanks to your generosity, we provided nearly $1.4 million in tuition assistance—but sadly, we had to turn away just as many deserving students due to limited resources. This year, we are praying for your continued support, so that more students can say yes to the gift of Catholic education.

I invite you to join me in supporting the Share in the Spirit collection in all parishes the weekend of September 27 and 28. Together, we can ensure that every student who desires to learn, lead, and grow in faith has a seat in our classrooms.

Let us answer the call of our young people—and give generously so that they may continue to thrive, believe, and become who God is calling them to be.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

Most Reverend William E. Koenig

Bishop of Wilmington
