THE PASTOR'S PEN

Greetings in Christ Jesus!

Among Catholics there has been a special and popular devotion to the Holy Family for centuries. When devotion to the Holy Family concentrates on the time when Jesus was a child, then this can easily create an atmosphere of sentimentality.

Nowadays, we are acutely aware of the strains and stresses on family life, we know the statistics about the average time-span of recent marriages and the general decline in the birth-rate in the world.

We are alerted to marital infidelities and all kinds of violence within families. All this knowledge can make ideals seem less reasonable and not supportive. We are made suspicious of goodness or it is presented as boring.

The Holy Family keeps its sustaining power and attractiveness, not least because its members and their goodness are for real. Most of the family life of Jesus, Mary and Joseph went unrecorded, yet we are told significant things.

The circumstances of the birth of Jesus were not the easiest and, on returning to the land of Israel from seeking refuge in another country, the family had to move to a new house out of fear and go to live in Nazareth.

Having found the young Jesus in the Temple after he had gone missing, Mary asked her child why he had done this to her and Joseph. Jesus's reply was that they should have known he must be in his Father's house.

Jesus's attitude to his family and to family relationships in general was not at all satisfied, and there are various challenging texts in the gospels where Jesus considers kinship and faith.

Just think of his words: 'Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother'. Those who think that the Holy Family is made up of flimsy figures acting mechanically should read all the relevant texts.

Fr. Maschio.

St. Francis de Sales Christian Mothers

December 10, 2023

Winter Meeting

Fourteen members attended today's meeting. Judy Vanyo Hoffman, committee chair, welcomed everyone and we opened up with the new prayer for the children provided to us by the National Confraternity of Christian Mothers.

Carolyn Strnad read the minutes from the May, 2023 meeting. The minutes were approved with a few small changes. (Sandy/Doris) The budget review was tabled to the next meeting.

Old Business:

Carolyn provided an update to the Confraternity of Christian Mothers prayer book. (The little red book). As discussed at the May meeting, the book was in need of revisions so that it was more inclusive to all our members including grandmothers, aunts, etc. that pray for the children of our parish. Our group was notified after the meeting that the national group was planning to revise the prayer book with possible distribution by Christmas. A list of those wanting a copy of the revised book will be collected so that we know how many to order. Judy also mentioned the book, Mother Love Prayer, as an excellent family prayer book.

The review of the fall retreat was tabled due to not being able to locate the minutes from the planning committee. Once found, the review will be placed in the bulletin.

Please recruit new members for our Christian Mothers group. Our membership is down to 84 members with a number of them no longer able to help with functions. An induction for new members will take place in the spring. A list of possible new members has begun to be collected. Follow up will occur with those individuals as we move closer to the spring meeting and initiation time.

New Business:

Judy announced that she is stepping down from her role as chairperson of the Christian Mother's group. Judy still plans to stay active within the group and share her wisdom of the work we do for the parish. Sharon Jorschum and Carolyn Strnad have offered to co-chair the group. The motion to approve Sharon and Carolyn was approved, with Sandy and Pat making the motion. Carolyn and Sharon will be meeting with Judy after the first of the year to learn what is required of them in leading the group. Members thanked Judy for her service over the many years as our leader and her commitment to leading Christian Mothers. A gift was given to her in gratitude from the group. Judy reminded us that we are all Christian Mothers, and that she could not have done the work she did without the help from our committed members.

Other items: Father has asked us to host a reception for our new Deacan, Deacon Dennis. This will take place after mass next weekend. Sharon and Carolyn will be in charge of the arrangements. Several members offered to help with the setup, serving and cleaning. Thank you to all who offered to help.

Beth inquired on if we need to set a time to clean the church and oil the pews, as we have done in the past. Val, who is the church custodian, shared that she has been cleaning the church area and oiling the pews. There is no need at this time for our help with this project.

Judy would like to see that the minutes of our meetings are placed in the bulletin so that those members who are not present are able to keep updated on our projects and work. We are all Christian Mother's not just the ones able to attend our meetings. Judy and Carolyn will look into putting the minutes in the bulletin. There may also be room on our church website to place the minutes and some of our daily prayers. Members agreed this would be a good idea.

Judy reminded the group that when there are extra funds in our account, we should be offering scholarships to our youth to attend religious retreats.

Our membership list is again in need of updating. We will ask for volunteers after the holidays to help with this project. If possible, when updating we should include phone numbers, if they accept text messages, addresses and emails if the member has one. This will make communicating information out to our members easier. Thank you to Sandy and Judy who have been making the calls for funerals and providing bars help.

Sandy shared information on a group that she is working with. Walking with Moms in Need is a project of St. Francis, St. Joseph's, and St. Elizabeth's churches. They provide support and information to pregnant mom's who don't know where to turn to for resources and support. A resource book of programs is located at each of the church offices. There is also a poster and flyers available that provide contact information for moms to connect with. St. Francis members Sandy and Tina Cruz are involved with Walking with Mons in Need.

Carolyn led the group in a closing prayer. A motion to adjourn was approved, with JoAnn and Sandy making the motion.

The spring meeting will be in late April or early May.

Should you have questions about Christian Mothers Carolyn can be reached at 701-866-5461 or carmar41957@gmail.com Sharon can be reached at 218-236-7892 or skjorschumb@yahoo.com

If you would like to assist us in updating the membership list. Please fill out the information below and place in the Sunday collection basket or drop off the form to the office.
