THE PASTOR'S PEN

Greetings in Christ Jesus!

Crossing social barriers can be dangerous. We see this in this Sunday's Gospel when Jesus meets a leper. The book of Leviticus laid down strict rules for dealing with contagious diseases like leprosy. They were harsh but necessary.

The leper must be isolated from society and his loved ones until there was a cure. Jesus himself seems to have recognized that it was necessary to have official priestly procedures to monitor the state of the illness.

The Gospel reveals the desperation of this leper and the huge risk he and Jesus were taking in crossing a profound social barrier. Notice how the leper approaches, pleads, falls to his knees and begs to be healed. He is desperate.

Jesus could have just spoken a healing word, he could have raised his hand to bless, without making any bodily human contact. But he stretched out his hand and touched the leper. And immediately he is healed.

The reason for touch is simple. Jesus touched him 'out of compassion'. He was able to sympathize with the suffering of the leper so that he willed to bring him out of his isolation. The leper symbolizes the isolation and alienation.

He is restored to himself and given back to his loved ones. It is a sign of God's kingdom which through Jesus defeats the forces of evil and so breaks through the rigid barriers which a society can set up to protect itself against the outsider.

In a society which is becoming increasingly lonely and isolated, the Church is called to be what it should, the isolated and today's 'lepers' and untouchables can find a home and a helping hand which is stretched out to them in welcome.

Fr. Maschio.

The next Fifth Sunday bake sale will be March 17, early because of the Easter and Palm Sunday holidays.

Birthright Crib

CATHOLIC DAUGHTER COURT ST. MARY 509 will be collecting new or very gently used items for the Women's Health Clinic (Birthright) during the month of February. A crib has been placed in the gathering area for items. Diapers, baby wash, towels, wipes, outfits (0-18 mos), blankets, New toys, etc. are much appreciated. Thank you for your help in this endeavor to help area mothers.

R.E. Substitutes

Last Year's Palm Fronds

If you have palm fronds from last year's Palm Sunday, please bring them to the church during Lent so they can be disposed of properly. They have been blessed so they should not be thrown in the trash.
