FAST AND ABSTINENCE

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence from meat. For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal. Two smaller meals may also be taken, but not to equal a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards. THE PASTOR'S PEN

Greetings in Christ Jesus!

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus goes into the temple and upsets the money-changers' tables. He drives the cattle and sheep out with a whip, along with the people who sold them. Away with the caged pigeons.

This was a prophetic act. The authorities knew this instinctively. They did not get Jesus arrested, or arrange for Jesus to get beaten up by the security. The authorities asked, 'What sign can you show us?'

There were three parts to the temple, the innermost courtyard for Jewish men, then the courtyard for women, and outermost, the courtyard of the Gentiles, the non-Jews. This marketing occupied at least part of the courtyard of the Gentiles.

By throwing the merchants out, Jesus was restoring this courtyard for the use of the Gentiles. So, Jesus may have been symbolically clearing up what was widely perceived as a corrupt business practice and restoring a more reasonable business culture.

However, the cleansing of the temple is much more than correcting corrupt business practices. It is about allowing non-Jews to worship along with Jews. This was the expectation of the coming of the Messiah so that all would worship the one true God.

Symbolically Jesus cleanses the temple and allows Gentiles to worship. But at a deeper level it is Jesus who by his passion, death and resurrection allows Gentiles and Jews, men and women into the temple which is his own body so that all might be saved.

The true temple of God is not any building, however beautiful, however ancient, however long and expensive it has been to build. No, the true temple of God is God's holy people, baptized into his death, redeemed by his precious blood. We are God's holy temple.

Fr. Maschio.

Finance and Pastoral Council Meetings

The next meetings will be Tuesday March 5, at 5 pm (Finance Council) and 6 pm (Pastoral Council). Both meetings will be in the library.

Catholic Relief Services Collection

Next week our parish will take up the Catholic Relief Services Collection. Funds from this collection provide food to the hungry, support displaced refugees, and bring Christ's love and mercy to vulnerable people here and abroad. Next week, please give generously to the collection and reveal Christ's love to those most in need. Learn more about the collection at www.usccb.org/catholic-relief.

CHRISTIAN MOTHERS CORNER

What do Christian Mothers do? The main purpose of the Confraternity of Christian Mothers is to unite mothers (and other women) in prayer and spiritual and moral growth of our families, especially children. The other duties in our parish include; meeting for prayer on the first Sunday of the month, making bars for prayer services and funerals, serving the meal after funerals for families of parishioners, dusting of the church proper, oiling of the pews, keeping the kitchen in good repair, purchasing flowers for the various seasons, holding a Women's Retreat yearly or every two years, hosting any event the Pastor asks us to host. If you are interested in joining our group, please contact Sharon Jorschumb at 218-790-5392 or Carolyn Strnad at 701-866-5461. We will hold an Initiation for new members on Sunday, April 28th. This will also be our semiannual meeting of Christian Mothers after Mass that day. Join us for coffee, juice and sweet treats.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Congress

Indianapolis, Indiana, July 17-21, 2024

What is this event?

The National Eucharistic Congress will be held in Indianapolis, Indiana from Wednesday July 17th to Sunday July 21st. This will be a gathering of Catholics from across the United States to witness our belief in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. The Diocese of Crookston has a block of hotel rooms and tickets still available for this event and will be taking a bus for adults who do not wish to fly or drive themselves. The Bishop of the Diocese of Crookston, Andrew Cozzens, is the national chair of the Eucharistic Congress.

Schedule

Tuesday, July 16th, Crookston or Moorhead, Minnesota: Bus Departs: For those who wish to take the diocesan bus, you will be able to load in Crookston or Moorhead Minnesota in the morning and the group will spend the night in South Bend, Indiana. The cost of the bus will be $250 plus your room accommodations in South Bend (we are negotiating for a block of rooms).

Wednesday, July 17th, Indianapolis: All members of the Diocesan delegation will check into hotels and receive your entrance tickets for the Congress. The Congress will begin at 7:00 am with Bishop Andrew Cozzens opening the Congress with a procession of Christ in the Monstrance entering Lucas Oil Stadium.

Thursday, July 18th: Speakers on this day include Fr. Mike Schmitz, Fr. Rocky Hoffman, Julianne Stanz, Trent Horn, Sr. Mary Grace Langrell, Dr. Edward Sri, Cardinal Dinardo, and Fr. Leo Patalinghug among many others.

Friday, July 19th: Speakers include Sr. Josephine Garrett, Jason Evert, Dr. Hosffman Ospino, Damon Owens, Meg Hunter-Kilmer, Dr. Mary Healy and Archbishop Gustavo Garcia-Siller among others.

Saturday, July 20th: Speakers include Bishop Robert Barron, Gloria Purvis, Dr. Tim Grey, Curtis Martin, a Eucharistic Procession, music by Matt Maher among other speakers.

Sunday, July 21st: The Congress will conclude with an address by Chris Stefanick followed by the closing Mass with the papal delegate. The bus will depart for Moorhead immediately after the Mass and will drive through the day and into the night until arriving back in the diocese.

Registration

Registration for the Congress and the diocesan bus can take place via the QR code at the bottom of this page or at: <https://www.crookston.org/revival-grid/3511-national-eucharistic-congress-july-17-21-2024>

Corporate Travel is making the arrangements on behalf of the Diocese of Crookston and so you can also register by calling their help line at: 866-468-1420 option 2.

The cost for the Congress includes your ticket for the event (a $250 dollar value) as well as hotel for four nights at the Hyatt Regency hotel (directly across the street where the Congress will be taking place). The total price is $799 for Triple/Quad room, $999 for Double, and $1499 for Single Room.
