Fourth Sunday of Advent

First Reading: Isaiah 7:10-14

Ahaz receives from Isaiah a prophecy that he will be successful in war and is urged to ask for a sign that the prophecy is true. The sign is "The virgin shall be with child and bear a son, and shall name him Emmanuel."

Second Reading: Romans 1:1-7

Paul greets the Romans by pointing out that Jesus is the Christ who was promised to them in Scripture. He, Paul, is the apostle favored with the task of spreading the name of Christ to all.

Gospel: Matthew 1:18-24

In a brief, straightforward, simple narrative, Matthew recounts the events leading to Jesus' birth. He details the appearance of the angel in a dream to Joseph and stresses that "All this happened to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophets."

Cuarto Domingo de Adviento

Primera Lectura: Isaías 7:10-14

Acaz recibe de Isaías una profecía que indica que será exitoso en la guerra y es exhortado a pedir una señal de que la profecía es verdadera. La señal es "La joven está encinta y va a tener un hijo, al que pondrá por nombre Emanuel."

Segunda Lectura: Romanos 1:1-7

Pablo saluda a los romanos señalando que Jesús es el Cristo que les fue prometido en las escrituras. El, Pablo, es el apostol favorecido con el encargo de dar a conocer el nombre de Cristo a todos.

Evangelio: San Mateo 1:18-24

En una corta, directa y simple narrativa, Mateo cuenta los eventos que culminan con el nacimiento de Jesús. Cuenta de la aparición del angel a José en un sueño y recalca que "Todo esto sucedió para que se cumpliera lo que el Señor había dicho por medio del profeta."

Eucharistic Revival

"What is the fact of the Eucharist? It is that the same Jesus who was born on earth not only became man but remains man. He not only came into the world, He is in the world. In a word, He came to stay. The Eucharist is Christmas prolonged, because faith tells us that once God became man, He decided to remain man. From all the reaches of past eternity, God had only been God. But having once taken on human flesh, into now the future reaches of eternity, God will always remain man.

And this God-man is here; Bethlehem is wherever there is a Catholic Church or chapel in which Christ is present. Those are the two facts that we commemorate on Christmas day."

- Servant of God
Fr. John A. Hardon, S.J.

EucharisticRevival.org

The Catholic Daughters would like to extend a very big thank you to all our parishioners who participated in The Giving Tree program. Just over 1,500 hundred items were collected, which included personal items, toiletry, warm gloves, and hats. What a wonderful response! These donations will be distributed by Catholic Charities throughout Dutchess County; however, your donations will also support those in need in Pawling & Dover Plains. Your generosity, as always, is greatly appreciated. We wish you blessings and joy in the New Year!

December Second Collection

Weekend of 12/13-12/14
Retirement Fund For Religious

The annual appeal for the Retirement Fund for Religious is taken up the second Sunday of each December in most US Catholic parishes and helps hundreds of religious communities provide for the current and future needs of senior members.

Pope Benedict XVI Christmas Reflection

Silence is the sphere where God is born. Christmas invites us into this silence of God, and his mystery remains hidden to so many people because they cannot find the silence in which God acts. How do we find it? Mere silence on its own does not suffice to create it, for a man may be silent externally while in himself he is torn this way and that by all the confusion of the world. It is possible to keep silent yet experience a terrible din within oneself.

Becoming silent means discovering a new order of things. It means that I do not limit my interest to those things that men consider important and valuable. Silence means developing the inner senses, the sense of the conscience, the sensitivity to the eternal in us, the ability to listen to God.

Are we developing in the wrong direction: a lot of technology, but not much soul? A thick armor plating of material know-how, but a heart that has become empty? Have we not lost the ability to perceive the voice of God in us and to recognize and acknowledge the good, the beautiful and the true?

- Pope Benedict XVI+
