The Presentation of the Lord

“Jesus renews, here in the Temple, the self-oblation He had made at the moment of His Incarnation.”

- Bl. Columba Marmion

The 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Zephaniah 2:3, 3:12-13

Zephaniah prophesies that the Lord will punish wicked nations along with Jerusalem, but he will shelter from his anger those who practice justice and humility and do no wrong.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:26-31

Paul tells the Corinthians that God prefers the humble, the weak, the lowly of station — people like themselves. In Christ Jesus they will find wisdom, honor and justice.

Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12a

Jesus teaches the Beatitudes in his Sermon on the Mount. He extols those who are merciful, peaceful, lowly, poor in spirit and promises them that “the reign of God is theirs.”

Quarto Domingo en Tiempo Ordinario

Primera Lectura: Sofonías 2:3, 3:12-13

Sofonías profetiza que el Señor castigará a los pueblos malvados así como a Jerusalén, pero protegerá de su ira a aquellos que practican la justicia y humildad y no hacen mal.

Segunda Lectura: 1 Corintios 1:26-31

Pablo dice a los corintios que Dios prefiera a los humildes, débiles, de bajo estado social: gente como ellos. En Jesucristo ellos encontrarán sabiduría, honor y justicia.

Evangelio: San Mateo 5:1-12a

Jesús enseña las Bienaventuranzas en su Sermón del Monte. Ensalza a aquellos que son misericordiosos, pacíficos, pobres de espíritu y les promete que el “reino de Dios les pertenece.”

Lenten Fast and Abstinence

During the season of Lent, the Church urges the faithful to reflect a spirit of penance in their daily lives through performing acts of fast and abstinence.

- Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, February 18 and ends on the evening of Holy Thursday, April 2.
- Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fasting and abstinence. This is a serious matter within Church law.
- Fasting means only one full meal a day may be taken. Two smaller meals may be eaten to maintain physical strength but together they should not equal another full meal in quantity. Snacking between meals is not permitted. Catholics ages 18-59 are obligated to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Those who are not specifically obliged to fast are encouraged to join in the discipline of fasting to the extent that they are able.
- Abstinence forbids the eating of meat or poultry. Those who have reached the age of 14 and older are obligated to abstain on Ash Wednesday and all Fridays of Lent.
- Those who are not specifically obliged to abstain from eating meat are urged to join in the discipline of abstaining to the extent that they are able.
- All Fridays of the year are designated as days of penance during which we are encouraged to practice self-denial out of gratitude for the suffering and death Jesus accepted for us.

Lenten Prayer of St. Ephrem

"O Lord and Master of my life, take from me the spirit of sloth, despair, lust of power, and idle talk. But give rather the spirit of chastity, humility, patience, and love to Thy servant. Hea, O Lord and King, grant me to see my own transgressions, and not to judge my brother, for blessed art Thou, unto ages of ages. Amen."

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION PROGRAM: This weekend the Respect Life Committee continues to have materials available for parishioners of all ages to sign up and spiritually adopt a baby. You can name the child and commit to pray for the baby's safety in the womb for the next nine months. There will be sign up cards to complete. You keep the half with the prayer. The returned slips with the babies' names will be placed in the basket near the statue of the Blessed Mother for the next nine months. Posters will be hung in the entrance of the church to show the gradual growth of the baby from conception to birth. We encourage you to participate in this rewarding annual parish program.

If you did not get a chance to fill out a slip and return the part with the baby's name, you may fill out the one printed below in the bulletin, cut it out and return it next week. All of the returned slips will be placed in the wicker basket and placed in front of Mary's statue until October, when the adopted babies will hopefully be born.

RESPECT LIFE: The Respect Life Committee will be meeting on Wednesday evening, February 11th at 7:30 in the Parish Center. New members and new ideas are always welcome.
