August: Month of the Immaculate Heart of Mary

MEMORIAL ✚ August 14th
SAINT MAXIMILIAN KOLBE
PRIEST & MARTYR

"In order that obedience be supernatural it must not proceed from reason, but from faith."

The 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: 1 Kings 19:9a, 11-13a

After fleeing from the revenge of the King of Israel, Elijah hid in a cave, but at the command of God, he went outside and stood on a mountain. There the Lord came to him, not in the wind nor in the earthquake, but in a "tiny whispering sound."

Second Reading: Romans 9:1-5

Paul is deeply pained because the Jews - in spite of everything that has been given to them - have rejected Christ.

Gospel: Matthew 14:22-33

Matthew vividly recounts the event of Jesus walking on the water. When the disciples see this, they are terrified, and Jesus chastises them for their fear. Peter begs Christ to let him walk on the water; he is at first brave but begins to sink and loses faith, crying out, "Lord save me!" Christ rescues him for his faltering faith.

Decimonoveno Domingo en Tiempo Ordinario

Primera Lectura: 1 Reyes 19:9a, 11-13a

Luego de huir de la venganza del Rey de Israel, Elías se escondió en una cueva. Pero al mandarlo Dios, salió afuera y subió a una montaña. Allí el Señor vino a él, no en el viento ni en el terremoto, sino en un "sonido suave y delicado."

Segunda Lectura: Romanos 9:1-5

Pablo está muy acongojado pues los judíos, a pesar de todo lo que se les ha otorgado, han rechazado a Cristo.

Evangelio: San Mateo 14:22-33

Mateo cuenta con detalle cuando Jesús caminó sobre el agua. Al ver esto, sus discípulos sienten terror, y Jesús los regaña por su miedo. Pedro le ruega a Cristo que le permita caminar en agua. Al principio muestra valor pero empieza a hundirse y pierde la fe, gritando: "¡Sálvame, Señor!". Cristo lo rescata por su poca fe.

Weekly Readings

Monday: 2 Cor 9:6-10; Jn 12:24-26

Tuesday: Ez 2:8—3:4; Mt 18:1-5, 10, 12-14

Wednesday: Ez 9:1-7, 10:18-22; Mt 18:15-20

Thursday: Ez 12:1-12; Mt 18:21—19:1

Friday: Ez 16:1-15, 60, 63 or 16:59-63; Mt 19:3-12

Saturday: Vigil: 1 Chr 15:3-4, 15-16, 16:1-2;

1 Cor 15:54b-57; Lk 11:27-28

Day: Rv 11:19a, 12:1-6a, 10ab;

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd needs Substitutes!

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a beautiful hands-on faith formation program for children birth – 12 years. The program is offered in our atrium in

Father Duff Hall several days and times during the week. Our program has experienced a great deal of growth this year. We have several dedicated assistants, but we need substitutes to fill in occasionally when our regular assistants can't be there.

We don't call for substitutes often,
but when we do, we really need them!

Substitutes are notified by email and text when there is a need and they respond and let us know if they are or are not available. It's a great way to support our program while you learn more about an amazing faith formation program!

Eucharistic Revival

“Does it please You, Lord, to deliver into the hands of these beasts the defenseless children I have nourished with Your love? I beg You, Lord, protect these women whom I cannot protect.” A child-like voice suddenly called out from the tabernacle: “I will always protect you!

When Saracen soldiers attacked the convent of San Damiano in 1240, a frail Saint Clare (Aug. 11th) demonstrated immense faith and courage. She had her sisters bring her the Eucharist in a monstrance, lifted it high, and prayed earnestly for protection. Confronted by the Holy Sacrament, the attackers were overcome with fear and fled, saving the convent from destruction.

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

I need to get something off my chest. I just can't understand why some Catholics don't call a priest when they're dying. Since I've been here, I've buried so many people who died at home or in the local nursing home in Pawling without receiving the last rites. Why pass up the final graces the Lord offers through His Church? It really bothers me. Don't we see the risk to our souls if we die with unrepentant mortal sin? The Last Rites give us everything we need to leave this world in God's good graces. We should never say, "They lived a good life, so they'll go to heaven." This misses the bigger picture. If Jesus gave His Church this authority, why ignore it? Even if loved ones don't believe, we should at least ask someone close to call a priest for the final sacrament. Every priest has the authority to offer final absolution, provide an apostolic pardon, and anointing—this is God's mercy at work so souls can reach heaven, not hell. As your pastor and brother, let's take this sacrament seriously before our final judgment.

Thank you, Fr. Palatucci

“And God blessed them, and
God said to them,
‘Be fertile and multiply.’”
Genesis 1:28

Beginning this month the baby uses four senses. His eyelids open and close and the eyes look around. The baby can taste, touch, cough, yawn, and hiccup. He now recognizes his own mother's voice, and he responds when her voice reaches his ears. His grip is even stronger now than it will be after his birth. The hair on his head is growing longer and the downy covering on the rest of his body is disappearing. During this time, the baby will receive antibodies from his mother, providing him immunity to a wide variety of diseases.

Why is Mary glorified by her Assumption into Heaven?

Benedict XVI

She lived with exemplary fidelity and kept in the inmost depths of her heart the words of God to his people, the promises he made to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, making them the content of her prayer: the Word of God in the Magnificat became the word of Mary, the lamp for her journey, thus preparing her to receive even in her womb the Word of God made flesh. Today's Gospel passage recalls this presence of God in history and in the unfolding of events; in particular, there is a reference to the Second Book of Samuel Chapter Six (6:1-15), in which David moves the Holy Ark of the Covenant. The comparison is clear to the Evangelist: Mary expecting the birth of her Son Jesus is the Holy Ark that contains the presence of God, a presence that is a source of consolation, of total joy. John, in fact, leaps in Elizabeth's womb, just as David danced before the Ark. Mary is the "visit" of God that creates joy. Zechariah, in his song of praise says explicitly: "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he has visited and redeemed his people" (Lk 1:68). The house of Zechariah experienced the visit of God by the unexpected birth of John the Baptist, but above all by the presence of Mary, who bore within her womb the Son of God.

But now let us ask ourselves: how does the Assumption of Mary help our journey? The first answer is: in the Assumption we see that in God there is room for man, God himself is the house with many rooms of which Jesus speaks (cf. Jn 14:2); God is man's home, in God there is God's space. And Mary, by uniting herself, united to God, does not distance herself from us. She does not go to an unknown galaxy, but whoever approaches God comes closer, for God is close to us all; and Mary, united to God, shares in the presence of God, is so close to us, to each one of us.

There is a beautiful passage from St Gregory the Great on St Benedict that we can apply to Mary too. St Gregory the Great says that the heart of St Benedict expanded so much that all creation could enter it. This is even truer of Mary: Mary, totally united to God, has a heart so big that all creation can enter this heart, and the ex-votos in every part of the earth show it. Mary is close, she can hear us, she can help us, she is close to everyone of us. In God there is room for man and God is close, and Mary, united to God, is very close; she has a heart as great as the heart of God.

But there is also another aspect: in God not only is there room for man; in man there is room for God. This too we see in Mary, the Holy Ark who bears the presence of God. In us there is space for God and this presence of God in us, so important for bringing light to the world with all its sadness, with its problems. This presence is realized in the faith: in the faith we open the doors of our existence so that God may enter us, so that God can be the power that gives life and a path to our existence. In us there is room, let us open ourselves like Mary opened herself, saying: "Let your will be done, I am the servant of the Lord". By opening ourselves to God, we lose nothing. On the contrary, our life becomes rich and great.

CATECHISTS NEEDED!

Are you passionate about sharing our faith with young people? Please consider joining our team of dedicated Catechists. We are seeking a teacher for Mondays from 6:00 p.m. to 7:15 p.m. and on Thursdays from 6:00 p.m. to 7:15 p.m. All catechists must be practicing Catholics attending Mass each Sunday and Holy Days of Obligation, in good standing with the Church: Baptism, Confirmation, and First Holy Communion. They cannot be cohabitating with someone who is not their spouse or in a civil union only. They should also be in full agreement with the Catholic Church on all moral issues, including life, marriage, and human sexuality. This position is open to both males and females who have graduated high school and/or are 18 years and older. All teachers' books and curriculum will be provided. More than anything else, Fr. Palatucci is looking for someone with loving patience and a willingness to spend one hour each week sharing the faith with young people in our parish. For more information, please speak to Nan Kramer at 845-204-3421 or email at sjescbprep@gmail.com

a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised."

Proverbs 31:30

Calling all women! Let us gather and fellowship and grow deeper in faith. Join us for a Bible study in the St. John's parish center meeting on the last Wednesday of every month, 7:30 PM starting June 24th. What better way to kick off summer than time with friends and Jesus? Contact Elaina McGrath for more information or if you plan to attend. Elainamcgrath93@gmail.com or (845)224-6393

Reminder:

*A decade of the Holy Rosary will be prayed before each Mass on Saturday and Sunday at St. John's. If you would like to volunteer to lead a decade,

To Jesus through Mary

Our Young Men's Study Group Continues to Grow!

Beginning in August, our group will begin reading and discussing

The Early Church Was the Catholic Church

by Joe Heschmeyer

Can you defend our Catholic faith as the foundation of Christianity? This book focuses on the first two centuries of Christianity and on bedrock principles of its belief, authority, and worship. We'll dig into the words and actions of those who lived right after the apostles to see how the faith was practiced back then. If you want to learn to defend our Church at its roots—or even if you're just curious about what our eldest Christian brothers and sisters believed—you can expect this study group to be richly rewarding.

Our group meets in the Father Moriarty Center
the 2nd Wednesday of each month.
