Mission statement

St. Pius X, two communities, divided by language and culture, but united in one faith. We strive to lead others to a personal relationship with Jesus, especially in the Eucharist. We are renewing ourselves through prayer, faith sharing and small communities. We model who Jesus is through caring, healing, socializing, teaching and ministering to one another.

San Pio X, dos comunidades, separadas por la lengua y la cultura, unidas por una sola fe. Nos esforzamos por conducir a otros a una relación personal con Jesús, especialmente en la Eucaristía. Nos estamos renovando por medio de la oración, y por pequeñas comunidades que comparten su fe. Mostramos lo que es la persona de Jesús cuidando, sanando, socializando, enseñando y sirviéndonos unos a otros.

We want to thank everyone for their cards, prayers and kind words during the loss of our dad, grandpa and husband. Special thanks to Fr. Mario and Deacon Bob Schrom for the beautiful funeral service, to Regina and Anita for the music, and MaryLou Krautscheid for arranging the nice dinner afterwards. Thanks to all who helped in any way, we were very pleased.

- Ginny Omlin and family

STEWARDSHIP: When many of us hear the word "stewardship," we often think it is all about money. That is not the case. Stewardship is all about doing what God wants us to do with the gifts He has given us. The challenge is that we cannot know what God wants from us unless we spend time every day communicating with God. May is the month the diocese sets aside to ask all parishioners to take some time in the days and weeks ahead to reflect on the following question: "Lord, what do You want me to do with all the gifts You have given me?"

Jesus, the "Good Shepherd," makes a promise in today's Gospel to those who hear his voice and follow him. He promises them eternal life. Amidst all the other voices that clamor for attention in their daily lives, the voices that make demands, give advice, seek to persuade or like to gossip, Good stewards listen for the Good Shepherd's voice. The other voices are legion and we do not always recognize how contrary they are to the voice of the Good Shepherd. Good stewards know that it takes a compassionate heart, a habit of prayer, a hunger for the Eucharist and a love of neighbor for them to truly hear the voice of the Good Shepherd. What might we do in our daily lives to prepare us to more authentically hear the voice of the Good Shepherd?

MAYORDOMÍA: Cuando muchos de nosotros escuchamos la palabra "mayordomía", a menudo pensamos que se trata de dinero. No es así. La mayordomía se trata de hacer lo que Dios quiere que hagamos con los dones que Él nos ha dado. El desafío es que no podemos saber lo que Dios quiere de nosotros a menos que pasemos tiempo todos los días comunicándonos con Dios. Mayo es el mes que la diócesis reserva para pedir a todos los feligreses que se tomen un tiempo en los días y semanas venideros para reflexionar sobre la siguiente pregunta: "Señor, ¿qué quieres que haga con todos los dones que me has dado?"

FUNERAL DINNER HELP/THANK YOU: If you haven't yet, and intend to, please let MaryLou Krautscheid or Mary Keller know if you would like to help with funeral dinners. With the new set up, typically you will be called on for a salad or dessert, no hot dishes, and you won't be asked for every funeral. Thank you in advance. Thank you to everyone who helped with the dinner for Arnie Omlin. Everything went very well.

SCOTT HAHN'S REFLECTION...

Israel's mission—to be God's instrument of salvation to the ends of the earth (see Isaiah 49:6)—is fulfilled in the Church.

By the "Word of God" that Paul and Barnabas preach in today's First Reading, a new covenant people is being born, a people who glorify the God of Israel as the Father of them all.

The Church for all generations remains faithful to the grace of God given to the Apostles, continues their saving work.

Through the Church, the peoples of every land hear the Shepherd's voice, and follow Him (see Luke 10:16).

The Good Shepherd of today's Gospel is the enthroned Lamb of today's Second Reading. In laying down His life for His flock, the Lamb brought to pass a new Passover (see 1 Corinthians 5:7), by His blood freeing "every nation, race, people and tongue" from bondage to sin and death.

The Church is the "great multitude" John sees in his vision today. God swore to Abraham his descendants would be too numerous to count. And in the Church, as John sees, this promise is fulfilled (compare Revelation 7:9; Genesis 15:5).

The Lamb rules from the throne of God, sheltering His flock, feeding their hunger with His own Body and Blood, leading them to "springs of life-giving waters" that well up to eternal life (see John 4:14).

The Lamb is the eternal Shepherd-King, the son of David foretold by the prophets. His Church is the Kingdom of all Israel that the prophets said would be restored in an everlasting covenant (see Ezekiel 34:23-31; 37:23-28).

It is not a kingdom any tribe or nation can jealously claim as theirs alone. The Shepherd's Word to Israel is addressed now to all lands, calling all to worship and bless His name in the heavenly Temple.

This is the delight of the Gentiles—that we can sing the song that once only Israel could sing, today's joyful Psalm: "He made us, His we are—His people, the flock He tends."
