Mission statement

St. Pius X, two communities, divided by language and culture, but united in one faith. We strive to lead others to a personal relationship with Jesus, especially in the Eucharist. We are renewing ourselves through prayer, faith sharing and small communities. We model who Jesus is through caring, healing, socializing, teaching and ministering to one another.

San Pio X, dos comunidades, separadas por la lengua y la cultura, unidas por una sola fe. Nos esforzamos por conducir a otros a una relación personal con Jesús, especialmente en la Eucaristía. Nos estamos renovando por medio de la oración, y por pequeñas comunidades que comparten su fe. Mostramos lo que es la persona de Jesús cuidando, sanando, socializando, enseñando y sirviéndonos unos a otros.

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION: Next week we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including helping Pope Francis to carry out his charitable works. These works benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Please be generous. For more information visit: www.obolodisanpietro.va/en.html.

LA COLECTA PETER'S PENCE: La próxima semana realizaremos la Colecta Peter's Pence para apoyar a la Iglesia universal y la labor de la Santa Sede, incluyendo una ayuda al papa Francisco para llevar a cabo sus obras de caridad. Estas obras benefician a nuestros hermanos y hermanas en la periferia de la sociedad, incluyendo a las víctimas de guerra, de opresión y de sastres. Por favor, sean generosos. Para más información, visiten: www.obolodisanpietro.va/es.html

WOMEN'S CONFERENCE: St. Patrick's Parish in Pasco is hosting a "Whole-Hearted Women's Conference" on Saturday, June 25, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The conference is being coordinated through the Spokane Diocese's Office of Evangelization and Fr. Pat Kerst, the diocese's Vicar for Priests. For more information, visit the following web page: <https://dioceseofspokane.org/tri-cities-womens-conference-2022>

SYNOD QUESTIONNAIRE is online. We ask that you prayerfully consider each of our questions as it will contribute towards the larger question that Pope Francis is asking us to consider; "How is our 'Journeying Together' happening today in your local Church?" Yours as well as the voices of all in our Diocese will be combined into a report to Bishop Joseph Tyson who will then forward it to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Eventually, the voices from all over the world will be sent next year to Pope Francis for his consideration and direction of the Catholic Church. Look for the questionnaire on the diocesan website: <https://yakimadiocese.org>

NOTE: As Fr. Jerry settles in and gets to know us and our way of doing things, you will likely notice a few much needed changes over time - some to bring us in compliance with the diocesan policies, and others to enhance our liturgy. He isn't here to upset the cart and change everything! Any changes will be for the betterment of our parish. Please note that his day off will be Monday instead of Wednesday.

- USHERS, please use the tamper proof bags to put the collection in before bringing it to the altar at the offertory.
 - UJIERES, por favor use las bolsas a prueba de manipulaciones para poner la colección antes de llevarla al altar en el ofertorio.
- † BAUTISMOS EN ESPAÑOL: Los bautismos se celebran el último domingo del mes. Las clases son el viernes de ese mismo fin de semana después de las 7:00 p.m. Misa. Los padres deben traer el certificado de nacimiento del niño para ser bautizado y preinscribirse para la clase. Los padrinos deben traer prueba de su certificado de matrimonio por la iglesia. Los padrinos no necesitan ser una pareja. Deben estar en buena posición con la iglesia, recibir los sacramentos y no vivir en unión libre. Puede ser un solo padrino y necesita el certificado de confirmación.
- † BAPTISMS in English will be on an individual basis. Please contact Fr. Jerry.

SCOTT HAHN'S REFLECTION...

In today's Liturgy we're swept through time in glorious procession—from before earth and sky were set in place to the coming of the Spirit upon the new creation, the Church.

We begin in the heart of the Trinity, as we listen to the testimony of Wisdom in today's First Reading. Eternally begotten, the firstborn of God, He is poured forth from of old in the loving delight of the Father.

Through Him, the heavens were established, the foundations of the earth fixed. From before the beginning, He was with the Father as His "Craftsman," the artisan by Whom all things were made. And He took special delight, He tells us, in the crowning glory of God's handiwork—the human race, the "sons of men."

In today's Psalm, He comes down from heaven, is made a little lower than the angels, comes among us as "the Son of Man" (see Hebrews 2:6–10).

All things are put under His feet so that He can restore to humanity the glory for which we were made from the beginning, the glory lost by sin. He tasted death that we might be raised to life in the Trinity, that His name might be made glorious over all the earth.

Through the Son, we have gained grace and access in the Spirit to the Father, as Paul boasts in today's Epistle (see Ephesians 2:18).

The Spirit, the Love of God, has been poured out into our hearts—a Spirit of adoption, making us children of the Father once more (see Romans 8:14–16).

This is the Spirit that Jesus promises in today's Gospel.

His Spirit comes as divine gift and anointing (see 1 John 2:27), to guide us to all truth, to show us the things that are coming, " the things that were meant to be from before all ages—that we will find peace and union in God, share the life of the Trinity, and dwell in God as He dwells in us (see John 14:23; 17:21).
