Mission statement

St. Pius X, two communities, divided by language and culture, but united in one faith. We strive to lead others to a personal relationship with Jesus, especially in the Eucharist. We are renewing ourselves through prayer, faith sharing and small communities. We model who Jesus is through caring, healing, socializing, teaching and ministering to one another.

San Pio X, dos comunidades, separadas por la lengua y la cultura, unidas por una sola fe. Nos esforzamos por conducir a otros a una relación personal con Jesús, especialmente en la Eucaristía. Nos estamos renovando por medio de la oración, y por pequeñas comunidades que comparten su fe. Mostramos lo que es la persona de Jesús cuidando, sanando, socializando, enseñando y sirviéndonos unos a otros.

WASHINGTON CATHOLIC BISHOPS OPPOSE AMENDMENT TO ENSHRINE ABORTION INTO THE STATE CONSTITUTION:

Abortion has been legal in Washington State since 1970, and in 1991. Currently, the state legislature is considering an amendment to enshrine abortion in the state constitution. However, a constitutional amendment is unnecessary and extreme, as it will permit abortions to be performed up to the birth of a baby. The bishops encourage you to advocate for life and care for mothers and fathers so that they may choose life for their children. You can pick up a copy of the bishop's full statement in the narthex.

El aborto ha sido legal en el estado de Washington desde 1970, y en 1991. Actualmente, la legislatura estatal está considerando una enmienda para consagrar el aborto en la constitución estatal. Sin embargo, una enmienda constitucional es innecesaria y extrema, ya que permitirá que los abortos se realicen hasta el nacimiento de un bebé. Los obispos los alientan a abogar por la vida y el cuidado de las madres y los padres para que puedan elegir la vida para sus hijos. Puede recoger una copia de la declaración completa del obispo en el nártex.

SCOTT HAHN'S REFLECTION ON TODAY'S READINGS

In the readings since Christmas, Jesus has been revealed as the new royal son of David and Son of God. He is sent to lead a new exodus that brings Israel out of captivity to the nations and brings all the nations to God.

As Moses led Israel from Egypt through the sea to give them God's law on Mount Sinai, Jesus too has passed through the waters in baptism. Now, in today's Gospel, He goes to the mountain to proclaim a new law—the law of His Kingdom.

The Beatitudes mark the fulfillment of God's covenant promise to Abraham—that through his descendants all the nations of the world would receive God's blessings (see Genesis 12:3; 22:18).

Jesus is the son of Abraham (see Matthew 1:1). And through the wisdom He speaks today, He bestows the Father's blessings upon "the poor in spirit."

God has chosen to bless the weak and lowly, those foolish and despised in the eyes of the world, Paul says in today's Epistle. The poor in spirit are those who know that nothing they do can merit God's mercy and grace. These are the humble remnant in today's First Reading, taught to seek refuge in the name of the Lord.

The Beatitudes reveal the divine path and purpose for our lives. All our striving should be for these virtues—to be poor in spirit; meek and clean of heart; merciful and makers of peace; seekers of the righteousness that comes from living by the law of Kingdom.

The path the Lord sets before us today is one of trials and persecution. But He promises comfort in our mourning and a great reward.

The Kingdom we have inherited is no earthly territory but the promised land of heaven. It is Zion where the Lord reigns forever. And, as we sing in today's Psalm, its blessings are for those whose hope is in the Lord.

Reminder: Next Sunday is Youth Mass at 5:00 p.m.
