FROM YOUR PASTOR

Hello, St. Luke family!

I am so happy to be back from my quarantine adventures! I've missed you all so much! Although, I must admit, you were all very much on my mind and in my prayers as I endured the sufferings of COVID. I am thrilled to see the faces of those whom I've been offering up the past ten days!

As you know, we have begun the Year of the Eucharist! And there are so many exciting things to discuss as we begin this year!

First, you may have noticed that our bulletin has had a bit of a revamping. Behold the Lord makes all things new!... including our bulletin. We hope it will provide both the same level of helpful content while also showcasing the beauty we are capable of showing.

Second, with this new bulletin look comes a new way for you to reflect and pray with our bulletin cover! Each week, at the bottom of this page of the bulletin, you will find a QR code to download the bulletin cover image as your mobile or desktop background, allowing you to reflect on the weekly mystery every time you look at your screen! It is also available on our website.

Third, to help us all continue to ponder what we've learned at Mass as we continue on in our week, I will pose a question, or thought, or challenge at the bottom of this page as well. My hope is that you will speak this question or thought on the way home from church or even at the dinner table, and prayerfully respond to it, alone or together with others. Hopefully it will help us Make More of the Mass.

The Lord has so much in store for us this year, and I cannot wait to witness it! Here's to a year of newfound hope and reason for rejoicing!

To Jesus through Mary,
In union with St. Joseph,
Your pastor,

MAKE MORE OF THE MASS

QUESTION:

Do I spend enough time in silence each day
so that when the Lord calls me,
I can hear Him and respond,
"Speak, Your servant is listening"?

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spirituality into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

GROW WITH US

Divorce.

There. We've said it.

To Catholics, the word divorced has a desperate, desolate feeling: cut off from the relationship that was meant to be forever, and now feeling lost and heartbroken, divorced Catholics feel as if they have lost their Church, too. Maybe that's you - or someone you love.

It may feel like it, but it couldn't be further from the truth. The sacraments are still for you. This church - ST. LUKE - is still your parish.

If you're recently divorced and need someone to talk to, or if you've been divorced for awhile and need to figure out how to get on with a real, holy, happy life, we want to help.

Our priests and deacons want to listen AND help you thrive, and our pastoral staff is here to assist you to get started on rebuilding your life. The Church has great counselors through our Family Life Apostolate and Catholic Charities who can help you learn to cope and learn to grieve. The Office of Family Life has amazing programs to help you address the stumbling blocks that have broken your heart and to develop strengths to help you move forward. Our youth ministry and CCD programs can help your children reconnect with the Church and rediscover that God has not abandoned any of you. We even have workshops to help you with annulments.

YOU ARE NOT ALONE.

If you are looking to regain your joy, start with an appointment to meet with one of our priests or deacons by calling the office of the pastor at 985-641-6648.

Christ still has you.

AND THIS IS STILL YOUR CHURCH.

Mandi Troyani, Youth Minister
youth@saintlukeslidell.org
985-641-6572

Youth group is in full swing - and we're having a great and SAFE time growing in faith and developing healthy friendships!

We're listening to teenagers, and they're telling us how lonely they are and how scary the world feels right now. Having the opportunity to meet in a safe environment is more important now than ever.

We meet Wednesdays and Sundays at 7 p.m. in our Youth Center. Want to learn more? Call Mandi and see how your teen can build a holy life and overcome the world through a personal relationship with Christ through the sacraments, through the Holy Eucharist, and through friends who encourage a life worth really living!

TRAINING FOR EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION AND READERS

Basic workshops for new Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion and basic workshops for readers will be presented this Spring by the Office of Worship. Attendance at the workshop for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion is required before a person can be delegated by the Archbishop to serve in this ministry. Visit our website for complete schedule. Call Kay Guard for details.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS BLOOD DRIVE - YOUR DONATION CAN SAVE A FAMILY

A donation of blood does more than save a life - it saves a family. A dad gets one more day to take his son fishing. A mom gets a chance to hold her first granddaughter. A brother can have one more laugh with his little sister. PLEASE. With the pandemic, the blood supply throughout the state is dangerously low. Give your blood - get a COVID antibody test - and a great t-shirt! JANUARY 31, 2021 8 a.m to 1:00 p.m. in our Family Life Center. HEALTHY. HAPPY - HEROIC.

ASH WEDNESDAY - PALM BRANCHES NEEDED

Ash Wednesday is coming, and we need palm branches by February 6, 2021. If your palms are in need of a prune, please drop them by our Family Life Center or in the boxes at the church.

Ash Wednesday Masses

will be at 6 a.m., 8:45 a.m., 12:10 p.m., and 7 p.m.

FROM DEACON PETER

HOW DID LOVE DIE?

When Jesus Christ healed Simon's mother-in-law, she was cured...for a while...and eventually she passed from this life.

Lazarus was revived...for a while...and then he died again to await the true resurrection.

Countless numbers of people were healed by Christ, and eventually they all went to their graves.

As horrible and painful as physical suffering and bodily death are, there is something much worse--spiritual death...love's dying in a person's heart. For Christians, this is worse than bodily death. Why? Because a Christian professes Christ, who is love incarnate. The Word of the Father is love itself, so when a Christian loses love, he/she loses Christ, who is also the source of life.

There is absolutely no lack of things trying to kill the Christ in us. Just look at the times we're living in. Case in point--the masks. There are those who are proponents of them, and there are those who are against them...If there ever were a dividing line for love and hate...As if there weren't enough things in the world to cause discord, discontent, and distrust, the trivial matter of a face mask has suddenly become the next big phenomenon to drive the wedge of division between fellow human beings.

Now let me be clear, I am not saying that we should act with reckless abandon and be cavalier. However, I am saying that the culture would "love" nothing more than to have us believe that we can only live in the extremes of society. For goodness sake, what have we become? When we see someone without a mask, do we just immediately start condemning him/her as evil and uncaring of others? When we see someone with a mask, do we just start thinking of him/her as someone who has bought into the lie and given in to an illegitimate oppressor? When we find out someone close to us has contracted COVID, do we just scream "Unclean! Unclean!" and treat them like they're already dead to us?

My brothers and sisters, I can certainly die from a virus, but that is very different from how I die. I refuse to let a virus dictate how I die. When Joan of Arc was on trial, she was asked about whether she were in the state of grace, she replied, "If I am not, may God put me there; and if I am, may God so keep me." Because my hour will surely come one day, my sincere hope is that how I die would be in a state of grace. But in order to die in grace, I must strive to live in grace.

How do we live in grace? Lead with love. When we encounter someone who has a different understanding than we do on the masks (whether for or against), instead of condemning (maybe even as we're heading to Mass), try saying "Hi, how are you?" or "Have a blessed day." Start first with setting our own heart on the right path. Instead of living in fear and condemnation, reach for the alternative. Why have we become so afraid of death that we fear life?.. Simon's mother-in-law, Lazarus, countless others...None of us is promised tomorrow, and yet how many of us have our funeral arrangements set to go? What are living for? Do we live to die? NO. Remember that a virus, a politician, an insurrection, a freak accident may kill the body, but none has the ability to kill the soul...unless we allow it. Nothing and no one can rob Christ from our heart, but we can certainly abandon Him. So for the sake of heaven, don't let the world (illness, fear, hate, etc) rob us of eternal life...it's not worth it. The pearl of great price is much more valuable than anything this world can offer.
