*BLESSED ARE

FOLLOW THE LAW OF THE LORD*

6th Sunday Ordinary Time

Every great achievement has rules that help us determine when we've reached our goal - and living a holy life is the greatest achievement of all.

In the Old Testament this week, the wise man, Yeshua, son of Eleazar, son of Sira, tells us that all of our decisions are really about life and death. We ought to choose wisely. In the New Testament, St. Paul reminds us that God reveals His wisdom through the Holy Spirit, and in the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus gives us the wisdom of self control, faithfulness, and keeping our promises. to

YOUR HOMEWORK ASSIGNMENT:

Are you a PROMISE-keeper? Do the things you watch and the music you listen to reflect your faithfulness to your spouse? Did you know that God feels the same way about our faithlessness to Him as a spouse feels about the betrayal of a marriage?

SAINT LUKE IS A PARISH ON FIRE!

Last year, our parish embarked on an amazing adventure called FIRE - Family Involved Religious Education - that allows every member of the parish family to grow in faith - from the very young to the very young at heart. FIRE is held once a month on Sundays from 5:00 to 7:00 pm - and always includes dinner!

FROM YOUR PASTOR 2

Hey, St. Luke family!

After finishing my annual retreat, Fr. Andrew Rudmann and I took a hike with our retreat director, and we stopped at a small waterfall. We didn't say anything, merely reflecting on all that happened on retreat and on the goodness of God. An amazing feeling of God's love swept over me as we stood there. There wasn't any music or any words exchanged between us, but God was present in the generosity of the moment. God knew my heart, and He made love and tenderness present to me. I have often thought back on that moment: God didn't have to say anything. He was just there and loved me.

This is the generosity that is the most precious. The silent generosity. The presence of a heart that understands how we feel - and wants to be with us - in the good times - and in the bad.

We often tend to get hung up on two words: generosity and pity. I would even offer that sometimes, we tend to look at one of these words with a positive feeling - and the other with a negative one - and yet, both of these words speak to another powerful word: LOVE.

Generosity is not the giving away of a thing. It's the giving away of ourselves. Sometimes, we show generosity by giving of our belongings or our money. But more often, true generosity is manifested in the giving of a more precious resource: our time. Perhaps the greatest magnanimity is the selfless desire to be present for a friend or a stranger who needs someone to just listen, not with blame or judgment, not with ideas of what they ought to do - but just being willing to sit there in the uncomfortable moment of sadness. Our culture is dying from anxiety, depression, and heartbreak. I think it's because this tender generosity is becoming harder and harder to find.

Pity is a kind of generosity. It's not seeing weakness in someone: it's being able to see human suffering in them, and being willing to suffer with them. One of the most astounding things about our Lord is the way in which He, God fully divine - the God who set the universe in motion - is able to find pity for the suffering of others. You know another word for pity: compassion. One of the most profound examples of the pity of Christ (there are many) is in the seventh chapter of the Gospel of Luke. Jesus comes into a small village, his disciples are with Him, and they see a crowd coming up on the city gates. It's a funeral procession, and in the heart of the crowd, is a wounded, grieving mother walking along with her son's coffin. Just picture it. JESUS is watching a MOTHER grieve for her SON. He makes His way through the crowd, and wraps His arm around her. "Don't cry," He says with pity. And He leans over and touches the coffin, saying to the young man inside, "I tell you, get up." The man sits up and begins talking, probably in shock. And without a word, Jesus presents him back to his mother.

Sit in that moment.

Imagine what must have been going through our Savior's mind. He knows that this story will be HIS OWN MOTHER'S story. So often we forget that the power of pity - of compassion - lies in the fact that we ourselves can identify with the pain in another heart. We may not have the power to return a son to his mother, but we know what her pain feels like. To offer compassion doesn't come from doing something. It comes from being someone. We offer our ability to sit and cry, to sweep, to wash dishes, to do laundry, to cook a meal - all the human things that suffering can make unbearable. Pity is not being better than another person. Pity is about being A PERSON and seeing the beautiful heart in another, crushed and broken, and allowing ourselves to enter into that suffering so that he or she doesn't have to face it alone.

You can do this in a myriad of ways. You can do the work yourself, or you can offer the means for someone else closer to that person to do it. This is true generosity. I pray that we might be a watershed of generosity for others, to bring beauty, pity, tenderness and goodness into the world. Will you help me?

To Jesus, through Mary, in union with Saint Joseph,
Your Pastor,

ENTRANCE: IN CHRIST ALONE

1: In Christ alone my hope is found,
He is my light, my strength, my song;
this cornerstone, this solid ground,
Firm through the fiercest drought and storm.
What heights of love, what depths of peace,
When fears are stilled, when strivings cease!
My Comforter, my all in all,
Here in the love of Christ I stand.

2: In Christ alone! – who took on flesh,
Fullness of God in helpless babe.
This gift of love and righteousness,
Scorned by the ones He came to save:
Till on that cross as Jesus died,
The wrath of God was satisfied –
For every sin on Him was laid;
Here in the death of Christ I live.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. Blessed are they who follow the law of the Lord!

OFFERTORY: #728 EYE HAS NOT SEEN

Eye has not seen, ear has not heard what God has ready for those who love him;
Spirit of love, come, give us the mind of Jesus,
teach us the wisdom of God.

1: When pain and sorrow weigh us down, be near to us, O Lord, forgive the weakness of our faith, and bear us up within your peaceful word.

2: Our lives are but a single breath, we flower and we fade, yet all our days are in your hands, so we return in love what love has made.

3. To those who see with eyes of faith, the Lord is ever near, reflected in the faces of all the poor and lowly of the world.

4. We sing a myst'ry from the past in halls where saints have trod, yet ever new the music rings to Jesus, Living Song of God.

READING 1: Sir 15:15-20

If you choose you can keep the commandments, they will save you;
if you trust in God, you too shall live; he has set before you fire and water to whichever you choose, stretch forth your hand.

Before man are life and death, good and evil, whichever he chooses shall be given him. Immense is the wisdom of the Lord; he is mighty in power, and all-seeing.

The eyes of God are on those who fear him; he understands man's every deed. No one does he command to act unjustly, to none does he give license to sin.

READING 2: 1 Cor 2:6-10

Brothers and sisters:

We speak a wisdom to those who are mature, not a wisdom of this age, nor of the rulers of this age who are passing away.

Rather, we speak God's wisdom, mysterious, hidden, which God predetermined before the ages for our glory, and which none of the rulers of this age knew; for, if they had known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

But as it is written:

What eye has not seen, and ear has not heard, and what has not entered the human heart, what God has prepared for those who love him, this God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit scrutinizes everything, even the depths of God.

GOSPEL: Mt 5:17-37

Jesus said to his disciples:

"Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets. I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. Amen, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or the smallest part of a letter will pass from the law, until all things have taken place. Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven.

But whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the kingdom of heaven. I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven.

“You have heard that it was said to your ancestors, You shall not kill; and whoever kills will be liable to judgment. But I say to you, whoever is angry with brother will be liable to judgment; and whoever says to brother, ‘Raca,’ will be answerable to the Sanhedrin; and whoever says, ‘You fool,’ will be liable to fiery Gehenna.

Therefore, if you bring your gift to the altar, and there recall that your brother has anything against you, leave your gift there at the altar, go first and be reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift.

Settle with your opponent quickly while on the way to court. Otherwise your opponent will hand you over to the judge, and the judge will hand you over to the guard, and you will be thrown into prison. Amen, I say to you, you will not be released until you have paid the last penny.

“You have heard that it was said, You shall not commit adultery. But I say to you, everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart. If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one of your members than to have your whole body thrown into Gehenna. And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one of your members than to have your whole body go into Gehenna.

“It was also said, Whoever divorces his wife must give her a bill of divorce. But I say to you, whoever divorces his wife—unless the marriage is unlawful—causes her to commit adultery, and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

“Again you have heard that it was said to your ancestors, Do not take a false oath, but make good to the Lord all that you vow. But I say to you, do not swear at all; not by heaven, for it is God’s throne; nor by the earth, for it is his footstool; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. Do not swear by your head, for you cannot make a single hair white or black. Let your ‘Yes’ mean ‘Yes,’ and your ‘No’ mean ‘No.’ Anything more is from the evil one.”

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

They ate and had their fill, and what they craved the Lord gave them; They were not disappointed in what they craved.

COMMUNION: 950 TAKE AND EAT

Take and eat; take and eat:
this is my body given up for you.
Take and drink; take and drink:
this is my blood given up for you.

1: I am the Word that spoke and light was made;
I am the seed that died to be reborn;
I am the bread that comes from heav'n above;
I am the vine that fills your cup with joy.

2: I am the way that leads the exile home;
I am the truth that sets the captive free;
I am the life that raises up the dead;
I am your peace, true peace my gift to you.

3: I am the Lamb that takes away your sin;
I am the gate that guards you night and day;
You are my flock: you know the shepherd's voice;
You are my own: your ransom is my blood.

4: I am the cornerstone that God has laid;
A chosen stone and precious in his eyes;
You are God's dwelling place, on me you rest;
Like living stones, a temple for God's praise.

5: I am the light that came into the world;
I am the light that darkness cannot hide;
I am the morning star that never sets;
Lift up your face, in you my light will shine.

6: I am the first and last, the Living One;
I am the Lord who died that you might live;
I am the bridegroom, this my wedding song;
You are my bride, come to the marriage feast.

CLOSING: I SING THE MIGHTY POWER OF GOD

1. I sing the mighty pow'r of God
That made the mountains rise,
That spread the flowing seas abroad,
And built the lofty skies.
I sing the wisdom that ordained
The sun to rule the day;
The moon shines full at his command,
And all the stars obey.

2. I sing the goodness of the Lord
That filled the earth with food;
He formed the creatures with his word,
And then pronounced them good.

Lord, how thy wonders are displayed
Where'er I turn my eye;
If I survey the ground I tread,
Or gaze upon the sky!

3. There's not a plant or flow'r below,
But makes thy glories known;
And clouds arise, and tempests blow
By order from thy throne;
While all that borrows life from thee
Is ever in thy care,
And ev'rywhere that I can be,
Thou, God, are present there.

FAITH FORMATION 6

OUR ARCHBISHOP GREGORY M. AYMOND AND OUR ARCHBISHOP EMERITUS ALFRED C. HUGHES

ARCHBISHOP GREGORY M. AYMOND

The 14th Archbishop of New Orleans, Archbishop Gregory M. Aymond, is the first New Orleans native to serve as archbishop in the 216-year history of the archdiocese.

In 1971, he received his undergraduate degree from St. Joseph Seminary College. In 1975, he received a master's degree in divinity from Notre Dame Seminary and was ordained a priest for the Archdiocese of New Orleans. He was a professor and later rector of St. John Vianney Preparatory School until 1981. He then served as professor of pastoral theology and homiletics and director of pastoral education at Notre Dame Seminary where he later served as president-rector for 14 years. He also served as Executive Director of the archdiocesan Department of Christian Formation and as the archdiocesan Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. In the 1980s, he founded and lead a regular medical mission program to Nicaragua.

Archbishop Aymond was ordained auxiliary bishop of New Orleans in 1997, named Bishop of Austin in 2000, and appointed Archbishop of New Orleans in 2009. He has served as chairman of the U.S. Bishops' Committee on the Protection of Children and Young People and the Committee on Divine Worship. He was also Chair of the Board of the National Catholic Educational Association from 2000-2004. He continues to serve on several US bishops' committees and currently chairs the board of the National Catholic Bioethics Center.

Archbishop Aymond was part of the U.S. bishops' effort that wrote "Coworkers in the Vineyard of the Lord: A Resource for Guiding the Development of Lay Ecclesial Ministry." That document was approved by the U.S. bishops in 2005 and was the impetus behind the Institute of Lay Ecclesial Ministry formation program that provides lay men and women who serve in ministerial capacity throughout the archdiocese the same formation experience as our seminarians and diaconate candidates so that they can work well with our clergy and better serve the people of God.

He is responsible for two beautiful books: Facing Forgiveness: A Catholic's Guide to Letting Go of Anger and Welcoming Reconciliation, and Courageous Moral Leadership: Keynote Address, CACE Annual Meeting,

Four Archbishops of New Orleans: (L-R) Hughes, Schulte, Hannan, and Aymond

ARCHBISHOP EMERITUS ALFRED C. HUGHES, STD

Archbishop Hughes was ordained a priest for the Archdiocese of Boston in 1957. After serving in two parishes, he secured a doctorate in Spiritual Theology at the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome. He then served sequentially as professor, spiritual director, and rector of St John's Seminary in Boston. Pope John Paul II appointed him Auxiliary Bishop of Boston in 1981; Bishop of Baton Rouge in 1993; and then Archbishop of New Orleans in 2002. Since retirement in 2009, Archbishop Hughes has served as Adjunct Professor and Adjunct Spiritual Director in residence.

Despite being 90 (yes, we said ninety), he still cycles to Audubon Park in New Orleans every Sunday — "That's the safest day to ride in the city!" — swims daily during the summer in the Notre Dame Seminary pool, provides ongoing spiritual direction for seminarians, priests, and religious — "I've had to cap it at 30" — and spends every Friday afternoon sitting and praying with the residents of Project Lazarus, the archdiocesan shelter and ministry to homeless men and women with AIDS.

Archbishop Emeritus Hughes is responsible for several inspiring books on the spiritual life among them: Spiritual Masters: Living a Life of Prayer in the Catholic Tradition, Priests in Love with God and Eager to Witness the Gospel, Toward a Civilization of Life and Love, and Today's Deacon: Contemporary Issues and Cross Currents.

WE ARE LOOKING FOR AMAZING CATHOLIC DADS AND MOMS WHO WANT TO LEAD THEIR CHILDREN TO BECOMING HEROES

CONQUEST and CHALLENGE are a youth ministry program that has proven to be successful in forming young people with a deeper - LASTING - faith. We're looking to form two groups - Dads and Sons and Moms and Daughters. CONQUEST and CHALLENGE provide an opportunity for boys and girls to grow in knowledge and love for their Catholic faith. There is a structured, flexible curriculum, with themes following the Church seasons: Ordinary Time, Advent, Lent and Easter. Service projects are also built into the curriculum. These projects involve weekly preparation and then carrying out the service as a group. The projects are imagined and put into place by the children and their parents. This enhances the opportunity for small group mentoring & peer ministry. Adult leaders work with the youth leaders to form and mentor them.

Are you interested in learning more? We can provide the answers! Contact Fred Zoller or Jaime Standiford at our office 985-641-6429 ext. 207, OR visit us at www.saintlukeslidell.org/conquest OR www.saintlukeslidell.org/challenge
