

SAINT LUKE THE EVANGELIST CATHOLIC CHURCH

February 26, 2023

1st Sunday of Lent

You Shall Not Put the LORD YOUR GOD to the Test
MATTHEW 4:7

1st Sunday of Lent

Sin wounds our ability to trust - and to be trusted - the things most necessary for LOVE to really grow. This Lent, God invites us to rediscover the power of trust - and to allow ourselves to be loved.

In the Old Testament, we go back to the place where as humans we first allowed doubt to creep into our hearts. In the New Testament, St. Paul teaches us that the trust that Adam lost, Jesus makes possible again. And in the Gospel, Jesus shows us what it means to truly trust God with all our minds, hearts, souls, and strength - even in the face of temptation.

YOUR HOMEWORK ASSIGNMENT:

Where does doubt most affect you? When you struggle to trust in God, how do you fight off that temptation? This week, go out of your way to ask God to show you how you can truly grow closer to Him. Choose a Lenten sacrifice that helps you develop real trust in God.

Welcome to Saint Luke!

VOLUNTEERS SHOW THAT SAINT LUKE IS A PARISH IN LOVE WITH CHRIST

We know that amazing things happen when our parishioners pray for and serve each other. God's given you beautiful gifts that are unique and unrepeatable. Ready to make a difference? Our PARISHIONER LIAISON can connect you into the heart of our parish with just a simple survey. Tell us what you love to do, and we'll show you how to set the world on fire!

SAINT LUKE IS A PARISH ON FIRE!

Last year, our parish embarked on an amazing adventure called FIRE - Family Involved Religious Education - that allows every member of the parish family to grow in faith - from the very young to the very young at heart. FIRE is held once a month on Sundays from 5:00 to 7:00 pm - and always includes dinner!

FROM YOUR PASTOR 2

Hey, St. Luke family!

As we begin Lent this year, I wanted to take a moment to offer some suggestions that you might have never considered as a sincere option for bettering your journey to holiness. If you're looking for interesting ways to grow this Lent, visit:

www.saintlukeslidell.org/lent

+ PRAYER+

Pray with your family before you go to work. Pick up a new prayer habit this Lent: bless your children every day before you go to work. Catholic parents have a responsibility to pray for their children - and a quick blessing with a big hug can make a big difference.

Go to Confession with your spouse. Pizza and Penance (or Pasta and Penance) can be a great date night tradition! Go once a month.

Go to an Adoration Hour for someone you know. There's a long list of people you know who need prayers. Visit the Lord for someone and then send them a note to say that you have been praying for them.

Read a saintly story. Turn off the TV, the screens, and borrow a beautiful Catholic book from your local library. Not sure what to choose? We have a list of a few books available at the local library at www.saintlukeslidell.org/saintlystories

+ ALMSGIVING +

That powder blue tuxedo from 1984, is desperately needed by a crazy teenager for a costume party. Let it go. There's this thing we do... we hold on to clothes that we're sure "will come back in style" or that "I'll fit back into it someday." Keeping these clothes - or the other unnecessary things in our houses - just clutter our lives and don't give anyone else any pleasure. Give them away. Christian Community Concern at 2515 Carey Street can give away your gently used clothes to someone who needs them or sell them and use the money to bless another person.

Put that coffee to real work. Instead of buying that $5 coffee, put it into a jar, then offer those donations to Good Sams. Your little sacrifice can help turn a person's life around.

+ FASTING +

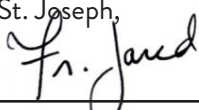

Turn off the phone. This Lent, give your family and friends the gift of your true presence without the phone distracting you. Set boundary limits on your screen time.

Give up the close parking space. Park in the back of the parking lot and say a prayer for the people around you as you walk to the store.

Shower without hot (or use only lukewarm) water. Be willing to offer a little hardship to Jesus in exchange for the suffering for others.

Those may seem pretty simple, but believe it or not, they may be more difficult than you think. The goal isn't to make your sacrifices, prayers, and generosity painful - it's to make you HOLY. Choose the sacrifice that you think will help you draw closer to the Lord who sacrificed everything for us.

To Jesus through Mary,
In union with St. Joseph,
Your pastor,

ENTRANCE: #479 LORD, WHO THROUGHOUT THESE FORTY DAYS

1. Lord, who throughout these forty days
For us did fast and pray,
Teach us to overcome our sins,
And close by you to stay.

2. As you with Satan did contend
And did the victory win,
O give us strength in you to fight,
In you to conquer sin.

3. As you did hunger and did thirst,
So teach us, gracious Lord,
To die to self, and only live
By your most holy word.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned.

OFFERTORY: BE STILL, MY SOUL

1. Be still, my soul-- the Lord is on thy side!
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
Leave to thy God to order and provide--
In ev'ry change he faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul-- thy best, thy heav'nly friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.

2. Be still, my soul-- thy God doth undertake
To guide the future as he has the past;
Thy hope, thy confidence let nothing shake--
All now mysterious shall be bright at last.
Be still, my soul-- the waves and winds still know
His voice who rules them while he dwelt below.

READING 1: Gn 2:7-9; 3:1-7

The LORD God formed man out of the clay of the ground and blew into his nostrils the breath of life, and so man became a living being.

Then the LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and placed there the man whom he had formed. Out of the ground the LORD God made various trees grow that were delightful to look at and good for food, with the tree of life in the middle of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

Now the serpent was the most cunning of all the animals that the LORD God had made. The serpent asked the woman, "Did God really tell you not to eat from any of the trees in the garden?" The woman answered the serpent: "We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden; it is only about the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden that God said, 'You shall not eat it or even touch it, lest you die.'" But the serpent said to the woman: "You certainly will not die! No, God knows well that the moment you eat of it your eyes will be opened and you will be like gods who know what is good and what is evil."

The woman saw that the tree was good for food, pleasing to the eyes, and desirable for gaining wisdom. So she took some of its fruit and ate it; and she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized that they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.

READING 2: Rom 5:12-19

Brothers and sisters:

Through one man sin entered the world, and through sin, death, and thus death came to all men, inasmuch as all sinned— for up to the time of the law, sin was in the world, though sin is not accounted when there is no law. But death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin after the pattern of the trespass of Adam, who is the type of the one who was to come. But the gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one, the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many. And the gift is not like the result of the one who sinned. For after one sin there was the judgment that brought condemnation; but the gift, after many transgressions, brought acquittal.

For if, by the transgression of the one, death came to reign through that one, how much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of justification come to reign in life through the one Jesus Christ. In conclusion, just as through one transgression condemnation came upon all, so, through one righteous act, acquittal and life came to all. For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so, through the obedience of the one, the many will be made righteous.

GOSPEL: Mt 4:1-11

At that time Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil. He fasted for forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was hungry. The tempter approached and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become loaves of bread."

He said in reply,
"It is written: One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God."

Then the devil took him to the holy city, and made him stand on the parapet of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down. For it is written:

He will command his angels concerning you and with their hands they will support you, lest you dash your foot against a stone."

Jesus answered him,
"Again it is written,
You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test."

Then the devil took him up to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in their magnificence, and he said to him, "All these I shall give to you, if you will prostrate yourself and worship me."

At this, Jesus said to him,
"Get away, Satan!
It is written:
The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve."

Then the devil left him and, behold, angels came and ministered to him.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

"One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God."

COMMUNION: # 478 RETURN TO GOD

[Refrain]

Return to God with all your heart,
the source of grace and mercy;
come seek the tender faithfulness of God.

1. Now the time of grace has come,
the day of salvation;
come and learn now the way of our God.

2. I will take your heart of stone and place a heart within you,
a heart of compassion and love.

3. If you break the chains of oppression, if you set the prisoner free;
if you share your bread with the hungry,
give protection to the lost,
give a shelter to the homeless,
clothe the naked in your midst,
then your light shall break forth like the dawn.

THE WAY OF THE CROSS FOR FAMILIES

The Way of the Cross is a beautiful Catholic tradition, sometimes called the Stations of the Cross. That tradition holds that Mary visited all the places where her beloved Son suffered and died, pondering in her heart the mercy and the love of a God who would never leave us to suffer and die alone and who died on the cross to give us a chance at an eternal life. After the Roman emperor Constantine legalized Christianity around 312 A.D., the via dolorosa ("The Painful Road") was marked with 'stations.' St. Jerome lived in Bethlehem in the 400s and would lead crowds of people down the road, teaching about what happened to Jesus there.

The Lord's passion is gruesome even for adults, so explaining it to children might seem very hard. The secret is to know when your child is ready to discuss the crucifixion - and never teaching about the death of Jesus without emphasizing that the story ends with His resurrection. Always be sure to use age appropriate language, and if your child isn't old enough to watch The Passion of the Christ, then you can assume that he or she isn't ready to hear the details either. The best place to begin is to explain sin - and how it affects us. The story of Jesus hanging on a tree begins with Adam and Eve's disobedience at another tree. Explain to your children about the sorrow and danger of disobedience - that there are things that are simply bad, and that they hurt God's heart and wound us, too. Sin is more than a mistake. It's the intentional doing of bad things that we know are bad no matter who gets hurt. Once your child is old enough to understand the concepts of suffering and unfairness, you'll be able to begin explaining how sin and Easter are related. At that point - especially when your child understands that death happens - you can begin pointing out that Jesus died on the Cross to save us. Don't be afraid of questions - and make sure that you get your answers from solid places with good Catholic foundations. FIRE nights will help empower you to discuss these difficult topics.

THE STATIONS OF THE CROSS FOR CHILDREN:

+1+ Jesus is condemned to death.

Jesus is blamed for things He didn't do, but instead of fighting back, He chooses not to hurt the people who hurt Him.

Pray: Jesus, thank You for being so gentle. I sometimes get angry and lash out. Help me to forgive and not to blame others for what they do not do.

+2+ Jesus accepts the cross

The cross is big and heavy. It is hard for Jesus to carry it, but He never complains, because He loves us.

Pray: Sometimes schoolwork or chores are hard for me, and I complain or put them off. Jesus, help me do things out of love.

+3+ Jesus falls the first time.

Jesus is hurt so he falls down, but He gets up and keeps going.

Pray: When things are hard for me, Jesus, please help me be strong. Help me remember that You are with me.

+4+ Jesus meets his Mother.

Jesus is very tired and hurt, and His Mother never leaves Him. She prays for Him and trusts God even through hardship.

Pray: Jesus, when I am sick or sad, my parents love me just like Mary loves you. Help me to love them and be good to them as you are to Mary.

+5+ Simon of Cyrene helps Jesus.

Simon is a stranger, but the soldiers pull him to help Jesus, because the Cross is so heavy.

Pray: Jesus, sometimes I do not want to help others. I want to play or do something else. Help me to see that my help can make something hard easier for my family and friends.

+6+ Veronica wipes Jesus' face.

Veronica is in the crowd and sees how dirty and bruised Jesus' face is and takes pity on Him. She is very sorry for Him and runs to wipe His face so He can see.

Pray: Jesus I want to love You like Veronica. Help me to always be brave and help You even when things are hard.

+7+ Jesus falls a second time.

Jesus falls again, because he is so weak, but He knows He has to go on. He loves us so much!

Pray: Jesus, sometimes I try to do things and fail. Help me to remember that You are proud when I do not to give up.

+8+ Jesus meets the women of Jerusalem.

There are people who are sad, because Jesus is suffering. But Jesus doesn't want them to cry: He wants them to change their hearts and be gentle like Him.

Pray: Jesus, when my friends are sad or hurting, help me to comfort them and love them just like You do.

+9+ Jesus falls a third time.

Jesus keeps going, but the soldiers push Him and hit Him. The crowd around Him is very mean.

Pray: Jesus, sometimes people around me pick on others or call other children names. Help me to be brave and stand up for others just like You, and pray for the ones who hurt us.

+10+ Jesus is stripped of his clothes.

To be without clothes in front of everyone is scary. Jesus is humiliated.

Pray: Jesus, You loved me so much and were not ashamed of me. Help me to defend You and to remember what You did for me.

+11+ Jesus is crucified.

The soldiers hang Jesus on the cross. Even though He is in so much pain, Jesus forgives everyone who hurt Him.

Pray: Jesus, I know how much it must have hurt. Please comfort all the people I know who are hurting or alone.

+12+ Jesus dies on the cross.

God is never far from Jesus, even when He is on the cross. When He dies, the ground shakes and the sky is very dark even though it is about 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Pray: Jesus, You have loved me from the moment You thought of me. Help me to love others the way You love me, and to pray every day at 3 p.m. for those who need You.

+13+ Jesus' body is taken down from the cross.

A man named Joseph of Arimathea gives Jesus his own burial place. It was a very brave and generous thing to do.

Pray: Jesus, there are people around me who don't have a home or food to eat. Help me to take care of them, too.

+14+ Jesus is laid in the tomb.

Jesus' friends were sad. But Jesus will rise on Easter morning, and they will be happy again! We celebrate Easter Day - and gather together to thank God at the Holy Mass each Sunday!

Pray: Jesus, I am so happy that You came back for us! Help me to remember that no matter how hard things can seem that You always have a good plan for my life!

WE ARE LOOKING FOR AMAZING CATHOLIC DADS AND MOMS WHO WANT TO LEAD THEIR CHILDREN TO BECOMING HEROES

CONQUEST and CHALLENGE are a youth ministry program that has proven to be successful in forming young people with a deeper - LASTING - faith. We're looking to form two groups - Dads and Sons and Moms and Daughters. CONQUEST and CHALLENGE provide an opportunity for boys and girls to grow in knowledge and love for their Catholic faith. There is a structured, flexible curriculum, with themes following the Church seasons: Ordinary Time, Advent, Lent and Easter. Service projects are also built into the curriculum. These projects involve weekly preparation and then carrying out the service as a group. The projects are imagined and put into place by the children and their parents. This enhances the opportunity for small group mentoring & peer ministry. Adult leaders work with the youth leaders to form and mentor them.

Are you interested in learning more? We can provide the answers! Contact Fred Zoller or Jaime Standiford at our office 985-641-6429 ext. 207, OR visit us at www.saintlukeslidell.org/conquest OR www.saintlukeslidell.org/challenge

PARISH LIFE + ARCHDIOCESE 8

FOUR NIGHT MISSION AT SAINT LUKE: GRIEVING AT THE FOOT OF THE CROSS

Have you ever wondered why a loving God would permit suffering, sin, sickness, and death? For a lot of us, it's the greatest stumbling block to developing real trust in the fatherhood of God. The story of the Prodigal Son is a story about a forgiving Father not about a son, and The Son hanging on a cross is the greatest reminder of the tender mercy of a Father worth trusting.

For four nights we're going to dig deep into how and why grief is part of the human condition, how Christ has come to redeem us and give us the power to make something holy out of suffering, how to discover the gentle fatherhood of God even in the midst of great suffering, and how we can find hope in difficult and painful moments. There will be beautiful music by candlelight for prayer and reflection.

MARCH 14 - 17, 2023 at 7 pm in the Church
Speakers: Dcn. Warren Berault, Jason Angelette,
Jeannie Callaway, Fr. Peter Pham

2023 ARHCIOCESE OF NOLA MEN'S CONFERENCE

The Conference will be held at St. Catherine of Siena in Metairie on March 4, 2023, 8:30 am - 3 pm. "As Christ Loved the Church." This one day event is a great present to give the men in your family! It includes Adoration, Confession, Mass with Archbishop Aymond, talks from three nationally known and very well respected leaders - MICHAEL "GOMER" GORMLEY - a popular national speaker and producer of the "Catching Foxes" podcast, SAM BLAIR - Former Navy SEAL and Co-Founder of the Frassati Company, an executive coaching and consulting company helping business leaders to build authentic Catholic cultures in their enterprises, and DR. F. DEKARLOS BLACKMON - the Secretariat Director of Life, Charity and Justice in the Diocese of Austin. Anyone who wants to support the cause of building men of solid Christian character by purchasing group tickets (10 or more) will receive $10 OFF per ticket they purchase! Regular admission is $45 (meals are included!) and Student Admission is $20. But if you are a man looking to strengthen your soul, and the cost is too high - COME ANYWAY. Pay whatever you can spare in the donation section.
