3rd Sunday of Lent

We know that this is TRULY
the SAVIOR
of the world

3rd Sunday of Lent

Water. It's like nothing else on Earth. Nothing in the chemical world has the power to support life and make a land flourish like water.

The readings this weekend focus on how much our need for Jesus is like our need for water. In the Old Testament, God provides water when the people are thirsty in the desert. In the New Testament, St. Paul reminds us that the Holy Spirit is poured into our spirits because of Christ. And in the Gospel, Jesus promises His love poured out for us like water that gives us new life - regardless of what our lives have been like before.

YOUR HOMEWORK ASSIGNMENT:

What's spiritually dry in your life? Is your prayer suffering? Are your relationships feeling like they need Jesus' love poured into them? This week, focus on asking Jesus to pour His spirit into your heart at the beginning and end of every day.

FROM YOUR PASTOR 2

Hey, St. Luke family!

How's your Lenten journey going? Are you making progress? No? Feeling a little discouraged? Don't be. Lent is the season when we decide to become either victims of what we can't change or saints following a Savior who can change anything. This weekend's Gospel is a powerful reminder that Jesus has a heart for those of us on the struggle bus. It means a lot that the most perfect Man who ever lived has a heart for us in all of our imperfection. All He wants us to do is show up. It's not what we've been that interests Him. The God who set Creation into motion is fascinated by the potential of what we can become.

The story of the Samaritan woman is our story. And Jesus is her Savior and ours. The Samaritans were a lost bunch. The Jews who had gone to the Promised Land with Moses heard God say that the Commandments would help them grow their holiness. But it didn't take long for them to lose sight of those virtues. They had seen miracle after miracle, but now they didn't want to stand out among other nations. Some of them began to intermarry with pagans who worshipped other gods - even gods who demanded human sacrifices. Over time, they began to worship in the wrong places, hanging out with the wrong crowd. Eventually, they became less "Jewish." Some of them became the Samaritans. The Jews who considered themselves "really" Jewish looked down their noses at them, and they became enemies instead of kinsmen.

Among the virtues they lost - and there were a lot for both Jews and Samaritans - were the sanctity of marriage and the protection of the dignity of women. When a woman without a family was abandoned by her husband, her life became an instant tragedy. If she had no one to protect or provide for her, she would become penniless and homeless. Some women looked for help anywhere they could - and many men were willing to take advantage of them. It wasn't uncommon for a desperate woman to take up the life of a mistress rather than to starve. People can be really mean, too. Everyone would overlook her circumstance and judge her lifestyle. Other women - especially wives sure that she would be after their husbands - would avoid her.

We're told that Jesus came to a well in a Samaritan town, but it was more like He made a beeline straight there - to find a lost daughter in a lost country - at Jacob's well. Jacob was Isaac's son (the son of Abraham) and the father of all the Jewish tribes. (Gen 25:19-35:29) Jacob met the love of his life at a well pretty much like it. That well represented the little that was left of the days when they were a people with dignity and a heritage. Jesus had come there on purpose. Even the time of day matters. In a desert town, noon is the worst heat of the day. Most women would come to the well in the cool of the morning. But Jesus knows that this woman is going to show up at the worst time of the day when there's no chance that she'll have to face the looks and the comments. And He's waiting. Jacob's Son is waiting for this girl. It isn't long before she shows up, dragging her jar to the well. Alone. Without friends. Without help. She's probably taken aback to see a Guy sitting there. It's easy to tell He's a Jew: He's wearing traditional Jewish clothing and probably a traditional Rabbi's shawl. All the anger and all the abandonment come up to the surface, and she's primed for a fight. He'd better not say anything to me, because I am just not going to take it! Let Him get His own water!

But you and I know what's going to happen. Jesus is going to do the unheard of - He's going to give her a new life. He's going to tell her that He knows where she's been and that He simply doesn't care. What He wants is to give her - and her lost nation - the opportunity to become the people they were always meant to be.

So how about you? As bad as things can seem right now, just know that Jesus is making a beeline to meet you wherever you are - to give you a new life. He doesn't care where you've been. All He wants is to teach you a new future. What have you got to lose? Come to the well.

To Jesus through Mary,
In union with St. Joseph,
Your pastor, Fr. Jared

ENTRANCE: I HEARD THE VOICE OF JESUS SAY

1. I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"Come unto me and rest;
Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
Thy head upon my breast."
I came to Jesus as I was,
So weary, worn and sad;
I found in him a resting place,
And he has made me glad.

2. I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"Behold, I freely give
The living water; thirsty one,
Stoop down, and drink, and live."
I came to Jesus, and I drank
Of that life-giving stream;
My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
And now I live in him..

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

OFFERTORY: COME, THOU FOUNT

1. Come, thou fount of ev'ry blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace.
Streams of mercy, never ceasing,
call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious sonnet,
sung by flaming tongues above.
Praise the mount, I'm fixed upon it,
mount of God's unchanging love.

2. Here I raise my Ebenezer, hither by thy help I'm come,
and I hope, by thy good pleasure,
safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger,
wand'ring from the fold of God.
He, to rescue me from danger,
interposed his precious blood..

READING 1: Ex 17:3-7

In those days, in their thirst for water, the people grumbled against Moses, saying, "Why did you ever make us leave Egypt? Was it just to have us die here of thirst with our children and our livestock?" So Moses cried out to the LORD, "What shall I do with this people? a little more and they will stone me!" The LORD answered Moses, "Go over there in front of the people, along with some of the elders of Israel, holding in your hand, as you go, the staff with which you struck the river. I will be standing there in front of you on the rock in Horeb. Strike the rock, and the water will flow from it for the people to drink." This Moses did, in the presence of the elders of Israel. The place was called Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarreled there and tested the LORD, saying, "Is the LORD in our midst or not?"

READING 2: Rom 5:1-2, 5-8

Brothers and sisters:

Since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God. And hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. For Christ, while we were still helpless, died at the appointed time for the ungodly. Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good person one might even find courage to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us.

GOSPEL: Jn 4:5-42

Jesus came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there. Jesus, tired from his journey, sat down there at the well. It was about noon.

A woman of Samaria came to draw water.

Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." His disciples had gone into the town to buy food. The Samaritan woman said to him, "How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?" — For Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans. — Jesus answered and said to her,

"If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink, 'you would have asked him and he would have given you living water."

The woman said to him, "Sir, you do not even have a bucket and the cistern is deep; where then can you get this living water?"

Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us this cistern and drank from it himself with his children and his flocks?"

Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life."

PLEASE PRAY FOR THESE INTENTIONS:

POPE FRANCIS: For victims of abuse

We pray for those who have suffered harm from members of the Church; may they find within the Church herself a concrete response to their pain and suffering.

FATHER JARED: For those who protect the innocent

We pray for those who work to heal children and adults who have been abused emotionally, physically, or sexually.

LITURGY READINGS + MUSIC 4

The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may not be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water." Jesus said to her, "Go call your husband and come back."

The woman answered and said to him, "I do not have a husband." Jesus answered her, "You are right in saying, 'I do not have a husband.' For you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true."

The woman said to him, "Sir, I can see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain; but you people say that the place to worship is in Jerusalem." Jesus said to her, "Believe me, woman, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You people worship what you do not understand; we worship what we understand, because salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and truth; and indeed the Father seeks such people to worship him. God is Spirit, and those who worship him must worship in Spirit and truth."

The woman said to him, "I know that the Messiah is coming, the one called the Christ; when he comes, he will tell us everything." Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one speaking with you."

At that moment his disciples returned, and were amazed that he was talking with a woman, but still no one said, "What are you looking for?" or "Why are you talking with her?"

The woman left her water jar and went into the town and said to the people, "Come see a man who told me everything I have done. Could he possibly be the Christ?"

They went out of the town and came to him. Meanwhile, the disciples urged him, "Rabbi, eat." But he said to them, "I have food to eat of which you do not know." So the disciples said to one another, "Could someone have brought him something to eat?" Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of the one who sent me and to finish his work. Do you not say, 'In four months the harvest will be here'? I tell you, look up and see the fields ripe for the harvest. The reaper is already receiving payment and gathering crops for eternal life, so that the sower and reaper can rejoice together. For here the saying is verified that 'One sows and another reaps.' I sent you to reap what you have not worked for; others have done the work, and you are sharing the fruits of their work."

Many of the Samaritans of that town began to believe in him because of the word of the woman who testified, "He told me everything I have done." When the Samaritans came to him, they invited him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. Many more began to believe in him because of his word, and they said to the woman, "We no longer believe because of your word; for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the savior of the world."

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

"For anyone who drinks it, says the Lord, the water I shall give will become in him a spring welling up to eternal life."

COMMUNION: THE KING OF LOVE MY SHEPHERD IS

1. The King of love my shepherd is,
Whose goodness fails me never;
I nothing lack if I am his,
And he is mine forever.

2. Where streams of living water flow
With gentle care he leads me,
And where the verdant pastures grow,
With heav'nly food he feeds me.

3. Perverse and foolish I have strayed,
But yet in love he sought me,
And on his shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

5. You spread a table in my sight
Your saving grace bestowing;
And O what joy and true delight
From your pure chalice flowing!

6. And so through all the length of days
Your goodness fails me never:
Good Shepherd, may I sing your praise
Within your house forever..

FAITH FORMATION 6

WALKING THROUGH HOLY WEEK AS A FAMILY

Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday, Holy Week, is the most sacred time of year. During this special time, we enter into the passion of Christ — his crucifixion, death and resurrection — through liturgical celebration and personal conversion. While the season of Lent is a very important time in the Church, it is helpful to remember that our Lenten practices (prayer, fasting and almsgiving) are meant as preparation for the three days of the Triduum.

WHAT IS THE TRIDUUM?

The three days of the Triduum are counted as the Hebrews counted their days, from dusk to dusk. Lent officially ends and the Triduum begins at dusk on Holy Thursday and continues through dusk on Easter Sunday. Because we cannot separate Jesus' death from his resurrection, the Church teaches that the Triduum is really one celebration that lasts for three days. However, in the liturgy, each day has its unique qualities and different focuses.

HOLY THURSDAY

So when he had washed their feet [and] put his garments back on and reclined at table again, he said to them, "Do you realize what I have done for you?" ~ John 13:12

The evening Mass on Holy Thursday begins the Sacred Triduum. On this night we remember the Last Supper and celebrate the institution of the Eucharist and the Sacrament of Holy Orders. At the end of the liturgy, the sanctuary is stripped clean in preparation for the most somber of feasts, Good Friday.

Family Faith Activity: Talk about how Jesus is really present in holy Communion and how sharing in his body strengthens us to become the Body of Christ and to follow him each day.

GOOD FRIDAY

He said, "It is finished." And bowing his head, he handed over the spirit. ~ John 19:30

Good Friday is a somber remembrance of Jesus' crucifixion and death on the cross. It is a day of fasting and penance and a time to examine all of the places in our lives where we fail to follow Christ and fall into sin. Good Friday is not merely a commemoration of a historical event; rather, Christ's sacrificial death on the cross, along with his glorious resurrection, comprise the heart of the Christian faith.

Good Friday is not a Mass; holy Communion that is distributed had been consecrated on Holy Thursday and kept in the tabernacle for adoration. Also, many parishes offer Stations of the Cross on Good Friday.

Family Faith Activity: Pray the Lord's Prayer at bedtime on this night in remembrance of Christ's gift for all of salvation.

EASTER VIGIL

Now in the place where he had been crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb, in which no one had yet been buried. So they laid Jesus there. ~ John 19:41-42

The Easter Vigil is the restoration of the early Church's tradition as the great celebration of adult baptism and confirmation. It is the high point in the liturgical year. The vigil begins in darkness (usually outside) and the long procession of candlelight that enlivens the church reminds us that Jesus is the light of the world who has conquered all darkness and death. The Paschal candle that is lit at the Easter Vigil will remain in the church throughout the year as a sign of Christ's death and resurrection.

Family Faith Activity: During the day on Holy Saturday, spend some time as a family talking about the Paschal Mystery — Jesus' crucifixion, death and resurrection. Take a walk around your neighborhood looking for signs of new life in springtime. Talk about how Jesus rising to new life is truly transformative and life-changing.

EASTER SUNDAY

Celebrate the risen Lord at Mass with the singing of the Gloria and alleluias, the renewal of baptismal vows, a sprinkling with Easter water and receiving the Eucharist. The time you spend on your Holy Week preparations will make Easter Sunday more meaningful for the whole family!

3 SIMPLE WAYS TO CELEBRATE HOLY WEEK

- + Give yourself (and your family) the gift of quiet time for prayer and reflection in front of your home altar early in the morning or late at night.
- + Move your crucifix to the front door (or the door you use most) as a remembrance of Jesus' sacrifice on the cross.
- + During Holy Week, turn off your car radio and pray silently while driving.

WE ARE LOOKING FOR AMAZING CATHOLIC DADS AND MOMS WHO WANT TO LEAD THEIR CHILDREN TO BECOMING HEROES

CONQUEST and CHALLENGE are a youth ministry program that has proven to be successful in forming young people with a deeper faith. We're looking to form two groups - Dads and Sons and Moms and Daughters. CONQUEST and CHALLENGE provide an opportunity for boys and girls to grow in knowledge and love for their Catholic faith. There is a structured, flexible curriculum, with themes following the Church seasons: Ordinary Time, Advent, Lent and Easter. Service projects are also built into the curriculum. These projects involve weekly preparation and then carrying out the service as a group. The projects are imagined and put into place by the children and their parents. This enhances the opportunity for small group mentoring & peer ministry. Adult leaders work with the youth leaders to form and mentor them.

Are you interested in learning more? We can provide the answers! Contact Fred Zoller or Jaime Standiford at our office 985-641-6429 ext. 207, OR visit us at www.saintlukeslidell.org/conquest OR www.saintlukeslidell.org/challenge

PARISH LIFE + ARCHDIOCESE 8

FOUR NIGHT MISSION AT SAINT LUKE: GRIEVING AT THE FOOT OF THE CROSS

Have you ever wondered why a loving God would permit suffering, sin, sickness, and death? For a lot of us, it's the greatest stumbling block to developing real trust in the fatherhood of God. The story of the Prodigal Son is a story about a forgiving Father not about a son, and The Son hanging on a cross is the greatest reminder of the tender mercy of a Father worth trusting.

For four nights we're going to dig deeply into how and why grief is part of the human condition, how Christ has come to redeem us and give us the power to make something holy out of suffering, how to discover the gentle fatherhood of God even in the midst of great suffering, and how we can find hope in difficult and painful moments. There will be beautiful music by candlelight for prayer and reflection.

MARCH 14 - 17, 2023 at 7 pm in the Church
Speakers: Dcn. Warren Berault, Jason Angelette,
Jeannie Callaway, Fr. Peter Pham
