Transfiguration of the Lord

Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord

This weekend's readings are The Father's profound response to the question that plagues all of our hearts: How do I know Who to trust?

In the first reading, Daniel attests to a reality: Christ has been The Son always. In the second reading, St. Peter tells us that he and the other apostles were witnesses to why Christ is King and worthy of our trust, and in the Gospel, the Father gives us an answer to the question in His own voice. THIS, He says to us, IS MY BELOVED SON.

YOUR HOMEWORK ASSIGNMENT:

On what do you rely as the foundation for your decision-making and for your moral concerns? This week, sit and think quietly upon this chapter of Matthew's Gospel and ask God to give you the wisdom to listen to and trust in His Son.

Welcome to Saint Luke!

FROM YOUR PASTOR 2

Hey, St. Luke family,

As you know, our awesome seminarian, Seth Smith, has been doing some letters to our community in this spot so that we can learn a little about what it means to go through the formation process to become a priest. I know we said 4 installments for this series about the importance of learning philosophy as we prepare to become priests - but it was too good, and we decided it needed just one more. As lay people become great leaders in their lives and families, they need to know how to ask all the great questions - and answer them, too! I hope you'll take the time to read and follow along. Seth's last article ends on page 6 on the Faith Formation page. Keep him in your prayers as he starts his first week back among our brothers at the seminary.

To Jesus through Mary, in union with St. Joseph, Your pastor

Fr. Jared

PHILOSOPHY FOR BEGINNERS - PART 5

Introduction

Well, we've finally made it to the last part in the series. By the time you will be reading this, I will already be gone. I just wanted to say how much I have enjoyed writing these articles for all of you, and I am glad to hear that you have all learned so much. We have definitely covered a lot. In part 1, you learned about what philosophy actually is and why it's important to our faith as Catholics. In part 2, you learned about how to view reality through realism and that humans are composed of both body and soul. In part 3, you learned about metaphysics and how we can use that to know God exists. In part 4, you learned about ethics and the natural law. You also learned about the purpose of political philosophy and what the "four causes" of the polis (ideal city or state) are. I'm proud of all of you because you guys learned all of this in only five weeks, but I had two years! I was lucky enough to have a course on each of these subjects, but you were stuck with me and these short articles. Now, the last bit of philosophy I will teach you will be about a sensitive subject, but I think it's important for every Catholic to know about. Today we're going to talk about evil. Many people struggle with the problem of evil. If God is supposed to be good, then why is there so much evil, pain, and suffering present in the world? Why would God create a world with so much evil present in it? These are questions that many people ask in our world today. The problem of evil causes several people to stop believing in God altogether. In this article, I will navigate you through the problem of evil, and I will explain how it does not contradict the existence of a good God. As usual, I will be using my lecture notes from Dr. James Jacobs, and I am also using his book Seat of Wisdom: An Introduction to Philosophy in the Catholic Tradition.

The Definition of Evil

As I am sure you have already figured out, I like definitions. It is always important to define the terms that you are talking about especially when it comes to philosophy. Before I begin explaining the problem of evil, I have to define evil. Evil is a privation of due being. Evil is defined in this way because evil does not actually exist. It is a privation or lack of being, and non-being is nothing. Evil is simply the absence of goodness. Evil is a parasite of the good. It is a lack of due being though because it is not simply just a lack of goodness in anything. For example, a lion that is deprived of rationality is not evil because a lion is not supposed to be rational.

It would be evil for a human to lack rationality because humans are supposed to be rational. A

READING 1: Dn 7:9-10, 13-14

As I watched:

Thrones were set up and the Ancient One took his throne. His clothing was bright as snow, and the hair on his head as white as wool; his throne was flames of fire, with wheels of burning fire. A surging stream of fire flowed out from where he sat; Thousands upon thousands were ministering to him, and myriads upon myriads attended him. The court was convened and the books were opened.

As the visions during the night continued, I saw: One like a Son of man coming, on the clouds of heaven; When he reached the Ancient One and was presented before him, The one like a Son of man received dominion, glory, and kingship; all peoples, nations, and languages serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not be taken away, his kingship shall not be destroyed.

READING 2: 2 Pt 1:16-19

Beloved:

We did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that unique declaration came to him from the majestic glory, "This is my Son, my beloved, with whom I am well pleased."

We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven while we were with him on the holy mountain. Moreover, we possess the prophetic message that is altogether reliable. You will do well to be attentive to it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THESE INTENTIONS:

POPE FRANCIS: For World Youth Day

We pray the World Youth Day in Lisbon will help young people to live and witness the Gospel in their own lives.

FATHER JARED: For FIRE and BLAZE Families and Volunteers

We pray that the families and volunteers who participate in our FIRE and BLAZE nights may discover a deeper reason to believe and grow in the Faith and energy to pursue holiness in everything they do.

GOSPEL: Mt 17:1-9

Jesus took Peter, James, and his brother, John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with him. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." When the disciples heard this, they fell prostrate and were very much afraid. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Rise, and do not be afraid." And when the disciples raised their eyes, they saw no one else but Jesus alone. As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, "Do not tell the vision to anyone until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

fish without gills is evil, but a human without gills is not evil.

Why Did God Create the World?

God is infinitely good, but why would He create a world where He knew evil would be present? Goodness in itself is self-diffusive. God ultimately created the world in order to share His own goodness. Creation is God sharing His being with others. In order to fully manifest His goodness, He had to create many different things or creatures. If God had only created a few creatures, then His goodness would not have been fully represented. Therefore, God creates to share His goodness, and He does this by creating many different things. It says in Genesis 1:31, "God looked at everything He had made, and found it very good" (NAB). If everything that God has created is intrinsically good, then where does evil come in?

Potency

Creation involves some form of evil because of potency. Evil is a necessary fact about a universe with potency in it. Potency is defined as the capacity to be other, and it can fail. For example, an apple tree has the potency to grow apples. Sometimes the apple tree can fail to grow apples due to various reasons (bad soil, no sunlight, no water, etc.). Evil occurs when potency fails to reach second act (the end or purpose for which something exists). The end (telos) of an apple tree is to grow apples, but evil occurs when the apple tree fails to do so. If potency is not actualized, then it is a privation of a good and therefore evil. A blind person has the potency to see, but since they are blind they are deprived of a good, so it is an evil. Evil is ultimately a fact about creation and not about God. God created the world with potency, so when things fail to achieve the purpose which they were created for, it is evil (privation of good). Aristotle referred to God as "Pure Act". This means that there is no potency in God. He has no capacity to be other or to fail. He simply just exists. Therefore, evil must be a fact about creation and not about God because He does not have potency.

If evil is a necessary fact about a universe with potency in it, then why didn't God create a world without potency? He created the world with potency for the good of all creation. Potency allows for the complete perfection of the universe. It is all ordered to the common good of all creatures. In order for the universe to be perfected, some have to suffer. Good lions kill antelopes. Some have to suffer for the greater good of all of creation. If potency did not exist, then we would not have free will. Greater things come about with the existence of free will than if it did not exist. God created the world with potency to bring about the greater good for all creatures and the perfection of the universe.

The Two Types of Evil

It is also important to distinguish between the two different types of evil. Living creatures with potency can fail in two ways. First, it can fail through first act. This first type of evil is called natural evil. Natural evil is evil suffered. It is evil suffered against first act (the existence of something). An example of natural evil is blindness because it is evil suffered and is lacking the goodness of sight. A human being has the capacity or the potency to see, but due to various circumstances, people are deprived of that good. I am not saying that blind people are evil, but the absence of sight is a form of natural evil (evil suffered) that is out of their control. Potency can also fail through first act by a living thing losing its existence (death).

Second, living creatures can also fail through second act. This second type of evil is called moral evil. Moral evil is evil done. This type is referred to as evil done because humans have the ability to freely choose against attaining their second act or purpose for which they exist. We can freely choose against our own happiness through sin, etc. Moral evil is much worse than natural evil because we can control it. Natural evil such as hurricanes, blindness, or cancer happen to us, but moral evil is something that we can freely choose such as stealing, lying, or gossiping.

Why Does God Allow Evil?

Natural evil is all a part of God's providence. Providence is God ordering all things to their end. God creates to manifest His goodness, and all things are ordered back to Himself. He created the world with a regularity of nature. Things do not happen by chance. God creates things for the sake of their operation. I will use the same examples again. The purpose of an apple tree is to grow apples; an apple tree will not grow a banana. The purpose of human beings is to attain happiness. Each nature is ordered to an end. God allows natural evil to happen so that He can order things to attain their end. The reality is that one creature's suffering could mean the flourishing of another. The suffering of the antelope causes the lion to flourish. God allows natural evil in His providence for the overall perfection of the universe.

Moral evil on the other hand is not a part of God's providence. As I said, moral evil is our own free choice against second act (happiness). We can bring about suffering on our own that is not necessarily God's fault. He created us with free will, and He allows us to make mistakes. God has to allow moral evil as well because then we would no longer have free will.

Conclusion

Evil is a hard subject to talk about, but it is important to be informed about the reality of it. Even though bad things happen, we have to remember that it is all a part of God's plan to bring about a greater good. He would not allow it for any other reason. Even though evil is present in the world, it does not contradict the fact that God is good. God is infinitely good, and He uses evil to bring about an even greater good in our lives. Evil is a fact about creation and not about God. God created a universe with potency, so evil happens when potency fails to be actualized.

WE NEED ADORATION CHAPEL ADORERS

We need couples, families, and individuals who desire to spend time with Jesus. You can have a regular adoration hour or choose from times needed on our wonderful app. If you have never visited our Adoration Chapel, please stop by for a visit. You are welcome anytime. The Chapel is always open; however, between 6pm-6am, a code is needed to enter. The code can be assigned to you by calling Sylvia Riera, our Adoration Chapel Coordinator. For more information visit www.saintlukeslidell.org and click ADORE!

PRIEST CONVOCATION SEPTEMBER 6-8, 2023

Every 4 years, priests from across Louisiana gather for a 3-day convocation. More than 350 priests from all over the state gather to pray, share support and leadership ideas, and more. No other state has a similar convocation, and Archbishop Aymond uses the time to get to know our priests, our parish needs, and offer his wisdom and guidance. It's an amazing opportunity for our priests, and we ask for your prayers as Fr. Jared, Fr. Suvakin, and Fr. Cooper attend.

To allow our priests the necessary time to go, there will be no confessions on September 6, and visiting priests will cover the daily Masses. More information will be available in the weeks to come.

OUR SENIOR CITIZENS CLUB WILL BE MEETING SOON!

2nd Wednesday of each Month
beginning on September 13, 2023
Our Senior Citizens Club is ramping up their busy calendar of events, and parishioners are invited to join for great trips, monthly meetings, and fun! Call our Parishioner Liaison to join all the events.

BIBLE STUDY: 7 DEADLY VICES, 7 LIVELY VIRTUES

Begins: August 29 | 6:30 pm or
August 31 | 10 am

Bishop Barron's deeper look at sin and virtue. This engaging and eye-opening presentation illuminates the seven deadly sins, those great spiritual blocks that inhibit our flourishing in relationship with God and one another. But there's hope! The seven lively virtues offer antidotes to each sin and help set us on the right path to healing and happiness. In our Family Life Center. Call our office for more information and ask for Patt for the 10 am sessions or Ray for the 6:30 pm sessions.

FIRE is more than simply one night of formation or catechesis. It is a wholistic parish program by which we grow and are formed. The program is designed to help every member of your family grow not only in faith but in family life, strengthening the bonds of love between parents and kids. Our FIRE Nights are for Saint Luke families of all sizes and ages who want to learn to how to be truly Catholic. FIRE is about empowering parents and grandparents to become the best catechists of their children and grandchildren.

FIRE Nights are the primary focus of the year meant to bring together the entire parish family in an ongoing formation process. These nights occur monthly and are approximately 2 hours long. A typical night includes dinner, fun activities, age-appropriate breakout sessions, and a chance for all the members of your family to learn about a particular faith topic. That way, when you head home, everyone has something to share!

WHAT'S A FIRE YEAR LIKE?

IGNight! is the first FIRE Night on September 17, 2023, following the 4 pm Sunday Mass. It's a pump-up night to start off the new year of formation right with an overview of all that will take place in this year of parish formation. Subsequent FIRE Nights follow the same pattern (see the calendar to prepare for the year!)

BLAZE Nights are for those families preparing for a sacrament - First Communion, Confirmation, and for those joining the Church! But it also includes those who are looking for Baptism (Adults and children) and those preparing for Marriage, too! The first COME AND SEE! BLAZE NIGHT will be held August 27, 2023, following the 4 pm Mass. Those members of our parish who are part of BLAZE attend both FIRE and BLAZE Nights (a total of two nights a month.) Dinner is also provided for BLAZE Night.

DONORS AND VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Families who participate in FIRE and BLAZE don't pay for all the amazing fun and learning they do - they are sponsored by incredible donors who make these nights possible. And as if that generosity isn't enough, our VOLUNTEERS step up to set up, pray, provide materials, teach, cook - and so much more. It makes FIRE available for all families who want to grow in their faith and in unity with the Church.

But, an average FIRE night costs about $1000. Would you or your business consider supporting our effort to bring the Gospel into every Saint Luke home? It's a great way to promote your business in a family oriented environment. Or maybe you would you like to give a little of your time and talent to spread the mercy of Christ throughout our community? Ready to put your money/effort where your heart is?
