August 27, 2023

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

21st Sunday Ordinary Time

So often we struggle with our identities. Who am I? Who am I called to be? We forget what a powerful impact our relationship with God has on who we are.

In the first reading, a man faces the outcome of a lost relationship with God. In the second reading, St. Paul exhorts us to remember that everything of any true value comes to us from, through, and with God. And in the Gospel, the relationship between Jesus and St. Peter leads to a powerful inheritance of mercy for us.

YOUR HOMEWORK ASSIGNMENT:

How are your relationships? Do you invest in the relationships that surround you? Are you present to your spouse, your child, your friend, your neighbor? If your relationships are suffering, work at rebuilding your relationship with God this week.

Welcome to Saint Luke!

FROM YOUR PASTOR 2

Hey, Saint Luke Family!

This weekend's Gospel always reminds me that being a priest is a blessing and a challenge: a blessing in that I have a center stage view of the profound good that God is constantly doing in His people, and a challenge in that I rarely have the opportunity to tell you that the greatest blessings I have witnessed have come as a result of the faith, humility, and goodness that you all bring to an encounter with the Lord. I am in this astounding position, only because of relationship.

Jesus asks Peter if he knows who Jesus is. In knowing who Jesus is we then are capable of knowing who we are. Relationships define us. I am your spiritual father. But that is only because Jesus, granting me this special ordination to enter into this relationship, makes that possible. And I am only a spiritual father in that you and I have a relationship. If I know who He is, and I know who you are - then I know who I have been called to be. It's a profound grace: loved by the Lord, and loved by you, my love has meaning. It is like that with you. In your marriage, if you are the husband and father, you are so because God called you to this special vocation and loved you into it. And your wife, seeing that goodness worthy of love in you, has made you a husband. Love makes a woman a friend, or a daughter, or a sister, or a mother, or a wife, or a religious sister. Love makes a man a friend, or a son, or a brother, or a father, or a husband, or a religious brother, deacon, or priest.

Which is why so often when someone talks to me about what a huge "blessing" I have been to them, I always remind them that it was Christ - who, moved to pity by His love for you, reached down from the cross to embrace you and offer His mercy through me - and it is because of your openness to His love that the blessing was possible. I am only His humble servant - and yours. It is also why when someone is unhappy with me for calling out a place where the conduit of blessing is prevented from flowing (think of it like a clogged artery in the channel of peace and grace) or when I make a distinct correction to the way a sacrament or liturgy takes place, and someone becomes unhappy about the change, I am never angry. It is my responsibility to keep my eyes and my ears firmly fixed upon Jesus - and my heart firmly open to you - and it is that ardent love for Jesus and for you that obliges me to pursue the correction. I know how good Jesus is and how worthy He is to receive right worship and right praise. I also know how good you are and how worthy you are of entering into that encounter with Him.

It's all about the relationships.

This Gospel so associated with the life of a priest draws our attention to the importance of relationships.

*Who do YOU say that I am?
Simon, Son of Jonah,...
My heavenly Father...*

And look at how Peter discovers his true identity because of the relationship Jesus has with him:

*You are a foundation for My Church... You are a dispenser of freedom... You are a giver of mercy...
You are a discernor of the truth... because you are MY priest.*

This is the relationship that Jesus gave to the Church as a spiritual inheritance for me and for you. I truly pray that you will abide in the that beautiful identity because of my relationship with Jesus and with you:

You are worthy. You are loved. You are invited into mercy and you are my spiritual family.

I hope that instills in you a new found desire to love one another as Christ loves you - and as I tenderly and humbly do, too.

To Jesus through Mary,
in union with St. Joseph, Your pastor,

3 LITURGY READINGS + MUSIC

MUSIC

ENTRANCE: IMMORTAL, INVISIBLE, GOD ONLY WISE

1. Immortal, invisible, God only wise,
In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessed, most glorious,
the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious, your great name
we praise.

4. Great Father of glory,
pure Father of light,
Your angels adoring, all veiling their sight;
We too, God invisible, offer our praise;
O light inaccessible, Ancient of Days!

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. Lord, your love is eternal;
do not forsake the work of your hands.

OFFERTORY: O GOD, YOU SEARCH ME #581

1. O God, you search me and you know me.
All my thoughts lie open to your gaze.
When I walk or lie down you are before me:
Ever the maker and keeper of my days.

2. You know my resting and my rising.
You discern my purpose from afar,
And with love everlasting you besiege me:
In ev'ry moment of life or death, you are.

3. Before a word is on my tongue, Lord,
You have known its meaning through and through.
You are with me beyond my understanding:
God of my present, my past and future, too.

READING 1: Is 22:19-23

Thus says the LORD to Shebna, master of the palace:

"I will thrust you from your office and pull you down from your station.

On that day I will summon my servant Eliakim, son of Hilkiah; I will clothe him with your robe, and gird him with your sash, and give over to him your authority.

He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.

I will place the key of the House of David on Eliakim's shoulder; when he opens, no one shall shut, when he shuts, no one shall open. I will fix him like a peg in a sure spot, to be a place of honor for his family."

READING 2: Rom 11:33-36

Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How inscrutable are his judgments and how unsearchable his ways!

For who has known the mind of the Lord or who has been his counselor?

Or who has given the Lord anything that he may be repaid?

For from him and through him and for him are all things.

To him be glory forever.

Amen. Alleluia

PLEASE PRAY FOR THESE INTENTIONS:

LITURGY READINGS + MUSIC 4

GOSPEL: Mt 16:13-20

Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi and he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?"
They replied, "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets."
He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"
Simon Peter said in reply,
"You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."
Jesus said to him in reply,
"Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah.
For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father.
And so I say to you, you are Peter,
and upon this rock I will build my church,
and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it.
I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven.
Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven;
and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."
Then he strictly ordered his disciples to tell no one that he was the Christ.

MUSIC

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, says the Lord, and I will raise him up on the last day.

COMMUNION: THE SUPPER OF THE LORD

Refrain:

*Precious body, precious blood,
seen as bread and wine;
here the Lord prepares the feast divine.
Bread of love is broken now,
cup of life is poured:
come, share the supper of the Lord.*

1. This is the bread of God
coming down from heav'n, giving life to us, to all the world.

[Refrain]

2. "I am the living spring
of eternal life;
you that drink from me shall not thirst again."

[Refrain]

3. "I am the bread of heav'n giving life to you;
you that eat this bread shall never die."

[Refrain]

4. "All those who feed on me have their life in me, as I have my life in the living God."

[Refrain]

FAITH FORMATION 6

FIRE (FAMILY INVOLVED RELIGIOUS EDUCATION) 2023 - 2024 REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN!

FIRE was awesomely received in our parish, because it represents a bold move in the Holy Spirit to empower individuals to interact with their faith in a whole new way - and empower parents and grandparents as the first catechists of their children. But FIRE is about every family - and every person - regardless of age or family situation. Designed specifically for our parish, FIRE is a completely Catholic spiritual movement from the ground up - led by our pastor, Fr. Jared Rodrigue, and run by nearly a hundred volunteers.

Its foundations are the Holy Scriptures and Sacred Tradition, the teachings of the Church, and the lives of the saints. Creative, fun, and immersive, FIRE is about seeing how God's outpouring of love throughout salvation history is a story of which YOU are a part - and how that history is moving and out from you to the edges of the world.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

Saint Luke is a parish family made up of different individuals and families from all walks of life. We know life is complicated right now. Some of our families are mom, dad, and a school bus full of kids. Some of our families are grandparents whose families live somewhere else. Some of our families are just getting started - engaged couples, parents getting ready for a baptism - and some of our families are divorced parents trying to be the best they can. Some of our families are made up of grandparents bringing up their grandkids - and some of our families are adult children with elderly parents. Some of the folks who come to FIRE nights are widows or widowers or single college students.

WHEREVER YOUR LIFE IS RIGHT NOW, FIRE IS FOR YOU.

That's why FIRE nights have something for everyone. When you arrive, everyone gets a chance to see and experience the teaching for the night, then we break out into small groups specifically geared to your age group. Everyone gets the same teaching - but it's creative, new, and fresh for your stage in life.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

Jesus asks a better question. Why are you spending your money on things that leave you empty and anxious? FIRE nights are sponsored by people who really want you to know the story of God's love for you, so if you can offer a donation to help us cover materials and meals, GREAT! But if you can't - don't worry about it. The most important part of FIRE nights is that you come, because this is about family -

AND YOU ARE FAMILY.

WHEN IS FIRE NIGHT?

FIRE nights happen ONCE A MONTH following the 4 pm Mass on Sunday nights. They typically last only about two hours, because we provide dinner for everyone who comes. (We have some pretty incredible cooks and restaurants who donate the meals and preparation!)

I AM READY FOR A SACRAMENT.

Wow. Thank you for the privilege to participate in preparing you for Christ's invitation. Whether you're a new couple just recently engaged (CONGRATULATIONS!) or a family getting ready for your child's baptism (WE LOVE KIDS!) or if you're about to receive your First Holy Communion or Confirmation (WAY TO GO!), we've built a second night once a month just for you, because it's twice as special! You get to come to FIRE nights and BLAZE nights.

BLAZE nights are for: Marriage Prep, Baptismal Preparation, First Holy Communion, Confirmation, and for those wishing to join the Catholic Church. They're just like FIRE nights, but they dig deeper to teach you all the beautiful reasons for living a sacramental life in the Church.

So what do you think? Ready to set your heart on FIRE?

OUR SENIOR CITIZENS CLUB WILL BE MEETING SOON!

2nd Wednesday of each Month
beginning on September 13, 2023

Our Senior Citizens Club is ramping up their busy calendar of events, and parishioners are invited to join for great trips, monthly meetings, and fun! Call our Parishioner Liaison to join all the events.

PARISH LIFE + ARCHDIOCESE 8

FIRE is designed to help every member of your family grow not only in faith but in family life, strengthening the bonds of love between parents and kids. Our FIRE Nights are for Saint Luke families of all sizes and ages who want to learn to how to be truly Catholic, and it empowers parents and grandparents to become the best catechists of their children and grandchildren. FIRE Nights occur monthly and are approximately 2 hours long. A typical night includes dinner, fun activities, age-appropriate breakout sessions, and a chance for all the members of your family to learn about a particular faith topic. That way, when you head home, everyone has something to share!

WHAT'S A FIRE YEAR LIKE?

IGNight! is the first FIRE Night on September 17, 2023, following the 4 pm Sunday Mass. It's a pump-up night to start off the new year of formation right with an overview of all that will take place in this year of parish formation. Subsequent FIRE Nights follow the same pattern (see the calendar on our website to prepare for the year!)

BLAZE Nights are for those families preparing for a sacrament - First Communion, Confirmation, and for those joining the Church! But it also includes those who are looking for Baptism (Adults and children) and those preparing for Marriage, too! The first COME AND SEE! BLAZE NIGHT will be held August 27, 2023, following the 4 pm Mass. Those members of our parish who are part of BLAZE attend both FIRE and BLAZE Nights (a total of two nights a month.) Dinner is also provided for BLAZE Night.

DONORS AND VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Families who participate in FIRE and BLAZE don't pay for all the amazing fun and learning they do - they are sponsored by incredible donors who make these nights possible. And as if that generosity isn't enough, our VOLUNTEERS step up to set up, pray, provide materials, teach, cook - and so much more. It makes FIRE available for all families who want to grow in their faith and in unity with the Church. But, an average FIRE night costs about $1000. Would you or your business consider supporting our effort to bring the Gospel into every Saint Luke home? It's a great way to promote your business in a family oriented environment. Or maybe you would you like to give a little of your time and talent to spread the mercy of Christ throughout our community? Ready to put your money/effort where your heart is? Visit www.saintlukeslidell.org/FIRE
